Dr. Reginald Price Named First Athletic Director

Dr. Reginald Price, chair of the Department of Physical Education and Recreation, this week was named Cal State's first athletic director, President Anthony H. Evans announced. Price's appointment to the half-time position, effective Jan. 3, is the first major step in the implementation of intercollegiate athletics on campus. He will continue as chair of the Department of Physical Education and Recreation, a position he has held accustomed here in September 1978. In order to accommodate the time-consuming activities as athletic director, he will do a limited amount of teaching.

Dr. Price has a diverse background including varied administrative experience, coaching duties, teaching, and consulting in the construction of a $4 million education complex. He earned six collegiate varsity letters in three sports, wrestling, track and soccer. He was chair of the Department of Physical Education and Athletics and served as athletic director, he will do a limited amount of teaching.

One of Dr. Price's top priorities will be the establishment of an on-campus athletics advisory board which will assist in the development of policies and procedures for the selection of part-time coaches. His goal is to appoint the first coaches this spring, so that they may begin recruiting students and preparing for the introduction of athletics next fall.

Appointment of an athletic director is the first step in seeking membership in the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. (NCAA) and the local Division III conference, the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC). Price will begin developing schedules for 1984-85 for the first sports to be introduced: men's soccer and cross-country and women's volleyball and cross country in the fall, men's and women's basketball in the winter quarter and men's and women's tennis in spring quarter 1985.

Mascot: Coyote or St. Bernard?

by Carol Leish

Here, at Tumbleweed Tech, a race continues between the Coyote and the St. Bernard. Which will win? Or will the Blue Jay or the Jack Rabbit become the school symbol?

For the past several years, there has been a controversy at Cal State concerning the school mascot. Originally the Jack Rabbit became the school mascot. An emir body, The Publica­tions Board, had asked for a decision on a change. Students Okay New Name

By a 166 to 134 vote, students favored the name The Cal State Chronicle over The Paw Print in last quarter's poll, prompting the newspaper staff to change the name of the newspaper.

The newspaper's governing body, The Publications Board, had asked for a poll of the student body to ascertain the student's preference before making a decision on a change. On November 30, 1983, The Publications Board approved the name which was preferred by the students, The Cal State Chronicle. However, questions arose concerning the validity of that vote as the "absolute majority needed" statement in the Publication Code seemed to be open to interpretation. Previous actions by the Publications Board have been passed using an absolute majority of the members present, rather than the full board, thereby setting a precedence giving legitimacy to the November 30 vote.

President Evans okayed the new name, but asked the Pub Board, as a formality, to vote again, with every member present, to avoid any interpretation problems.

On January 9 the Board voted 3-3-1 on the issue, thereby refusing to take a stand. The majority of student board members were in favor of the new name. Debates arose over the name change because no formal procedure is set down in the Publications Code. The Pub Board will address this issue at their next meeting.

The Cal State Chronicle will still be conducting formal business under the name of The Paw Print until all fiscal matters have been converted.

Barbara Sirotnik developed an opinion survey that was handed out to students, during the previous registra­tion. They were to choose the Coyote, the St. Bernard or an alternative for the school mascot.

Kerry Boykins helped to hand out the surveys in the gym. There were balloons with "Cal State San Bernardino Mascot?" Also on hand to draw attention to the issue were stuffed animals: the Coyote and the St. Bernard. Kerry Boykins said, "We couldn't get live ones." He also said that "students should show support."

According to Dean Tom Rivera, head of the Ad hoc committee for the mascot issue, the faculty and staff members will be polled in 2 weeks. He said, "We are shooting for a resolution of this issue by the end of January." The committee will turn over their results (recommendation) to President Evans, who has the final word on the matter.

Fountains To Be Restored?

by Rabea Jan

It is just this year that CSCSB has begun to recover from one of the consequences of the Arab oil embargo.

In 1973 King Faisal of Saudi Arabia imposed an Arab embargo on oil exports which provoked a worldwide energy crisis. CSCSB, like the rest of the world, had to cut its energy consumption, and one of the ways proposed was to turn off the fountains around the campus. The reflecting pools were also shut off to conserve fuel. Both stood as empty concrete vessels.

