FIVE ALUMNI HONORED; RESERVATIONS EXTENDED

Five alumni will be honored for their contributions to the college, the Alumni Assn. and their communities at Alumni Awards brunch Sunday, April 29. Frances Davis, B.A. 1979, will receive the Alumnus of the Year award.

She is currently president of the Alumni Association's Nursing Chapter.

Distinguished alumni to be recognized are Lt. Col. Ed Sheeran, B.A. 1967, commander of the 63rd Organizational Maintenance Squadron at Norton AFB; Tom Ahrens, B.A. 1971, regional vice president, Wells Fargo Bank; Rudy Robles, M.A. 1976, guidance counselor, San Bernardino High School; and Wallace Sanchez, M.A. 1978, teacher of learning handicapped.

Those persons were chosen from nominees who included Dr. Jaga Nath Glassman, B.S. 1976, physician, Brown University; Carrol Neighbors, B.S. 1982, public health nurse; Richard Morales, B.A. 1975, professor of history, South Mountain Community College, Arizona; Kathryn Mantz, M.A. 1975, mental health clinician, San Bernardino County; Jan Mordy, B.S. 1981, accountant, Brannifors, White, Rogers & Co.;

Also, Frances Petrovic, B.A. 1983, violinist; Merilene Smith, B.A. 1967, chair, math department, Cal Poly, Pomona; Eula Brown, M.A. 1980, relations with schools, Cal State, San Bernardino; Diana Avila, B.A. 1975, math professor, San Bernardino Valley College; and Sherri Quadri, B.A. 1971, attorney.

Honorary life memberships in the Alumni Assn. will be awarded to Mary Newman, former graphic artist at Cal State; and Doyle Stansel, associate dean, student services.

The reservation deadline for the brunch is extended to next Wednesday. Members of the college community are invited to attend the affair, scheduled for 11 a.m. in the Commons. The cost is $8.50 per person; $4.75 for children age 12 and under.

COLLEGE OPEN HOUSE INVITATIONS AVAILABLE

Invitations which faculty and staff may use to encourage friends, neighbors and relatives to attend the Open House Saturday, April 28 are available from the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, the Dean of Students Office, SS 114, or the School of Humanities Office, PL 239.

When addressed, the invitations should be placed in campus mail bags as they require postage. They cannot be mailed in U.S. Postal Service boxes without stamps being affixed.

"We encourage our campus community to attend the Open House and to bring members of the community-at-large with them," said Dr. Peter Wilson, chair of the planning committee. "The ME Festival and a multitude of other interesting events will be taking place. The day will be an appropriate time to show our college to others who have not been here before."

DEVY BARNETT BUCHEN
RECITAL WEDNESDAY

An evening of songs from baroque through contemporary will be presented by Devy Barnett Buchen, soprano, Wednesday at 8 p.m., in the Recital Hall as part of the Music at Cal State series.

Her repertoire will include arias from the operas "Julius Caesar" and "The Puritan" and selections from Strauss, Mozart and Barber. A graduate of Douglass College at Rutgers University, Ms. Buchen has been a soloist at Carnegie Hall, Town Hall and the Marlboro Festival. She is a member of the studio music faculty here.

She will be accompanied by pianist Robert Derick of Riverside, a graduate of the University of Redlands. He has been a professional accompanist in New York, director of the Riverside Opera Company and organist-choirmaster for many churches in the Riverside area.

Tickets, available at the door, are $3.50, general; $1.75, students and senior citizens.

DISABILITY AWARENESS
PROGRAM TO BE MONDAY

Films, Information booths and demonstrations will be part of the Disability Awareness Day Monday in the Lower Commons. The program, sponsored by the Services to Students with Disabilities Office, will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Video tapes of the films, "Tell Them I'm A Mermaid" and "Gravity Is My Enemy" will be shown throughout the day. Community agencies including United Cerebral Palsy, Epilepsy Society, National Multiple Sclerosis Society and Easter Seals will have booths. A demonstration of American Sign Language will be presented.

Staff and faculty volunteers will participate in simulated disability exercises from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30. Some will be in wheelchairs, have walkers, or be blind or deaf, said program coordinator JoAnn Hartzog. A luncheon for participants will follow. Persons wishing to volunteer should contact the office, Ext. 7662, immediately. The function was originally scheduled for April 16.

CHILI COOK-OFF, PIE-BAKING
CONTEST ENTRANTS SOUGHT

A popular event at past Open Houses, the chili cook-off and the pie-baking contest, will be repeated at Open House 1984, Saturday, April 28.

Students, faculty, staff, alumni and their spouses are invited to enter their favorite creations. Entries must be prepared at home, although power outlets will be available in the Student Union patio to keep crock pots hot. Entries should be brought at 3 p.m.

Entries must be registered in advance by calling the Physical Education Department Equipment Room, Ext. 7568. Judi Grenfell is chairman for the event.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, extension 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

STRESS MANAGEMENT WORKSHOPS OFFERED

Stress management workshops will be offered by the Counseling and Testing Center from 6-9 p.m., Wednesday and 1-4 p.m., Friday in PS 227. Topics to be discussed include biofeedback, defining personal stress, techniques for stress management, time management and controlling stress through cognitive restructuring. Further information may be obtained from the center, Ext. 7437.

