Charges Washington must provide greater education and economic assistance to Latinos, but blacks must demand more of themselves.

"If we’re serious about reclaiming that dream, we have to do more in our own lives, our own families and not our own communities," Obama said. "That starts with providing the goods our children need, turning off the TV and putting away the video games, saddling our young people with the health care system that worked for a good example.

In a direct address at Rev. Jesse Jackson, Obama added: "I know several Jews who’ve been tough on us about responsibility. NAACP, I’m here to report. I am going to stop talking about it. Because fighting to get government to do its job isn’t going to bring significant change until we take more responsibility for our own lives." Obama, the son of a single mother and father of two daughters has enjoyed several strong winning looks and writings about general political unity, the man who could become the first Black president.

San Manuel Amphitheater Set To Debut

Formerly Known as Glen Helen Pavilion, San Manuel Indian Bingo and Casino and Live Nation Enter Into a Long-Term Name-Title Agreement

July 17, 2008 | SAN MANUEL, INDIAN NATION

The High Desert Concert Joint partners San Manuel Indian Bingo and Casino and Live Nation have announced a long-term agreement for exclusive naming rights to North America's largest amphitheater. Effective immediately, the facility formerly known as Glen Helen Pavilion will be rebranded San Manuel Amphitheater.

San Manuel Indian Bingo and Casino is one of Southern California's premier entertainment destinations. They're known for providing incredible live performances and entertainment, providing an incredible experience to the community. Today's announcement begins a long-term commitment to providing great performances for live music, entertainment, and sporting events in Los Angeles area.

"We are very glad to have San Manuel as a partner and look for-ward to working with them," said Nick Masters, President of Live Nation SoCa. "Glen’s strong live entertainment roots and close ties to the community, we think this is a great fit for the Amphitheater."

Based on fan and artist alike as one of the most spectacular outdoor venues in Southern California, San Manuel Amphitheater is located amongst the gentlest of climates, making a year-round calendar of events possible. The venue has the capacity of any amphitheater in the nation. Depending upon the individual show and its production requirements, as many as 68,000 fans can enjoy top-notch entertainment under a picturesque sky.

"We are delighted about this new opportunity to be associated with one of the premier outdoor entertainment venues in Southern California. San Manuel has always been focused on providing an automobile entertainment experience. This new partnership continues to fuel that tradition," said Steve Langlois, executive director of operations for San Manuel Indian Bingo and Casino.

World-renowned artists from a wide variety of genres, such as Linkin Park, Tim McGraw, Kenny Chesney, RBD and more, have performed here. Built following the success of the groundbreaking 1995 US Festival, San Manuel Amphitheater continues to serve as a prime setting for some of today's biggest music events, including The Black Keys, The Rockefeller Energy Drink Mayhem Festival and many other large-scale shows. In addition to its busy concert schedule, San Manuel Amphitheater also hosts many special community events.

"Music fans will notice the building's new logo and signage in just a couple of weeks. We're excited about this new look," said Carlos Villeda, general manager of San Manuel Amphitheater.

"I think the more than 750 current students put together financial aid packages so that the more than nine million students are able to pursue their education and career goals.

"My biggest task," Soyemi adds,-go to my parents to not disqualify themselves in financial aid. Particularly, the parents, who may not realize that funds are available. "All the students or parents have to do is to visit the financial planning portion in go to any college or university financial aid office and fill out the FAFSA form. That enables for First Application for Federal Student Loan. And you simply ask, what else is available?"

"The answer to this is an economic crisis," agrees Bella Soyemi, Director of Student Financial Services for the Art Institute of California - Inland Empire. "The funds for college are still available. It's just that parents and students don't realize it."

Students considering an educ-ation at an art school may very likely have a definite career goal, so the education they provide focuses on training people to work in creative fields. But, with all of these options, students need to prepare for the fees that go with a college education.

Argue To Teach, Not To Win

In another word, pluralism means acceptance and tolerance in the argument. If there is a high level of factual accuracy on the subject involved, pluralism should provide the forum for such discussion and debate.

Nevertheless, the argument for reasonableness is not a call for total tolerance of every view. Reasonableness does not mean that the speaker or writer comes to a conclusion that what is written is true, but it does mean that the thinking process is not limited to the material presented. The writer or speaker is allowed to argue with "right fighters." If their goal is to "be right" then the argument can turn on "being right." Their world is as fragile as they are. Global warming threatens not only the earth but the future of its most precious inhabitants; our children. If we join together, we may face this threat against this threat. Last year, Californians replaced over six million regular lights with CFLs. Let’s do more. If all of us replace five more regular light bulbs with energy efficient ones we can minimize the emissions that cause global warming. It’s critical we act now. Our children are not our future—we are their future. For information on rebates and energy-efficient products visit FlexYourPower.org.

Baseball’s All Star Game, in its 81st season.

The American and National League teams lined up 63 players combined in a game of endurance. J.D. Drew was named the game’s MVP as he had two hits, including a game tying 2 run homer in the 7th.

The 76th All Star Game was punctuated by two dramatic plays in the plate. One by Dodger catcher Russell Martin who tagged out Dioneer Navarro to prolong the game in the 11th.

The other close play ended the game as Minnesota’s Justin Morneau slid just ahead of Braves catcher Brian McCann’s tag in the 15th.

Los Angeles Angels leaders the Stanole, Ernie Sienante and Frankie Rodriguez each saw action. Combined, the pitchers allowed two hits and one earned run.

The Saturday night show saw a capacity crowd of nearly 5,000. Some of the stars on hand included Glen Turman, Judge Mablean, and Reginald T. Dorsey and on Sunday the lineup included Nigel Thatcher and Stevie Wonder.

"I've followed the rodeo since I was 15 years old," said Weldon Foster of Fontana, "I like the new venue, its cooler and it shortens the distance we have to travel with the LA folks."

Lynn Lee, who brought a large group of co-workers from Kaiser Permanente in Fontana, agreed that Stevie Wonder was a hit. "He's said he's going to be the first blind cowboy and everyone began screaming with delight. I loved watching the crowd react to him," she said.

The show's founder, Lou Vasson said that he was pleased with the Southern California shows. "I am always pleased when people have fun and the cowboys and girls are safe. And I am always pleased to see my friends in the LA area."

From the city of Pomona, attending for 19 years was Venice Green Jordan, community activist and elected official. She brought two bussesloads of people, each just for the handicapped in her community. "Every year our community looks forward to the rodeo. For the past 18 years the sheriff has provided the transportation, but this year First Student, a bus line, accommodated the citizens," she said. Green Jordan said that she found the accommodations very good at the new location and that it was even more special because Stevie Wonder was there.
