$44 INCREASE IN FEES BEGINS SPRING QUARTER

Students taking six units or more will pay an additional $44 per quarter beginning spring term. The fee increase for students taking 5.9 or less units will be $15 per quarter. The Board of Trustees imposed the increases in response to Governor Deukmejian's mandate for a two percent, or $18.6 million, decrease in the CSU budget. The system also faces a $5.3 million reduction in non-resident tuition income.

Expected to generate $15.9 million, the increases will bring the average basic fees paid by full-time California resident students for the fall-through-spring academic year to $495. (Nationally, the 1982-83 average is $979.) Uncommitted funds in the State University Grant Program and $900,000 of the fee increase revenue will be applied to aid for students for whom the mid-year increase represents a financial hardship.

Chancellor Reynolds has issued an executive order implementing a freeze on hiring, promotions, contractual services, purchases and out-of-state travel. She has delegated administration of the freeze to the campus president.

Governor Deukmejian's 1983-84 recommended budget contains a $230 annual student fee increase with additional financial aid, discontinuation of state support for summer session, and reductions in library and custodial staffing. The governor's recommendations will be reviewed in greater detail at the trustees' Jan. 25-26 meeting in Long Beach.

PRESIDENT EVANS OUTLINES NEW DIRECTIONS FOR COLLEGE

The primary mission for Cal State, San Bernardino is to become a regional university, Dr. Evans told more than 350 members of the college community Wednesday noon. The audience of faculty, staff and students filled the Recital Hall and overflowed into the adjoining patio for the winter convocation, the president's first major address.

"May I share with you my one dream for the college? That dream is to help the college reach its natural potential as a regional university noted for its service throughout the Inland Empire," he said. "To achieve this distinction is bigger than one person and can be accomplished only by the effective mobilization of the entire college community."

"This goal did not originate with me, but was the mandate for the college's creation years ago. That unchanging mission is still our purpose for existence: to build a college that is unmistakably regional in its outreach. In my judgment, that is our primary mission."

During the address, Dr. Evans outlined some of the strengths he has found in the college, including its facilities and physical beauty, outstanding faculty and staff, serious and hard-working student body, homogeneity, the value placed in shared governance, many student support programs and a commitment to educational excellence.

He also defined four primary directions for improvement. The college should intensify its admissions outreach efforts, diversify its academic programs to include more practical majors, improve college life to make it more vital, and expand the community relations program not only to build strong partnerships with the communities immediately surrounding the college, but also to reach out to serve communities such as Barstow, Palm Springs, Hemet and Riverside.

Dr. Evans asked each of the 600 employees of the college to commit themselves to three goals over the next year: recruit one new student, help retain at least one student who needs assistance and participate in one additional community activity.

ENROLLMENT UP OVER LAST YEAR

Figures compiled last Wednesday, the final day for enrolling in classes for the winter term, show a five percent increase in student enrollment over the same time last year. At present, 5,025 students have registered for classes, compared to the winter quarter 1982 total of 4,779. The full-time equivalent figure is 3,885, compared to 3,612.7 last year, a 7.5 percent increase. Enrollment traditionally decreases slightly before the official count on census date, Jan. 26.

CHANCELLOR'S VISIT
POSTPONED TO FEB. 28

Chancellor W. Ann Reynolds, who had planned to visit the campus Friday, Jan. 21, has postponed her visit. The event has been rescheduled for Monday, Feb. 28

CHILDREN'S BREAKFAST TO HONOR
DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

The Children's Center Auxiliary Assn. and the Associated Students are sponsoring a children's breakfast celebration in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. tomorrow. Breakfast will be served at 8 a.m. in the Multipurpose Room of the Student Union. Tickets, $1 for adults and 50 cents for children, must be reserved today by calling the Student Union, Ext. 7757.

In a program designed as a cultural exchange for children, Dr. Elliott Barkan (History) will talk about the life and work of Dr. King. Music will be provided by soloist Denise Benton (Upward Bound) and choirs from the Loveland and New Hope Baptist churches. The program also will include a 22-minute film about Dr. King.

QUARTET TO PERFORM
SPIRITUALS JAN. 21

Children will be introduced to the beauty and history of black spirituals during a program by The Californians at 7:15 p.m., Friday, Jan. 21, in the Recital Hall. The program is part of the family performance series, which has boasted sell-out audiences in the previous concerts.

The Californians will sing 13 selections, many 200 to 300 years old, including "Good News! Chariot's coming," "Elijah Rock," "Ezekiel Saw De Wheel," "Ev'rytime," "Dis Ol' Hammer" and "Amen." The audience will have the opportunity to learn a few songs.

The Californians present spirituals in dialect and a cappella as originally sung by the black slaves of the South. Organized in 1964 by Robert McFerrin, formerly of the Metropolitan Opera, the group has toured extensively in Europe, Canada and the United States. Since 1970, its director has been baritone Jonathan Collins.

Tickets will be available at the door at $2 for adults and $1 for children age 12 and under. An interpreter will translate the program for the hearing impaired.

SPECIAL DEAL OFFERED FOR KINGS, OILERS GAME

Coordinators of the Escape program have pulled together a special discount package for the Los Angeles Kings vs. Edmonton Oilers hockey game Tuesday night. For $5, members of the college community can get transportation and tickets to the game, which will be played in Los Angeles. The usual admission fee is $7. Registration, limited to 20 people, is being taken at the Student Union Desk.

COMMITTEE ON THE FUTURE
REPORT NOW IN LIBRARY

A report of the findings of last year's Committee on the Future is now in the Pfau Library. Titled "Toward 2000: Visions and Provisions," the book was published in November 1982 and has a call number of REF LD 729 C9 A419. The committee, formed by the Board of Trustees, visited the college last January to explore imaginative, creative ideas for the future of education.
