April 19 1966

Friday Bulletin

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin/17

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives – California State University San Bernardino at CSUSB ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Friday Bulletin by an authorized administrator of CSUSB ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@csusb.edu.
SAVINGS BONDS DRIVE

Mr. Joseph Jerz, Personnel, has been named chairman of the Savings Bond campaign conducted annually among employees of all State Agencies. The US Treasury Department has announced an increase in interest rates for US Savings Bonds, from 3.75 per cent to 4.15 per cent, as well as a decrease in the term of maturity (10 years to 7 years, 9 months), and a tax advantage plan for the bonds when used for educational purposes. Earnings on the bonds are still exempt from state and local income taxes, and advantageous savings plans to supplement retirement income are proposed. Canvassers will be contacting each employee personally and they will have information and material regarding payroll deduction plans.

"T TAURI" DEADLINE APRIL 22

Miss Linda Leutcke, chairman of the "T Tauri", has announced that Friday, April 22nd is the last day to place orders for a copy of the publication. T Tauri will be an historical record relating the opinions and impressions as well as the activities of the students and faculty during the first year at San Bernardino State College. It will also include an historical background of the college from its conception to its dedication in May. The price per copy is $1.50.

BIOGRAPHY OF MAYOR YORTY PRESENTED TO COLLEGE

"Maverick Mayor," biography of Los Angeles' Mayor Sam Yorty by noted writer and historian Ed Ainsworth has been presented to California State College at San Bernardino, it was announced today by Arthur E. Nelson, Librarian.

Presentation of the book published by Doubleday & Company was made by the Johanna Egan Yorty Memorial Committee in honor of Mayor Yorty's mother whose life and philosophy was a vital factor in Mayor Yorty's career.

The book also presents a study of metropolitan problems existent in the typical large American city and also contains historical data of especial interest to Californians.

IMPORTANT ACSCP MEETING THURSDAY, APRIL 28

The San Bernardino chapter of the Association of California State College Professors will meet in room L-116, Thursday, April 28, at 1:30 p.m.

The discussion at the meeting will center on the issue of collective bargaining. AFT will shortly be circulating a petition requesting the Trustees of the CSC to hold an election to select an exclusive collective bargaining agent for the faculties of the California State Colleges. The ACSCP has devoted the April issue of "Voice" to the matter and AFT literature on the subject will be distributed before the meeting in order that members can be prepared for the discussion.
FIRST STUDENT PEP RALLY TO BE FRIDAY, APRIL 29

On Friday, April 29, at 7:30 p.m. the torch will be set to a Bonfire opening the first student Pep Rally for California State College at San Bernardino. President John M. Pfau will be on hand to award letters to CSCSB's first "undefeated" football team and cheers will be lead by Theta Psi Omega cheerleaders and song girls.

Following the Bonfire and rally, everyone will adjourn to the Mall for an outdoor dance. The steps of the college library will serve as a bandstand. All students, faculty, staff and their guests are welcome.

"THE CAPTAIN FROM KOEPELICK" TO BE SHOWN FRIDAY, APRIL 22.

The College Lecture Committee is offering another in its foreign film series--this one from Germany entitled "The Captain from Koepenick." (Der Hauptmann von Köpenick).

Carl Zuckmayer's classic comedy about the biggest hoax in history has been produced in color and has found exceptional international acclaim. Heinz Ruhmann is featured in the principal role.

The film will be shown this Friday, April 22nd at 8:00 p.m. in Room C-116. There is no admission and all students, faculty, staff and their guests are welcome.