May 3 1966

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin

Recommended Citation

https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin/15
On Wednesday, May 4, 1966, California State College at San Bernardino will be formally dedicated and Dr. John M. Pfau will be inaugurated as President of the college.

The ceremonies will begin with the academic procession and faculty members and staff participating in the procession are asked to please pick up the number for their place in line in the inside entrance of the library between 9:30 and 10:00 am.

The procession will assemble behind the administration building at 10:00 am. Coffee and donuts will be served in this area.

The March Air Force Base Band, conducted by Chief Warrant Officer Lloyd F. Overton, will provide the processional and recessional music and will start the ceremony with the National Anthem.

Reverend John Ryan of Our Lady of Assumption Parish in San Bernardino will give the invocation after which Dr. Glenn S. Dumke, Chancellor of the California State Colleges will introduce the speakers.

Greetings will be extended on behalf of the State of California by Lt. Governor Glenn M. Anderson. Mr. Richard Bennecke, president of the Associated Student Body, will speak for the students and Dr. Robert Roberts will speak for the faculty. Speaking for the Board of Trustees of the State Colleges will be Mr. Charles Luckman.

Chancellor Dumke will then preside over the formal induction of President Pfau and the formal dedication of the college. President Pfau will make a few brief remarks and the main speaker for the ceremony will be introduced — President Alan Simpson of Vassar College. Father Ryan will close the ceremonies with a benediction.

Following the recessional, caps and gowns should be returned to Room A-193. It is not necessary that they be returned before lunch, but it would be appreciated if they could all be turned in by 3:00 PM.

"NO EXIT" OPENING NIGHT FRIDAY.

California State College at San Bernardino will hold its Creative Arts Premiere on Friday and Saturday, May 6, 7, 13 and 14. The premiere will feature a student art exhibit in Room C-110 arranged by Dr. Robert Harrison, Professor of Art; a half-hour program of choral literature directed by Dr. Leo Kreter, associate professor of Music; and Jean Paul Sartre's "No Exit" designed and directed by Dr. Ronald Barnes, associate professor of Drama. The music and drama portions of the program will be in Room C-116.

Tickets for the production are available now in the box office, Room A-172, from 12:30 to 1:30 daily or they may be purchased from the Humanities Division Secretary, in Room A-183. Students, faculty and staff may purchase up to 2 tickets at 50¢ each. General Admission is $1.50. You are urged to purchase your tickets soon in order to attend on the night of your choice.
NEWMAN FOUNDATION PRE-CANA CONFERENCE BEGINS MONDAY, MAY 9

The first in a series of four lectures of a Pre-Cana Conference sponsored by the Newman Foundation will be given in the College Cafeteria Monday, May 9, at 7 p.m. Father Valerian D. Schreiter of the Capuchin Order, a Conference Director, will conduct the lectures, the first of which is entitled, "Fundamental Principles and Morality of Marriage". Refreshments will be served and there will be time for open discussion and questions. All students, faculty, staff and their guests are cordially invited.

VISTA RECRUITING TEAM ON CAMPUS TUESDAY, MAY 17

VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) will have a representative on campus Tuesday, May 17. They will have a booth in the main entrance to the library building.

ALL SCHOOL COOK-OUT MAY 15

The ASB is sponsoring an all school cook-out Sunday, May 15, at Wildwood Park, 40th Street and Waterman Avenue in San Bernardino beginning at 2 p.m. This is to be a family affair with all students, faculty, and staff, and their families cordially invited.

In the afternoon there will be volleyball, softball, sack races and ping pong, horseshoes, small games and relays. The park has a playground for children.

At 6 p.m. a bar-b-que dinner will be served by the master chefs of the Physical Education Department. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50¢ for children under 12 and 50¢ for students. Please make your reservations as early as possible in order to facilitate buying-preparing the food. Tickets are being sold by members of the ASB activities committee - Laurel Callahan, Chairman, Jeff Schulman, Candi Payton, Sherry Regalado, Bob Schwirzke, Judy Jones, Linda Arth, Ernie Ciabattini, Ed Sheernan, and Penny Sweet.

POET JAMES DICKEY TO VISIT TUESDAY, MAY 17

Mr. James Dickey, currently visiting professor of English at San Fernando Valley State College, will be on campus Tuesday, May 17. In the morning Mr. Dickey will join literature classes and at 1:30 p.m. he will have a poetry reading-discussion in Room C-116 open to all students, faculty, and staff.

In addition to serving as a consultant on poetry to the Library of Congress, Mr. Dickey was awarded the 1966 National Book Award in Poetry for "Buckmaster's Dance".