INTERMEDIATE DRAWING:

DATE: SPRING 2017
SITE: CIM: A-YARD
TEACHING ARTIST: Margarita Esparza [Magy]
Revision to Current Class

OVERVIEW OF CLASS

This 10-week intermediate drawing is the next level for participants who have previous experience in drawing or for those who have taken the Beginning Drawing course through CBA/PAC. This course will review fundamental techniques in drawing such as line/pattern, value, shape/form, and color. Participants will also be introduced to the history of technical drawing in America, the effects of the industrial revolution on design and art, and discover other areas in which art is applied outside of the fine art/museum setting.

ESSENTIAL QUESTION OR THEME

Basic Drawing Tools for Creating Portraits

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Participants will:

● Review foundations in drawing.
  ○ Draw lines in various styles, and create their own drawing styles.
  ○ Create patterns from a reference or design patterns of their own.

● Study the history of technical drawing and artists who are famous for their drawing/designs
  ○ What is Technical Drawing
  ○ Artists: Frank Lloyd Wright, Leonardo Da Vinci
• Apply art history as inspiration for art work.
  ○ Study art from the 1960’s and create artworks that are similar to the artists studied in the lessons.
    ■ Commercial/Pop Art artists: Andy Warhol, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Rauschenberg

• Discover other areas where art is used.
  ○ Using any elements of design, create recreational area for a park/campsite.
    ■ Artist: Robert Smithson, Michael Heizer
  ○ Learn about logo design and what tools they can use to create a logo that stands out.
    ■ Artist: Milton Glaser
  ○ Storyboard (collaborative project): learn about the method to creating a storyboard and how it is used in animation. As a class, develop a story, then create a storyboard to accompany the written story.

STUDENT LEARNING GOALS

At the end of this course the participant will be familiar with composition, sketching materials, and historical references for drawing. The central goal for this course is to help participants grow their abilities in drawing, encourage new ideas, and take a journey into other forms of artistry and craftsmanship outside of a fine art museum setting.
