VIRGINIA SATIR TO GIVE SEMINAR

Virginia Satir, an internationally known therapist who is a pioneer in the family systems approach to communications and understanding, will present a one-day seminar Friday, Nov. 4 in the Recital Hall.

The seminar is sponsored by two student groups, Psi Chi, the psychology honorary, and Uni Phi, a club for students with disabilities. It is the third such event the two groups have sponsored under their partnerships, PUPS.

Registration for the seminar is $35 per person. Continuing education or nursing relicensure credit is available for an additional $14, which is paid at the door. Since the prior two seminars have sold out, interested individuals are urged to register in advance, said members of the coordinating committee--Barbara Sovereign (Services to Students with Disabilities), Steven Coffey, Psi Chi president; and Rebeccah Warren, Psi Chi past president. PUPS has a special phone number, 882-4646, to take reservations.

Satir, the first director of training at Esalen Institute, has been a consultant to various U.S. government agencies and is co-founder of the Mental Research Institute in Palo Alto.

PIANO-VIOLIN DUO TO PERFORM OCT. 23

The brother-sister team known as the Fuchs Duo will perform in the Recital Hall at 8:15 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 23. Pianist Louanne Fuchs Long and violinist Richard Fuchs will perform selections from Beethoven and Stravinsky.

They will open the concert with Fantasy for Piano and Violin, written for them by Dr. James Greeson, professor of composition at the University of Arkansas. Louanne Fuchs Long has been a faculty member of the University of Redlands since 1962.

Individuals not already holding season tickets for the Music at Cal State series may purchase single admission tickets at the door for $5 general and $2.50 for students and senior citizens.

CHANCELLOR TO RECOMMEND FEE REDUCTION FOR NEXT YEAR

Chancellor W. Ann Reynolds said yesterday she will recommend a reduction of about $90 in student fees, effective in 1984-85, to the CSU Board of Trustees meeting next Tuesday.

The proposed reduction would bring typical CSU student fees down to almost $600, compared to an average of $692 this year. She said CSU fees have risen too sharply and without adequate warning to students.

ART DEPARTMENT RECEIVES GRANT

The Art Department has been awarded a $1,720 grant to support the spring exhibition of selections from the Edward-Dean Museum of Decorative Arts. The grant is from the California Arts Council.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Margaret Atwell (Education) has been invited to participate in a research seminar at the National Council of Teachers of English annual convention Nov. 19-20 in Denver, Colo. She is a past winner of the council's Promising Researcher award which cited her work on the interrelationships of reading and writing in the composing process.

Dr. David Lutz (Psychology) and Randy Swaim, former graduate student, presented a paper, "Effectiveness of DSM-III in the Diagnosis and Prognosis of Schizophrenia," at the American Psychological Association convention in Anaheim Aug. 27-28. Dr. Lutz and Patti Termini, former graduate student, also presented a paper, "Distributive Justice Between Hearing and Prelingually Deaf Children."

Dr. Ansa Ojanlatva (Sponsored Programs) presented a paper, "Ethnic, Non-Professional Treatment of Sexual Dysfunctions in the Protestant Northern Europe," at the regional conference of the American Association of Sex Educators, Counselors and Therapists in Honolulu, Hawaii Oct. 20.

Dr. Theron Pace (Services to Students with Disabilities) and Jo Ann Hartzog participated on a panel, "Strategies for Serving Economically Disadvantaged Persons with Disabilities," at a symposium at the Lake Arrowhead Hilton Oct. 7. The event was sponsored by the California Foundation for Independent Living Centers and the Community Action Program.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Linda Callahan (SAIL Program) spoke at the Riverside YWCA on the challenges of being a single woman Oct. 13.

Dr. Stuart Ellins (Psychology) and Boots, a CSCSB coyote, met with parents, teachers and students of the Lake Arrowhead Elementary School Oct. 11 where they gave a presentation on the relationships between people and the urban coyote.

Cathy Provencio (Dean of Students Office) and Cecilia McCarron (Student Health Center) participated in the 5K Hearts on the Run sponsored by the San Bernardino Heart Assn. Oct. 16 at the college. Cecilia took second place in her division.

NOTEWORTHY

Michael Burgess (Library) has agreed to edit a series of paperbound reprints of classic chess books for Newcastle Publishing Company of North Hollywood. The first volume in the series will be published in October, 1984.

CAMPUS TOURS ARE AVAILABLE FOR ALL

Tours of the campus will be given for all employees--faculty or staff, old-timer or newcomer--who express interest in getting acquainted for the first time or familiarizing themselves with new facilities. To make arrangements, call

Glenda Boatner, Relations with Schools Office, Ext. 7608, 9 a.m.-3 p.m., Monday-Friday.

MECHA, A.S. SPONSOR
HALLOWEEN DANCE

MECHA and the Associated Students are sponsoring a Halloween masquerade dance Thursday, Oct. 27 in the Student Union. Admission is free for the dance, which begins at 9 p.m. A DJ will play a variety of music and refreshments will be served.

ESCAPE TO SANTA ANITA

The Fall '83 ESCAPE program is sponsoring a day at the Santa Anita race track Sunday, Oct. 30. Cost is $7.50 per person which includes admission and transportation. The trip, open to faculty and staff, is limited to 40 persons and registration closes Oct. 29 at the Student Union.

SSD ACQUIRES NEW PHONE FOR DEAF

The Services to Students with Disabilities office recently purchased a new, more advanced telephone for the deaf (TTD). The device features a one-line read-out screen and a print-out tape for recording calls. The office staff welcomes the opportunity to demonstrate it or to provide a message service to deaf persons, said Dr. Theron Pace, director.

INTERVIEWING WORKSHOPS

The Career Planning and Placement Center and the Counseling Center will again sponsor a series of four interviewing workshops during fall quarter. The seminars will be four consecutive Tuesday afternoons beginning Oct. 25. All sessions will be in the Counseling Center, PS 227, from 3 to 4:30 p.m. The workshops include video taping mock interview situations. All students, regardless of class level, are invited to participate. Alumni who are seeking employment and wish to strengthen interviewing techniques also may participate.

A.S. VIDEO MOVIES
OPEN TO CAMPUS

Under the sponsorship of the Associated Students, video movies will be shown five times a week on the wide-screen television in the Student Union. The matinees will be from 10 a.m. to noon, Wednesday and Thursday in the Pub. Evening showings will be 8 p.m., Wednesday and 7 p.m., Friday in the Pub and 8 p.m., Thursday in the Lounge.

Next week the double feature will be "The Hunger" starring Catherine Deneuve and "Carrie" with Sissy Spacek. Only one film will be shown in the mornings: "Carrie" on Wednesday and "The Hunger" on Thursday. For the evening showings, "Carrie" will be run first.

The latest Roger Moore film, "Octopussy," will be shown the week of Oct. 31.

BEHIND-SCENES LOOK AT OLYMPICS SET

Michael O'Hara, vice president of the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee, will speak next Thursday at the World Affairs Council meeting at the Mission Inn in Riverside. Students may attend the lecture, which begins at 6:45 p.m., without charge. Information on fees for council members and non-members is available from the council at 787-5477. Reservations are due by noon, Monday.