MARKETING SPEAKER WEDNESDAY IN COMMONS

Dr. Patrick Schul, author and assistant professor of marketing at USC, will discuss "Winning the Salary Game and Getting the Job" at 6 p.m., Wednesday in the Lower Commons. His presentation, which includes job interviewing techniques, is sponsored by the Cal State Marketing Assn.

CENTRAL AMERICA SEMINARS PLANNED

Three seminars focusing on Central America will be presented Wednesday in the SUMP. The free meetings are sponsored by the student club, U.S. Out of Central America.

From 10 a.m. to noon, Dr. Mayo Toruno (Economics) will lead a discussion on the history of Nicaragua. At noon, Carol Wells, art history instructor at Cal State, Fullerton, will give a slide presentation and lecture on "The Role of Culture in the New Nicaragua." Representatives of organizations concerned with issues in Central America will meet at 7 p.m. for a panel discussion and open forum.

TRUSTEE ACTIONS AT MARCH MEETING

Introduction of new trustees and actions on employee benefits highlighted the CSU Board of Trustees meeting March 28. Actions taken included:

- * Appointed Dr. William E. Vandament as provost and vice chancellor, academic affairs;
- * Adopted initial proposals for eight collective bargaining units: 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9;
- * Named Dr. Steven B. Oppenheimer, professor of biology at CSU, Northridge, and Dr. Ruth P. Yaffe, professor of chemistry at San Jose State, as the 1984 outstanding professors;
- * Extended to confidential, supervisory and management employees certain employee benefits comparable to those benefits negotiated for employees represented by collective bargaining, as follows:
 1. enhanced dental plan to supervisory and management employees, effective Aug. 1; cost borne by employee;
 2. holiday compensation provision to eligible supervisory employees, either at straight time or equivalent time off, or at time and a half or equivalent time off, effective April 1;
 3. use of earned sick leave for family care, to confidential, supervisory and management employees, effective April 1;
 4. voluntary vision care program to supervisory and management employees, effective July 1; cost borne by employees;
- * Welcomed as new trustees Tom C. Stickel, a San Diego businessman, and Dr. Dale Ride, administrator at Santa Monica City College and father of Dr. Sally Ride, first woman astronaut to journey into space; both were appointed by Gov. Deukmejian. They replace Blanche Bersch and Dr. Juan Gomez-Quinonez, whose terms expired.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Irving Buchen (Humanities) gave the keynote address, "Utopian Managers of Pragmatic Systems: The View from Science Fiction," at the Western Academy of Management Conference in Vancouver April 13-15. Also Dr. Buchen has been selected as one of 30 participants for an institute on "Islam, the Middle East and World Politics" July 9 through Aug. 3 at the University of Michigan. The institute is co-sponsored by the American Assn. of State Colleges and Universities and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Dr. Rauf Khan (Accounting and Finance) presented a paper co-authored with Dr. Patrick McInturff (Management), "The Divergence Between Tax Havens and U.S. Public Policy: A Case for Interdisciplinary Framework," at the Western Academy of Management conference in Vancouver April 13-15.

Dr. Tom Meisenhelder (Sociology) presented a paper, "Language, Society and Reason: Interpreting Habermas," at the Critical Theory session of the Pacific Sociological Assn. meeting in Seattle April 11-14.

Arthur Nelson (Library) has been elected a member at-large of the CSU Library Advisory Committee. The committee, comprised of several library directors and members of the statewide Academic Senate, will advise the chancellor on library matters.

Dr. Walter Oliver (Foreign Languages and Literatures) received word that his paper, "'Adios, Cordera!' and Clarin's Social Vision" has been accepted for presentation at the Middle-American Conference on Hispanic Literatures at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln Oct. 18-20.

Dr. Adil Talaysum (Accounting and Finance) participated in a panel discussion on "Investments: The Firm Size Effect" at the annual meeting of the Eastern Finance Assn. at Lake Buena Vista, Fla., April 11-14.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Richard Bennecke (Alumni Affairs) has been appointed to serve on the San Bernardino Area Plan Community Advisory Council. The council will establish a plan for the east corridor of San Bernardino and will conduct a feasibility study of annexing county areas to the city.

Dr. Robert Blackey (History) spoke to an American History Advanced Placement class at Redlands High School on test taking and the Advanced Placement Program April 11.

Drs. Ellen Kronowitz and Alvin Wolf (Education) gave presentations at Norco High School on "Careers in Education" April 12.

Dr. Terrell Manyak (Management) spoke to the San Bernardino City Management Assn. on "Manpower Planning as a Management Tool" at Skinners Restaurant in San Bernardino April 19.

Frank Slaton (Computer Center) spoke April 6 at the conference of the California Assn. of Program Specialists on "Robotics," and the Microtechnology for Everybody Festival here April 27-28. He has addressed more than a dozen schools, service clubs and chambers of commerce on the ME Festival and Robot Olympics during the past six months.

NOTEWORTHY

Michael Burgess (Library) sold three major books to the ABC-CLIO publishers of Santa Barbara. Dictionary of Arms Control, Disarmament and Military Security, Dictionary of Ethnic Politics and Ethnic Politics: An Annotated Bibliography will be published next year.
