CAMPUS-WIDE RECEPTION TO HONOR NEW PRESIDENT

The entire campus community--students, staff and faculty--is invited to a reception honoring President and Mrs. Anthony H. Evans Thursday, Dec. 2.

The event, an opportunity for all to meet the college's second president and his wife, will be held in the Lower Commons from 2:30 to 5 p.m. It will be hosted by the Associated Students and the Cal State Associates, with the assistance of staff.

Theme for the festive occasion will be "A Season's Greetings." Musical interlude will be provided by students from the Music Department.

Dr. Evans, who began his duties on campus Nov. 1, has had a full schedule of meetings with campus and off-campus groups and at the CSU headquarters in Long Beach. One of his first functions was to welcome the new CSU chancellor, Dr. W. Ann Reynolds, and student body presidents from the other 18 CSU campuses here for the regular meeting of the California State Students Assn. last weekend.

BUILDING CLOSURE, COMPUTER SHUT DOWN OVER THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY ANNOUNCED

To complete repairs on electrical switchgear and a high temperature hot water line in the utility tunnel, the campus will be closed Friday and Saturday, Nov. 26 and 27, the two days following Thanksgiving. The residence halls will remain open. The Commons will serve meals to dorm students Saturday and Sunday, but the housing contract specifies meals will not be provided Thanksgiving and the day after.

The campus should return to its normal schedule by Sunday, Nov. 28, except for the Computer Center, which has special hours. Because of the procedures involved in shutting down the computers, the process will begin Wednesday, Nov. 24. Computer systems will not be available according to the following schedule:

CYBER 720 (72)	3 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 24, to noon, Monday, Nov. 29
PDP 11/45 (45)	3 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 24, to noon, Monday, Nov. 29
Microcomputer Lab (APPLEs)	5 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 24, to 8 a.m., Monday, Nov. 29

The Library will be open for normal hours Sunday, Nov. 28, which is the last weekend before the end of classes. Sunday hours are 12 noon to 8 p.m. Physical education complex hours for the weekend are listed separately on Page 4.

PAYDAYS ANNOUNCED

November paychecks will be available for distribution at 3 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 1. The December checks will be given out at 4 p.m., Thursday, Dec. 30 because of the holiday to be taken on Friday, Dec. 31.

PACKETS AVAILABLE FOR WINTER QUARTER

Registration packets for winter quarter may be picked up from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., today, and from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Wednesday, in the Admissions and Records Lobby, SS 100. Students who do not get their packets during this time may do so in the gym during registration, Jan. 3 and 4. Student I.D.'s must be presented to obtain packets. New and replacement I.D.'s can be obtained in PL 87 during the same time packets are available.

Advising for winter quarter will continue today and Monday through Wednesday. Students may schedule appointments with their advisors by contacting the department advisement offices, listed on Pages 6 and 7 of the Class Schedule. Winter quarter schedules are available for 75 cents plus tax from the Bookstore.

The last day of regular classes this fall is Friday, Dec. 3, with finals scheduled Dec. 6 through 9. Saturday classes will meet for the last time Saturday, Dec. 4, with finals given Saturday, Dec. 11.

DEC. 1 RECEPTION OPENS SENIOR SHOW

The varied work of seven senior art majors will be exhibited in the Art Gallery beginning Dec. 1. The show will open with a public reception at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 1 in the Gallery.

Exhibiting will be Sandra Fuller, fibers and textiles; Tony Grano, ceramics; Kathy Grossman, painting and sculpture; Jeanne Lane, wood; Bob McDonald, painting; Ken Reed, glass and ceramics; and Ruth E. White, flat glass and wood.

Gallery hours during the show, which closes Jan. 6, are 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, except on holidays.

SCHOOL OF ADMINISTRATION HOSTS
ARTICULATION COUNCIL MEETING

The School of Administration hosted the fall meeting of the Liaison Committee on Business Administration of the Articulation Council, Southern Section yesterday in the Pfau Library.

The committee includes representatives from 18 colleges in southern California. President Anthony Evans and Dean Hal Hoverland welcomed the representatives. Mike Rose (Relations with Schools) described the college's articulation program with local high schools and community colleges. The meeting was chaired by Dr. Terrell Manyak (Business Administration).

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, extension 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

CAL STATE ASSOCIATES
SPONSOR CHRISTMAS GREETING

The Cal State Associates again will enable members of the college community to extend holiday greetings to each other while helping to provide scholarships for students here.

The holiday greeting card prepared by the Associates lists all donors to the scholarship fund. It is sent to each contributor. Last year the Associates were able to award two scholarships with the holiday contributions. Donations may be sent to: Donald C. Woods (Counseling & Testing), Jennifer McMullen (Administration) or Geneva C. Woods, 335 E. Ralston Ave., San Bernardino, 92404.

CONCERT CHOIR TO CO-PRESENT
HANDEL'S 'MESSIAH' SUNDAY

The Cal State Concert Choir and the College Singers from Victor Valley College will present selections from Handel's "Messiah" at 8:15 p.m., Sunday, in the Recital Hall. Directed by Dr.

Loren Filbeck (Music) and Dr. Thomas Miller of Victor Valley, the choirs will sing the Christmas portion of the oratorio, plus the Hallelujah Chorus and the final chorus, "Worthy is the Lamb."

