SEPT. 12-16 BEGINS COLLEGE'S 19TH YEAR

Cal State, San Bernardino will begin its 19th year with a week of faculty meetings and student orientation and advising Sept. 12-16.

Events for faculty will include the general faculty meeting at 10 a.m., Monday, Sept. 12 in the Recital Hall. At this time, the 32 new members of the faculty will be introduced by the school deans, and Dr. Gerald Scherba, vice president for academic affairs, will give an update on news of the college. New faculty orientation will be held from 1:30 to 3:30 that afternoon in the Lower Commons.

On Tuesday, Sept. 13, an all-college meeting of faculty on advisement and academic regulations is scheduled from 11 to 11:50 a.m., followed by school and departmental meetings from 1 to 4 p.m. The residence halls will open at 1 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 13. An orientation program for new residents and their parents is planned from 6 to 7 p.m.

Students may pick up their registration packets between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, Sept. 13, 14 and 16 and from 8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 15 in the Atrium of the Student Services Building.

Freshman orientation is scheduled from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 14 followed by transfer student orientation from 6 to 9 p.m., both in the Student Union.

Academic advising for all students is Thursday and Friday, Sept. 15 and 16. Faculty must be available in their offices for at least seven hours between 8:30 a.m. and 8:30 p.m., Thursday, and from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Friday.

Closing the week's activities will be a reception honoring new faculty from 5 to 7 p.m., Friday in the Commons. All faculty are invited, and may make reservations by calling the President's Office, Ext. 7401.

Registration will be held Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 19 and 20, with late registration beginning Wednesday, Sept. 21. Classes start Thursday, Sept. 22.

SS BUILDING REOCCUPANCY TO COMMENCE ON TUESDAY

in spite of construction problems created by last month's heavy rains, offices will begin moving back into the Student Services Building next week, starting with Admissions and Records on Tuesday. Building Maintenance and Custodial Services staffs have been preparing for the reoccupancy during the past couple of weeks. Efforts are being made by the roofing contractors to provide air conditioning for the Admissions and Records wing, although cooling may be delayed a couple weeks for the remainder of the building.

MUSIC AT CAL STATE ENTERS FOURTH SEASON

Five concerts featuring nationally recognized musicians and six spotlighting faculty members comprise the schedule for the Music at Cal State series, now entering its fourth year. Performances begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

Opening the season will be Dr. Arthur Moorefield (Music), who will give a lecture-recital on masterpieces in Baroque keyboard literature on Wednesday, Oct. 12. The Fuchs Duo, a brother-sister team in its third season of concertizing across the country, will give the first guest performance on Sunday, Oct. 23.

Other guest performances will be by Trio dell'Arte, Thursday, Nov. 10; Diane Bryan, clarinet, Wednesday, Feb. 29; Claudine Carlson, mezzo soprano, Saturday, April 7; and the Almont Ensemble, Sunday, May 13.

Two new members of the faculty will be featured in performances this season. Dr. Jerrold Pritchard, flute, will perform Wednesday, Nov. 2; Larry McFatter, piano, will join Dr. Loren Filbeck, baritone, in a concert Sunday, Feb. 19. Dr. Pritchard is professor of music and associate vice president for academic programs. McFatter is a lecturer in piano, theory and composition.

Other faculty performances will be by Carol Cheek, violin, Sunday, March 4; Devy Barnett Buchen, soprano, Wednesday, April 25; and Susan Comstock, soprano, and Dr. Filbeck, Wednesday, May 23.

Season tickets are $30 general, $15 for students and senior citizens. In addition to the 11 concerts in the series, season subscribers will receive a complimentary ticket to each concert given by the Department of Music this academic year, with the exception of the Renaissance Dinner. Tickets are available from the Music Department Office, CA 175, Ext. 7454.

Tickets for individual performances may be purchased at the door the evening of the concert. The cost for the guest artist concerts is $5 general, $2.50 students and senior citizens. Faculty performances are $3.50 general, $1.75 students and senior citizens.

TEMPORARY HOURS SET FOR FINANCIAL AID

To give staff time to process financial aid applications for fall quarter, the Financial Aid Office will be closed from 8 to 10 a.m. weekdays. Its hours of service will be 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. for approximately two weeks, when it will return to the regular 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. schedule.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, extension 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

'THE HOSTAGE' TO OPEN 1983-84 DRAMA SEASON

Tickets are now available for the 1983-84 theatre arts season, which will open with Brendan Behan's humorous musical drama "The Hostage" Nov. 10-12 and 16-19. Dr. Amanda Sue Rudisill will direct.

"Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" will be the winter play Feb. 23-25, Feb. 29, March 1-3. Dr. Ronald E. Barnes will direct this performance of Edward Albee's classic study of the pain, and the humor, involved in human interactions. The college first produced the play in winter 1974.

Concluding the season will be Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice," which Dr. William Slout, the director, will set in the 19th century. Performances are scheduled May 24-26, 30, 31 and June 1 and 2. The dates listed in the season brochure which staff and faculty have received through the mail are incorrect.

All performances begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Theatre. Season tickets are $9.50 general, $4.50 students and senior citizens. If not sold out, tickets may be available before each performance or at the door for $4.25 general, $2 students and senior citizens.

Persons donating $100 or more will sponsor an incoming drama student, who will be identified to the sponsor. Persons donating $40 to $99 will help support the 12 scholarships of $150 each which go to continuing drama students. Except for the $9 for season tickets, the donation is tax deductible. Information and season tickets are available from the Theatre Arts Department Office, CA 175, Ext. 7452.

BUILDINGS RETURNING TO REGULAR HOURS

As fall quarter approaches, campus buildings are returning to their regular school-year hours. The Commons will begin serving meals again at dinnertime, Tuesday, Sept. 13. The Student Union is slated to re-open Monday, Sept. 12, with the snack bar and pub in operation.

Health care will again be provided at the Student Health Center beginning Tuesday, Sept. 6 for returning students. New students will not be covered until they register. Until Sept. 22, the building is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., weekdays.

The Pfau Library will continue its 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Mondays through Fridays, schedule until Wednesday, Sept. 21, when it will resume regular hours.

Following is the fall quarter schedule for the Bookstore through registration:

Friday, Sept. 2	8:30 a.m.-1 p.m.
Tuesday-Thursday, Sept. 6-8	8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

ADMINISTRATIVE DEPARTMENTS REORGANIZED OVER SUMMER

Two administrative departments, Academic Administration and Academic Planning, have been reorganized over the summer. Academic Administration now is Academic Resources, and Dr. James D.

Thomas, former dean of academic administration, has the new title of associate vice president for academic resources.

The assistant dean of academic administration and grants coordinator position has been replaced by a new position, that of director of sponsored programs, not yet filled. The new director will work under Vice President Gerald Scherba. Also in the area of Academic Affairs, Dr. J.C. Robinson, associate vice president, is now associate vice president for academic personnel.

Personnel and offices in Academic Planning have been changed and the area now is Academic Programs. Dr. Jerrold E. Pritchard, associate vice president for academic programs, heads the division. Working with him will be Stephen Prouty, associate dean for academic programs. Dr. Catherine C. Gannon, associate dean for undergraduate programs; and Dr. Lorelee MacPike, associate dean for graduate programs, a half-time position. Dr. MacPike also will be an intern in Vice President Scherba's office under the CSU Administrative Fellows Program.

Office locations and telephone extensions for Academic Programs have been changed. The corrected listing is:

Dr. Pritchard	AD 194	Ext. 7521	Dr. MacPike	AD 182	Ext. 7755
Dr. Gannon	AD 198	Ext. 7521	Lynn Shepard	AD 182	Ext. 7755

INSURANCE OPEN ENROLLMENT CONTINUES THROUGH OCT. 15

Open enrollment for health benefits offered through the State Employees' Medical and Hospital Care Program continues through Oct. 15. Open enrollment is a time set aside each year for employees to enroll in new coverage or make changes in their existing policies. Enrollment and changes will take effect not later than Dec. 1. The Personnel Office will accept enrollment and changes between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Thursdays, Sept. 8-29 and Oct. 6 and 13.

MICHAEL ROSE TAKES JOB AT MT. SAN JAC

Michael Rose, who has been the relations with schools officer for the college the past 11 years, has resigned to take a position as counselor and outreach coordinator at Mt. San Jacinto College, effective Sept. 1.

Rose was a social studies teacher and chair of the history department at Banning High School for nine years before coming to Cal State in August 1972. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees in history from the University of Redlands. Rose was the college's first, full-time relations with schools officer and developed a program for visiting high school and community colleges in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

BOOKS Dr. Ward McAfee (Social and Behavioral Sciences) has a book titled The History of the World's Great Religions published by University Press of America.

NOTEWORTHY Jo Ann Von Wald (Registrar) recently was installed as vice president of the San Bernardino-Mexicali-Villahermosa Sister City Committee.
