1982-83 LEAVES ARE ANNOUNCED

Pending approval of the budget, leaves for the 1982-83 academic year have been approved. Embarking on various studies will be Dr. Margaret Doane (English), Dr. Amer El-Ahraf (Health Science and Human Ecology), Dr. Stuart Ellins (Psychology), Dr. Marvin Frost (Geography), Dr. Marsha Liss (Psychology), Dr. Stuart Persell (History), and Dr. William Slout (Theatre Arts).

Dr. Doane plans to take winter and spring quarters to work on a book about the narrators in the works of Willa Cather, a Pulitzer-prize winning, 20th century writer. Dr. El-Ahraf plans to write and revise books and articles on health and human ecology, making visits here and abroad with experts in the field during his year-long leave. Dr. Ellins plans to extend his past research on coyote feeding behavior, learning and psychophysics to other wild canines during winter and spring quarters at North American Wolf Park in Indiana.

During spring quarter, Dr. Frost plans to travel to Belize, British Honduras, to re-search the effects of human land use on wildlife. Dr. Liss plans to be on leave the academic year studying women pioneers in Israel and the connection between psychology and law in relation to adolescents. Dr. Persell plans to be on leave winter and spring quarters researching French imperialist Jean L. de Lanessan, an influential biologist and president of Societe Anthropologique. Dr. Slout plans to be on leave during winter quarter to finish editing a 19th century account by Charles Durang of an acting family.

COLLEGE OPEN HOUSE SET FOR SUNDAY, APRIL 25

Three major activities will be part of the college's Open House set for Sunday, April 25. Launching the annual spring event will be the Alumni Awards Luncheon at 11 a.m. in the College Commons. The campus community is invited to join with former students in recognizing the accomplishments of several outstanding graduates.

Events and activities for the Open House are being scheduled from noon to 4 p.m. this year. Many of the popular programs from the past two Open Houses will be repeated and some new attractions are being planned.

Cal State will host one of the Southern California Health Fair Expo programs that day. The massive health screening project, free with the exception of an optional blood chemistry, provides a range of health screening plus exhibits and demonstrations. The services this year will also be open to children, with parental consent. Volunteers are being sought to help with the Health Fair, which will be conducted from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Services Building. They should call the Department of Health Science and Human Ecology Office, Ext. 7348, to donate their services.

ENGLISH EQUIVALENCY EXAM
TO BE GIVEN HERE APRIL 24

and interpretation of literature.
will administer the exam.

The California State University English Equivalency Examination will be administered at 8:30 a.m., Saturday, April 24, in PS 10. The three-hour exam has two parts, one essay and the other test on analysis
Dr. Donald Woods (Counseling and Testing Center)

Students who pass both parts of the exam will be given credit for two terms of English at any Cal State campus and will be excused from the English Placement Test, a requirement for all entering lower-division students who have been admitted to the CSU as first-time freshmen. University of California campuses also award credit to those who pass, although campuses vary in the courses for which they give credit. Other students may not score high enough to qualify for units, but may do sufficiently well to be excused from the English Placement Test.

Applications should be submitted by April 2. The forms are available from high schools and the Admissions Office, Ext. 7311. The test fee is $37. Dr. Edward M. White (English) directs the English Equivalency Examination program.

MATH PLACEMENT TEST TO BE ADMINISTERED

The Math Placement Test will be given at 9 a.m., Wednesday and Thursday, March 31 and April 1, in BI 101. No advance registration will be necessary. Scoring and advising by Math Department faculty will take place immediately upon completion of the test, which takes about 30 minutes. Any student who has not taken the placement test should do so prior to registering for any math class. Questions may be directed to the Math Department, Ext. 7351.

NAMS TO SPONSOR
CAREER CONVENTION

The National Association of Minority Students (NAMS) will offer a career convention April 3-5 at the Hyatt Hotel in San Jose. Topics will include resume writing and interview skills, career choices, graduate and professional schools, job selection, personal growth and development, leadership skills and campus political strategy. Corporations and government agencies will be recruiting, along with graduate and professional schools. Registration is $35 for students, $45 for others if made before March 16 and $45 students, $55 others after that date. Information is available by calling Olivia Castorena, president of CSCSB MEChA, 825-5109, or Emmerson Holliday, NAMS executive director, (714) 980-3580.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, Ext. 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

WORKS BY WAGNER FEATURED ON WIND ENSEMBLE PROGRAM

The Wind Ensemble will perform a variety of music by European composers, including works by Richard Wagner, at 8:15 p.m., Sunday, in the Recital Hall. Admission is $3 general, $1.50 students.

Soloist Julie Sieben, a senior, will join the ensemble in "Elizabeth's Prayer" from Wagner's "Tannhauser." Two other Wagner works, "Trauersinfonie" and "Huldigungsmarsch," are not often performed and have been edited by Keating Johnson, director of the Wind Ensemble. Harry Harbaugh, former instrumental director at Pacific High School, is the guest conductor.

Also among the selections will be "Marche Lorraine," a composition by Louise Gann that incorporates folk melodies from medieval Lorraine, France, Second Suite in F by Gustav Holst and "Nacht Musique" by Mozart.

PAINTINGS BY SORENSON ON DISPLAY IN GALLERY

Don Sorenson, a familiar name to gallery goers in the Los Angeles area, will introduce his newest paintings in a show which opens Wednesday in the Art Gallery. Members of the campus community are invited to meet the artist during a reception at 7 p.m. opening day. Sorenson will speak about the evolution of his art at 3 p.m., Wednesday in VA 110.

