WILL PUBLIC SUPPORT ART FILMS

Will moviegoers of the Inland Empire regularly support such film classics as the Shakespeare - Sir Laurence Olivier "Othello" which was shown recently?

Stanley Warner Corporation headquarters in New York would like to have an answer to this question so they can plan future bookings. The firm would also like to have expressions of opinion on the "Othello" film itself from teachers, students, professional people, club presidents, etc.

Letters should be addressed to Paul Brown, Manager, Ritz Theater, 423 North E Street, San Bernardino, where "Othello," "La Boheme," "Hansel and Gretel" and other classics have played within recent months.
