Roberta Stathis-Ochoa Named CSU Administrative Fellow

Dr. Roberta Stathis-Ochoa, special programs coordinator in the Office of Academic Programs, has been selected as a CSU administrative fellow for 1985-86.

The details on her assignment for the coming year have not been completed. Administrative fellow may work on their own campus or elsewhere in the CSU system. The purpose of the program is to provide opportunities for upward mobility, especially for women and persons from ethnic minority backgrounds. The fellows are assigned to mentors at the dean's level or above and are given assignments which will provide opportunities for career development leading eventually to administrative, managerial or executive positions.

Dr. Stathis-Ochoa earned her B.A. in anthropology and social sciences and her M.A. in education from Cal State, San Bernardino and her Ph.D. in education from the Claremont Graduate School. She has been employed at the university since 1976, first as an activities advisor and then in the Office of Academic Programs. She has had major responsibilities for outreach efforts including development and coordination of the High School-University Program, responsibilities with retention programs, monitoring of compliance with systemwide testing programs, preparation of advising materials and participation in orientation. Other special projects have included research reports, demographic data, statistical summaries and coordination and writing of the proposal for the off-campus center in the Coachella Valley.

Trustees Approve Temporary Offices

The CSU Board of Trustees Wednesday gave the campus permission to lease five trailers to accommodate 20 faculty offices for the coming two years. The board granted the campus an exemption from a moratorium on temporary structures.

The 10 foot by 40 foot mobil units will be occupied from September until the new faculty office building is occupied in the fall of 1987. The units will be located behind the Student Services Building, adjacent to the present temporary trailers. The new units will be similar in construction, with their own heating and cooling. Temporary walkways will be constructed by campus personnel. Bids will be taken in June for the leasing of the trailers and the installation.

Trustee Dale Ride To Visit May 23

Dr. Dale B. Ride, a member of the CSU Board of Trustees, will visit campus Thursday, May 23, meeting with various groups and touring the facilities.

Dr. Ride, assistant to the superintendent of the Santa Monica Community College District, will confer with President Evans, the Administrative Council and Council of Academic Deans in the morning. He will meet with Associated Students leaders and any interested students at 1:30 p.m. in PL 241. His open meeting with faculty will begin at 2 p.m., also in PL 241.

Dr. Ride, appointed to the board last year, is a former teacher. He earned his B.A. from Haverford College, his M.Ed. and Ed.D. from UCLA. He and his wife have two daughters, one an astronaut and the other a minister.

Trustees Appoint Stanislaus President

Dr. John W. Moore, executive vice president of Old Dominion University in Virginia, Tuesday was named president of Cal State, Stanislaus by the CSU Board of Trustees. Before his present post, he was vice president for policy and planning and vice president for educational services at Old Dominion, and held other administrative posts at the University of Vermont, Pennsylvania State University, Rutgers University and Monmouth College.

Olympic Medalist To Speak At Upward Bound Banquet

Alice Brown, a 1984 Olympic medalist, will be the keynote speaker at the Upward Bound annual banquet Saturday, May 25 in the Student Union.

Brown won a gold medal in the 400-meter relay and a silver in the 100-meter sprint. The banquet, to begin at 6:30 p.m., is open to the public. Tickets are $5 per person and may be purchased at the Upward Bound Office, SS 175, Ext. 7200.

EOPS Directors Here Thursday

Extended Opportunity Program Services directors from community colleges in Cal State's service area will be on campus May 23 for an institute sponsored by the Student Affirmative Action Program.

Linda White from the California Postsecondary Education Commission will speak on "Facilitating the Transfer of Community College EOPS Students to California's Public Universities," theme of the day's program. Representatives from the CSU Chancellor's Office, the University of California, other CSU campuses and private universities also are expected.

'Rhinoceros' Opens Thursday

Tickets still are available for the spring drama production, Ionesco's "Rhinoceros," which opens Thursday evening in the Theatre. The play continues Friday and Saturday plus Wednesday through Saturday of next week, May 29-June 1. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Dr. Amanda Sue Rudisill is directing the comedy, written to show the dangers of blind allegiance to the trends of the day. Tickets are $4.25 for general admission and $2 for students.

Student Union Board Has 2 Openings

The Student Union Board of Directors has openings for two student members. The two-year terms begin July 1, however, applications must be filed by 5 p.m., May 28. Forms are available at the Student Union desk, the Associated Students Office and the Activities Office. For additional information contact Helga Lingren, Student Union director, Ext. 7757.

The California State University, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, Ext. 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

All-Campus Spring Barbecue Revived

A tradition from the early days of the college, an all-campus spring barbecue, will be revived on Sunday, June 2. The entire campus community--faculty, staff and students--and their families are invited to participate, said Doyle Stansel, associate dean of students.

A 12-foot barbecue grill will be set up in the picnic area behind the Student Services Building. The menu, served from 5 to 6 p.m., will include a 10-ounce New York steak and other barbecue fare. Tickets are $5 for adults and $1 for a child's plate of hamburgers or hot dogs. The tickets must be purchased in advance and are available at the Student Union Desk.

Chefs for the occasion will include Dean Stansel, Dr. Richard Moss and Dr. Jim Charkins (both Economics), Quentin Moses (Campus Police), Fred Roybal (Plant Operations) and Ed Schneiderhan (Career Planning and Placement Center). Live entertainment will be provided by a country-western recording group, Mojave Green. The Alumni Association will sponsor its traditional beer garden.

Proposals For Programs Invited

Two campus committees are inviting proposals for speakers and other programs to be funded during the coming academic year. The Lecturers and Artists Committee, to be renamed the Campus Intellectual Life Committee, anticipates having a $7000 budget for programming next year, said Dr. Amer El-Ahraf (Academic Resources).

Proposals for the fall quarter should be submitted by June 1 to the Academic Resources Office, he said. Some of the activities sponsored during the current year have included the Round Tables, lectures on psychology, English, earthquake, arms control, nursing, art and Central America.

The Associated Students Special Events Committee will receive proposals for fall events until 5 p.m., Friday, May 24. Forms for submitting requests are available from the AS office or Joanna Roche, Ext. 7405. The committee is seeking events which will appeal to the entire campus community, such as speakers, performers, musical events. Funds awarded this year ranged from $150 to $1050.

New Student Trustee Named

Humboldt State University student president William Crocker has been appointed to the CSU Board of Trustees by Gov. Deukmejian. The 22-year-old senior, majoring in public relations and computer information systems, will serve a two-year term as the student trustee. He is the sixth student trustee. The second trustee, Kevin Gallagher, was from the San Bernardino campus. He was appointed in 1978 by Gov. Jerry Brown.
