POLI SCI PROFESSOR SEALS EDUCATIONAL PACT WITH WEST BANK SCHOOL

An agreement for international academic cooperation between Birzeit University, located north of the Palestinian town of Ramallah, and CSUSB has been signed and now will propel faculty, student and research exchanges.

Finalized by political science professor Ralph Salmi last month, the agreement was conceived when Dr. Gabriel Baramki, minister of higher education in the Palestinian Authority, visited Cal State two years ago.

Several CSU schools have wanted to form a consortium that will afford their students the chance to study at West Bank universities.

"This linkage agreement," says Ellen Gruenbaum, acting dean for the university's School of Social and Behavioral Sciences, "is the first step toward pursuing several educational and research opportunities." Gruenbaum and Salmi met with CSU system schools Long Beach, Cal Poly Pomona, Dominguez Hills and Fullerton to talk about such a consortium before the Birzeit trip.

"Birzeit University is an absolutely spectacular campus," Salmi says, "with most of the classrooms looking out over the valley below."

For two straight years Salmi has coached award-winning CSUSB Model Arab League student teams. Last year the team represented Palestine in competition and this past spring the team represented Sudan.

ATHLETICS APPOINTS ASSISTANT A.D., TENNIS COACH

Todd Markel

Todd Markel, the former University of Tennessee at Chattanooga chief compliance and eligibility officer, is now the assistant director of athletics at Cal State, and former Cal Poly, Pomona assistant coach, Tracey Prince, the university's new tennis coach.

Markel is filling the position vacated by Nancy Simpson, now the university's athletic director. Besides his Division I experience with the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, Markel also worked in compliance, game management and fundraising at Florida State University and the University of Delaware.

His M.S. in athletic administration and physical education comes from Florida State, and his B.S. in physical education from the University of Delaware.

Markel's job at CSUSB will include supervision of compliance, eligibility and scholarships. The summer sports camp program also will fall under his direction.

Women's tennis, a new sport this year in the Cal State athletic program lineup, will be coached by Tracey Prince.

She has been an assistant coach at Cal Poly, Pomona for three years and was a teaching professional at the Claremont Club when she signed with Cal State. Cal Poly won two national championships during Prince's years as an assistant.

Also a coach for a European team at one time, Prince was a key player at Foothill College and Butte College while in school. The Cal State post is the first head coaching spot for the UC Santa Barbara graduate, who is finishing her master's at Cal Poly.

CHOIR TO START REHEARSALS

The newly formed Inland Empire-CSUSB Symphonic Choir will begin rehearsals on Saturday, Sept. 9 with a workshop from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Recital Hall. The purpose of the workshop is to inform singers about rehearsal procedures and correct singing practices, as well as provide an opportunity for the singers to get to know one another.

Membership is open to anyone in the Inland Empire, from high school juniors to senior citizens, and no auditions are required at this time. A minimal fee of $15 will be charged for non-enrolled participants. Call the Music Dept. at Ext. 5859 for more details.

AUGUST 23, 30 CONCERTS

LCR, SOCIETY WILL WRAP UP SERIES

Some of today's best pop hits and yesterday's hits laced with Latin rhythms will be featured when The LCR Band and The Latin Society close the university's 1995 Summer Entertainment Series.

LCR's Aug. 23 appearance is the group's second ever at Cal State, the first coming two years ago when it played oldies and a few country hits. This year the focus is top tunes from the '90s.

Dodger Stadium, Disneyland and several festivals are among the venues LCR has played over its 16-year history. The band's ability to play different styles of music has become one of its trademarks.

Tradition being what it is, The Latin Society closes the series Aug. 30. Like LCR, The Latin Society has had a long history. For more than 20 years the band has been playing around the Inland Empire at banquets, weddings and outdoor shows with its usual upbeat, spiced-up sound.

Every year the band draws one of the series' largest crowds. Both LCR and The Latin Society are expected to supply listeners with plenty of good dance music.

The concerts are free, begin at 7 p.m. and will be held outdoors on the Lower Commons Plaza. For more information call the series hotline at Ext. 7053.