The show, up through April 2, marks the first time Sorenson has exhibited since he made a major shift in style from pure abstract painting to recognizable imagery. Titled "Temple Paintings," the works on display employ forms and symbols related to ancient Greek temples.

MEDIA IN EDUCATION CONFERENCE MARCH 20

An all-day conference on the use of computer, media and library resources in the classroom will be offered Saturday, March 20, at Cal State. Herb Nickles (Computer Center) will lead a session on the use of microcomputers in education. Other topics will include programs in communication arts, teaching critical viewing of television, legislative action affecting media planners, users and buyers, and learning kits developed by fifth-graders. Registration should be made by Monday by calling Dr. Robert Senour (Audio-Visual), who is coordinating the event, at Ext. 7296.

FACULTY ASKED TO NOMINATE ALUMNI

Faculty are reminded that Monday is the deadline for submitting nominations for Alumnus of the Year and Distinguished Alumnus awards. Faculty who know of alumni who have made outstanding professional achievements and contributions to the community can make nominations by obtaining a form from the Dean of Students Office, Ext. 7524. Recipients will be announced at the third annual Alumni Award Luncheon to be held April 25 in conjunction with Open House.

SONIC ART SHOW TO CLOSE SUNDAY

The final presentation by an artist participating in the Sonic Art Show will be a performance and workshop by Stephen Kent Goodman at noon today in the lobby of the Creative Arts Building. Goodman will demonstrate how he makes his acoustical sculptures. The show in the Art Gallery will close Sunday.

12TH ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL THEATRE WORKSHOP TOMORROW

Drama teams from seven area high schools will perform during an all-day workshop Saturday in the Theatre. The public is invited at no charge. Performances will begin at 9 a.m. and conclude at 4 p.m. This is the 12th year the Players of the Pear Garden has hosted this workshop.

Each school will present a 20-minute performance. Participating schools and their selections, most of them scenes from plays, will be: Cajon, scenes from Shakespeare's plays and a scene from the movie "The Final Conflict: Omen Part III"; Bloomington, an adaptation of H.H. Munro's story "The Open Window"; Eisenhower, excerpts from "Mark Twain's America"; Rim of the World, Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit"; Apple Valley, unknown; Yucaipa, "Feiffer's People," short skits by Jules Feiffer, and an original script by Yucaipa High School students; La Sierra, Jan de Hartong's "The Four Poster" and Neil Simon's "Plaza Suite."

After each presentation, a panel will offer constructive criticism. Panel members will be Dr. Amanda Sue Rudisill (Theatre Arts), who also is coordinating the event; playwright Harry Cauley; Emmett Jacobs, associate professor of theatre at Loyola Marymount University; and Carol Harmer, a senior at Cal State, San Bernardino.

HEPBURN FILM IS NEXT IN SERIES

"The Madwoman Of Chaillot" starring Katherine Hepburn will be shown at 7:30 p.m., tomorrow, in PS 10. The madwoman is really the Countess Aurelia, who lives in a state of genteel decay in the midst of modern Paris. She writes daily letters to herself, gossips with the sewer man, provides scraps for the cats of Chaillot and apparently is oblivious to the 20th century.

Meanwhile, the establishment conspirators are at work--the Army general who happily advises cadets that their legacy is a nuclear bomb and the prospector who believes there is oil beneath Paris. Charles Boyer, Richard Chamberlain, Yul Brynner and Danny Kaye also star. The foreign films are free and open to the public.

CLOSE-UPS ON NATURE SUBJECTS OF DISPLAY

The textures and shapes of nature are the subjects of close-up photographs by Franz Bader on display in the Library through March 28. Known as the dean of Washington, D.C., art dealers, Bader is credited with giving Grandma Moses her first exhibition in his gallery, which he opened in 1952.

His enthusiasm for art expressed itself in his photography, which has been exhibited at the Corcoran Gallery of Art, the Ringling Museum, the Phillips Collection and the National Academy of Science. His photograph "Moonshot" is in the permanent collection of the Smithsonian Air and Space Museum.

BLOOD DONORS ARE NEEDED

The Health Center has notified the campus community that persons are needed to donate blood in the name of Albert Blair, a former equipment technician for the Psychology Department. Blair underwent open heart surgery yesterday at St. Bernardine's Hospital. Prospective donors should go to the Blood Bank on Blood Bank Road, San Bernardino, and specify that the account for Blair be credited.

CONCERT CHOIR, CHAMBER SINGERS JOIN IN PROGRAM

Music ranging from the Renaissance period through contemporary, including American Indian and American madrigal songs, will be performed by the Concert Choir and Chamber Singers in an 8:15 p.m., Wednesday, concert in the Recital Hall.

A major work to be performed is Benjamin Britten's serious classical piece "A Hymn to St. Cecilia." Dr. Loren Filbeck is the director. General admission is $3, students, $1.50.

NOTEWORTHY

Dr. Catherine Gannon (Academic Planning) has received an award from the Western Assn. of Educational Opportunity Programs in appreciation for her support of the organization.

SPEAKING OUT

Dr. Mireille Rydell (French) spoke to a class at Belvedere School in Highland about Morocco May 3.

Dr. Del LaVerne Watson (Nursing) spoke to administrative personnel from hospitals in the Blythe area on "Changing Roles in Nursing and Their Effect on Continuing Education" last week. She also spoke to the nursing staff at Lanterman State Hospital in Pomona on "Current Trends in Nursing" Feb. 25.