Six months ago, however, CSCSB new president, Mr. Anthony Evans asked CSCSB's Plant Operations to reconsider how much it actually costs to have the pools and fountains turned on for the aesthetic environment of the campus.

"We found the cost would be $500 a year for the power," said Mr. James H. Urata, a director of Administrative Affairs and Plant Operations at CSCSB.

So the cost is not an issue right now. There is a problem, however, with the motors. "We had our electricians look at them and they found they couldn't operate a few of the motors with a minor amount of work," Urata said. "The one in the Physical Education area has a three-horse power, motor which burned out and has to be overhauled. That's the reason that pool is not in operation today."

That's not the only one, however. "There are two pumps in the Administration Building area inoperable too. "They are operable," said Urata, "but after having turned them on for a few months, a lot of algae was coming in, and the chief engineer recommended a chlorine light material to be added to the water."

The powder stained the sides and caused the water to turn yellow green. "We thought it was activated algae," Urata said. "It was not. It was the stain from the chlorine powder that caused the surface rubberized paint to stain."

The physical plant personnel drained the pool, repainted it, and got the pools back in order. "Then we will reseal it and fill it with water, and get the pools back in order."

One of the original reflecting fountain pools has no hope of becoming a reflecting pool. It's the one in front of the Creative Arts Building. "The state would not permit us to design a pump in with the building. The pump is in the building there. They did not give us the necessary equipment to circulate the water," said Urata.

"We decided not to worry about buying a pump, but to go ahead and fill the pool with dirt and plant it instead."

Family Sought As Hosts For International Teenage Students

Youth Exchange Service (YES) is in constant need of families all over the United States who could host students from different parts of the world for periods of 3 months, one second school semester or one school year (9 months). The students are carefully screened and oriented before arrival, have excellent medical-accidental insurance, and bring their own spending money. Host families provide a bed and meals and accept the student as a member of the family. Host family may receive a tax deduction of $50 for each month they host the student. For detailed information on opportunities to host a high school student from another land, please contact Youth Exchange Service (YES), 350 South Figueroa St., Los Angeles, California 90071, or phone: 800-848-2121.

Graduate Fellowship Available

The Graduate Opportunity Fellowship Program of the University of California at Davis is offering fellowship support to students from underrepresented groups, including minorities and women, by providing a supportive and productive environment for graduate study. Stipends are $4,500 per academic year plus tuition and fees. These fellowships are available in all areas of study. Application deadline is January 15, 1984. Information and applications are available in the Office of Graduate Programs, AD 102. For further information, contact Elaine E. Russell, Graduate Division, UC Davis, Davis CA 95616 (916-752-7466).

UCLA Offers Minority Fellowships

UCLA has announced the Dorothy Danforth-Compton Graduate Fellowship Program, which provides financial support to American minorities who seek a Ph.D. and plan careers in college or university teaching. The fellowship carries a stipend of $5,000 a year plus fees and tuition during the first and fourth years of study. In the second and third years, the student will be a Teaching Assistant or Research Assistant. The UCLA deadline for applications is January 16, 1984, for Fall Quarter 1984 admission. Contact Cheryl Armstrong-Turner, Assistant Dean, at the Graduate Admissions Office, 1242 Murphy Hall, UCLA, Los Angeles, CA 90024, for further information.

Mid-Year Social For All Administration Majors

All Administration majors are invited to a Free Lunch courtesy of the School of Business and Public Administration on Thursday, February 2, 1984. The mid-year social is for students who are majoring in Administration, are of any age level.

Human Development Major Approved

Chancellor W. Ann Reynolds has granted approval for Cal State to offer a B.A. in human development effective this year. The human development major provides for broad interdisciplinary study over the life span. Majors may concentrate in child development or aging. The program is an expansion of the present B.A. in child development. Students currently in the child development program may complete the old major or may switch to human development. Dr. Charles Hoffman (Psychology) is coordinator of the program, which is appropriate for individuals working with any age level.