The 50 singers will be accompanied by an 18-piece chamber orchestra, which will give special attention to the way the music sounded when originally performed in the mid-18th century. Soloists will be Dr. Miller, tenor, and Cal State students Paul Chatfield, bass-baritone; Christine Coppinger, mezzo-soprano; Pamela Brown, contralto; Emmanuel Humphries, bass; Laura Callister, soprano; and Debra Bankhardt, soprano.

Tickets, to be sold at the door, are $3 general and $1.50 students.

FAMILY PERFORMANCE SERIES
BRINGS TEATRO DE LOS PUPPETS

Teatro de los Puppets, a bilingual puppet company, will present "Viva Olympia!" Friday, Dec. 3. Part of the Family Performance Series, the program will begin at 7:15 p.m. in the Re-recital Hall. Tickets, available at the door, are $1 for children age 12 and under, $2 for adults.

During its shows, the company communicates to both Spanish- and English-speaking members of the audience. An interpreter for the deaf will translate its bilingual dialog into sign language. Teatro de los Puppets will combine colorful puppets ranging from 10 inches to 10 feet tall, ethnic music, masks, mime and audience participation to recreate the excitement, history and ideals of the Olympic Games.

Over the past seven years, the group has become a leading puppet company in southern California. Teatro has performed at the Dorothy Chandler Pavillion, Hollywood Bowl, Olvera Street, Disneyland Hotel and in schools, parks, shopping malls and festivals. The three members also brought the puppets to the John F. Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C.

The MEChA Club will assist in the program by providing ushers and free refreshments. Series sponsors are the School of Humanities, the School of Education, Services to Students with Disabilities Office, Children's Center, Distinguished Lecturers and Artists, Associated Students and President's Club.

COLLECTORS GUILD
TO MEET TUESDAY

Items from the Colonial period of American history will be exhibited at the fall meeting of the Cal State Collectors Guild Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Coleman in San Bernardino.

Dr. Coleman will show George Washington's expense account, the 1824 Stone Imprint on the Declaration of Independence and broadside printings of the Declaration. Collectors interested in joining the guild or attending the meeting should contact Dr. Irving Buchen (Humanities) for further information.

KEATING JOHNSON TO PRESENT TUBA RECITAL

Music originally written for other instruments but edited for the tuba will be performed by Keating Johnson (Music) in a recital at 8:15 p.m., Tuesday in the Recital Hall.

He will play Fantasy Pieces for cello and piano, variations on the "Carnival of Venice" for cornet and Richard Strauss' Second Concerto for Horn. Included also will be selections for tuba by a West Coast composer, Peter Sacco. Johnson will be accompanied by Jo Lane Slade, piano.

The program is part of the Music at Cal State Series. Admission is $3.50 general admission and $1.75 students.

ART LECTURE
NOON, DEC. 1

Dr. Ann Bermingham, from the Department of Art History at UC, Riverside, will speak at noon, Dec. 1 in VA 110 on "Terra Cognita: The Victorian Suburban Landscape." She received her Ph.D. this year from Harvard, with her dissertation on "The Ideology of Landscape: Gainsborough, Constable and the English Rustic Tradition."

UPWARD BOUND GIVES SCHOLARSHIPS TO FOUR

Four scholarships plus other recognitions were awarded at the Upward Bound awards banquet last Saturday evening in the Commons. Approximately 175 honorees and guests attended.

Two of the four scholarship recipients are attending Cal State here. They are Detra Dorsey and Lucy Tovar. Twelve students received trophies for outstanding academic achievement during the 1982 summer resident session on campus. Awards were given to Dr. Tom Rivera (formerly Educational Support Services) and Dr. John M. Pfau, president emeritus.

Master of ceremonies was San Bernardino City Councilman John D. Hobbs. Sally Rivera, associate dean of Chicano studies at the Claremont Colleges, was guest speaker.

Directed at this campus by John Chesney, Upward Bound is a federally funded program designed to improve the academic and social skills of low-income high school students, and to motivate them to continue their education in post-secondary institutions. The students participate in field trips to cultural, educational and ethnic events. During the summer component of the year-round program, they live in Serrano Village and attend classes specifically designed for them.

SPEAKING OUT

Dr. Margaret Atwell (Education) spoke at the California Reading Assn. annual conference Nov. 4-6 in San Diego on "Textual Interrelationships Between Reading and Writing."

Dr. Stephen A. Bowles (Education) was a guest on a one-hour call-in program, Psychology Magazine, on KGUY radio in Palm Desert Nov. 7. The topic was "The New Morality."

Leo Doyle (Art) has given three lectures recently: at the Western Woodturning Conference Oct. 8-10 at the California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland; to docent trainees at the Edward Dean Museum Oct. 26 on the topic "Cabinet Woods of 18th Century English Furniture"; and on the World of Wood Assn.'s lecture series Oct. 29 in Anaheim on the topic "Design and Woodworking."

Dr. Hal Hoverland (Administration) spoke to the Assn. of Government Accountants on "Creativity and Problem Solving" Nov. 10 at Norton Air Force Base.

Dr. Terrell G. Manyak (Administration) spoke on "The Inland Empire: Part of the World Learning Community" for the Ramona Council of Rotary Clubs Nov. 18 in Sun City.
