

Student Performance

Nicole Perez and Han Vu

Faculty Mentor(s): Dr. Wen-Ting Huan and Professor Javier Gonzalez

Title: La Vie En Rose and On My Own

Performing La Vie En Rose and On My Own, Nicole Perez and Han Vu are fourth-year music majors who have been performing for over 10 years. They will perform during this year's Recognition of Faculty Mentors and Student Researchers Luncheon on May 17th.

La Vie En Rose is a classic French piece written by Edith Piaf, who was a French vocalist, songwriter, cabaret performer, and film actress during the 1940s. As one of her signature songs, it is about seeing the world in rose-colored lenses because of new love.

On My Own is a piece from the musical Les Misérables written by Victor Hugo in 1862. The song is one of the production's most famous songs, in which the character Eponine is explaining her love for Marius. However, Marius is in love with another woman. This piece is Eponine admitting she is in love with him, but there is no chance for them to be together.