Finding Internships that Pay

Christina Rodriguez

2:40p.m.-3:10p.m.

Room 207

Finding quality internships entails strong research and networking skills. Come learn how to search on-line, through your network and through campus resources.

Presenter

Christina Rodriguez

She brings 20 years of private sector interviewing and hiring experience to help CSUSB students with their own professional development. After 3 ½ years of working with students from all majors on their résumés, internship search, networking skills and social media profiles, she can help you become a strong candidate for consideration. She teaches students skills that can be transitioned from college to career and help them stand out in a competitive environment.