High School Faculty Show Opens Jan. 14

An exhibit of high school faculty art work will open with a reception in the Art Gallery Saturday, Jan. 14. The art and industrial arts departments of the 65 high schools in Cal State's service area were invited to participate. The reception honoring the artists will be from 7 to 10 p.m., Jan. 14. Gallery hours for this show, which will be through Feb. 4, are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1-4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Positions Open on The Cal State Chronicle Staff

A variety of paid staff positions are available on the newspaper staff. Employment applications can be picked up at the newspaper room in the Student Union.
Weekly Chess Obsession

Are you tired of running out of quarters at the arcade? Would you like a cheaper obsession, with just as much, if not more, brain exercise? Try chess!

That's just what 69 members of "Woodpushers Anonymous," a San Bernardino Community club that meets at CSCSB, have done. Headed by Clark Mayo, chairman of the English Department, the club meets in the Student Union, rooms A, B and Senate on Thursday evenings from approximately 8 p.m. to midnight.

A very small percentage of the members are CSCSB students. Bill Richards is a student at Cal State Fullerton, and lives in Ontario. Donald King is an engineer from Banning. There are four high school students, the youngest of whom is Jim Diamond, 16. Of the older men, the oldest (or at least the only one who would admit his age) is 69 year-old Ernie Draber.

As Richards pointed out, "You're never too old to play. Chess is a lifelong sport. It helps stimulate the mind."

Fosdick To Lead Aerobics In SUMP

Aerobic class meets on campus in the SUMP, every Monday and Wednesday at 4 p.m., and Tuesday and Thursday at 3:30 p.m.

Aerobic class guarantees you 60 minutes of exercise each session, consisting of 8-10 minutes of warm ups, and 50 minutes of aerobic activity.

Chess enthusiasts from throughout the Inland Empire match wits each Thursday evening at the Student Union.

Danger in the Parking Lot?

by John Souza

It is cold and dark. The howling wind twists its path through the maze of parked cars and trees. The moon and dimly lit parking lot lights cast ominous shadows everywhere. Your heart begins to pound rapidly. You anxiously wonder, 'Is the parking lot safe at night?'

That specific question was put to several CSCSB evening students. Fran Rice gave this concerned reply, "The parking lot is too dark, the wind howls, and the patrol is not always visible because of their mode of transportation. The patrol increases manpower to this issue. "The campus phone and request an escort from your vehicle. We will respond immediately."

Several students gave Lt. Stewart's statement credibility. Chris Smith said, "I've seen security jumping stalled cars. Betty Meeks said, "Campus police have let me into my woodwork classroom to pick up something and they checked out the building to make sure it was safe."

The Aaaociation was forced to provide essential activities closely related to, but not necessarily included as, a regular part of the college's instructional program, such as student development activities, student government, and public service activities. The Aaaociation provides the funds necessary to support the essential activities. The Aaaociation is an independent organization which is exempt from federal and state income taxes. Its revenue was received from contributions made which would otherwise affect the core operating costs of the organization.

How safe is our campus at night?

There are campus phones located at the edge of the parking lot, a few security officers patrolling on foot. The police have safely escorted the students to their classes.

HEALTH CORNER

Welcome Back! The holidays are over and the time has come to get back into the swing of school again. We would like to provide our new students and refresh returning students with some general information about the Student Health Center.

Who can use the Health Center?
Anyone who is a registered student and has an id. card that is validated for each quarter.

Do I need to make an appointment?
Yes, unless it is an emergency. Those people who have appointments will be seen first. If you just walk in to the Health Center, you may have to wait.

What should I do if I cannot keep my appointment?
Call the Health Center as soon as possible so that we can give your appointment time to someone else. Our number is 887-7641, or extension 7641 if you are calling from on campus. You may reschedule another appointment at that time.

What services are available to me at the Health Center pharmacy?
All medications prescribed by our staff medical personnel can be filled at the Health Center pharmacy. There is no charge to students for any medication.

Is there a doctor in attendance?
Yes. The Health Center staff includes two doctors, a nurse practitioner, a registered nurse, a pharmacist, two clerical personnel, and a student assistant.

