According to advance information, the Poston Unit III group of Councilmen, Issei advisors, emergency committee men and block managers were reported to be in complete accord with the resolution adopted by the Unit II Community Congress. The Unit III body were reported to have released a statement which, in essence, did not condemn nor joined with the strikers, but were in favor of a peaceful settlement.

The Unit II Congress presented its resolution in a statement entitled "The People of Poston II States Its Case," which offered a chronological history of the Unit I situation as well as the sentiments of the overwhelming majority of the Poston II residents.

A statement issued yesterday by the Unit II "People for Sympathy Strike" accused the Congress of withholding "facts concerning the mediation" as the basis for the mass meetings. The statement asserted that the Congressional chairman approved of the second mass meeting held Nov. 21, and that anything decided by the majority would be approved.

However, the resolution refuted the striking group's charges, maintaining that the 2nd mass meeting was approved only to hear the reports of the people's representatives and that of Unit II's representatives. The congress also maintained that one reason for the block-by-block voting was to allow the people to act in a democratic manner, without being intimidated.
