JAMES H. URATA GIVEN NEW RESPONSIBILITIES

James H. Urata, who has been serving as acting executive dean for the past 13 months, will have a new title and modified responsibilities beginning Monday when Michael Anderson arrives as executive dean.

Urata has been named director of administrative affairs, in addition to his continuing responsibility as director of plant operations, President Evans announced. In his expanded role, he will direct all activity relating to the physical plant, capital planning and construction, space utilization planning and facilities usage. He will continue to supervise the Department of Public Safety (Campus Police).

He will report directly to the president and will serve as a member of the Administrative Council. Urata will continue to maintain an office in the Administration Building, Room 104, Ext. 7411.

"In my entire professional career, I have never served with a more conscientious or hardworking colleague than James Urata," President Evans said, "and no member of the Cal State community has been more helpful in my transition to the college." The president said he would continue to rely on Urata in assisting with the overall community outreach efforts. He will work specifically with groups and organizations seeking to use the campus facilities for workshops and meetings.

COLLEGE PLACES THIRD IN CSU IN TEACHER PROFICIENCY TEST

Seventy-eight percent of the 76 graduates of Cal State, San Bernardino who took the California Basic Education Skills Test (CBEST) in May passed, giving the college the third highest rating in the CSU system.

Humboldt State scored first, with 88 percent passing, followed by San Diego State and Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo tying for second with 79 percent.

In the test given in February, 58 percent of the college's graduates passed, placing this campus third lowest in the CSU system. Fifty-four percent of the students without degrees taking the February exam passed it. The percentage rose to 58 percent of current students passing the May exam.

Passing the CBEST is required of teachers applying for their first credential, permit or certificate, supplementary authorization or the renewal of an emergency credential. Also, school districts in the state are not permitted to initially employ teachers, whether permanent, temporary or substitute, who have not passed the test, unless they have been employed by another district within 39 months prior to the new appointment. Some exceptions exist for teachers of adult and vocational education.

SS REOCCUPANCY GOAL STILL SEPT. 6

The goal for reoccupying the Student Services Building is still the day after Labor Day, Sept. 6, in spite of water damage caused by last week's downpour.

The unexpected August rains came at a time when the old roof had been removed and only the insulation installed over the bare wood remained to keep the moisture out. Water which soaked through the ceiling collected in light fixtures and caused ceiling tiles to drop. Custodial crews were called in last Sunday to mop up the water collecting on the floors and to re-cover files, furniture and shelves with plastic. Before the roof boards were able to dry out, another shower hit Monday morning.

Installation of the roofing materials is progressing as the surface dries out. Seven air-conditioning units have been lifted to the roof and are in the process of being connected. The complete roof should be waterproofed within a week.

COLETTE SEIPLE NAMED

An attorney, she was in private law practice before joining the UC system.

The appointment is a new position designed to merge and expand development and alumni functions previously under David C. Walden and public affairs under Milton Frank, both retiring this month.