What kinds of health services does the Health Center provide?
We can diagnose and treat a wide variety of illnesses and injuries such as colds, flu, acne, strains, sprains, etc. We offer family planning services, including pap smears, pelvic examinations, birth control, and pregnancy testing. We can provide nutrition and diet information and counseling. Immunizations, such as tuberculin skin testing and tetanus shots are also available. Laboratory and x-ray services are provided at off-campus facilities. There are many other services too numerous to mention here, so please call or stop by to become better acquainted with us.

Student Union, geared toward safety and self-defense. The latest, she said, was entitled, "Lady Beware!"

Some students suggested that a few adjustments could be made to help evening students feel safer. "The parking lot lights have dimmed and yellowed over the years and need to be replaced," said post grad Martin Jacobson. "The trees need to be trimmed back."

Lt. Stewart stressed that the police staff is well trained and strategically placed throughout the campus, including parking lots. She said there have been no reported major incidents involving property theft or damage or personal assault, and that crimes such as thefts of batteries and stereo are rare.

"The Campus Police Department has a philosophy of serving the students while keeping a watchful eye on the campus," Lt. Stewart said. "We are public relations oriented. We bear in mind this is a student environment and we are here to help whenever or wherever we can."

Chess Obsession

Evidently one is almost never too young to play either. Richards said he has been playing "since I was about three or four and joined my first chess club at the age of 12." Another member, Jack Lambert, 55, claims he's played "all my life. I can't remember when I didn't play." Lambert is a member of all three local clubs, including the Inland Empire Chess club and the Riverside Chess Club.

Richards said all club members who participate in tournaments must also be members of the USCF (United States Chess Federation) because the tournaments are not just played locally. All results are sent to the USCF in order to get ratings for each players. Of the approximately 55,000 rated members in the country (California is the state with the highest membership), Bill Richards is in the top two percent nationally. Nationally and internationally he is rated a "Master." Below "Master" comes "Expert," then "Class A," "Class B," on all the way down to "Class E."

Richards, who is studying to be an accountant, has time to play only once a week. He chose this club because "of the three out here, this one has a $100 first prize. I'm competing to get a shot at that."

Record Rack: "Born Again"
by Greg Timpany

Just when all the music seems to be about the simple and pretty things in life, along comes a new Black Sabbath album. The Masters of Reality are back in force by Greg Timpany

Sabbath. They have abandoning the studio clean sound of their last three albums, in favor of a brash, hard-hitting sound. "Born Again" slows down on occasion, but the rest of the album chugs along like a locomotive.

Instrumentally, Sabbath is in fine form. Iommi's guitar work has never been better. The opening track, "Trash(ed)" features one of Tony's most blistering solos to date. His addition of Mesa-Bogie amplifiers to his set up gives him a very biting, compressed sound, which really makes his solos reach out after you. The rhythm section, consisting of Geezer Butler and Bill Ward, drives Iommi like never before. The return of Bill Ward to the line up, after a three year leave of absence, gives Sabbath back their hard driving beat, which had been missing in their last two albums.

Side one preserves Black Sabbath's tradition of looking into the dark side of life. "Trashed" comes on hard and fast and sets the general tempo of the album. Next in line is "Stonehenge," which is one of two short instrumental cuts on the record. "Disturbing the Priest" follows and is a true example of why Black Sabbath can be called the "Master of Dungeon Rock."

Closing side one is an ominous epic entitled "Zero the Hero." This cut features some interesting work by Geezer on the bass guitar.

Side two opens with "Digital Bitch." The title track, "Born Again" follows. This is one of the slower songs on the album. Bill Ward stands out on this track. His use of percussion instruments adds much to the song. "Hot Line" follows and immediately throws the album back into high gear. Ian Gillian lets loose some impressive vocal tracks on this cut. Closing the album is "Keep it Warm." Black Sabbath will be bringing its version of Stonehenge to the Long Beach Area on January 26.

Next week I plan on doing the long awaited review of John Cougar Mellencamp's new album "Un-Huh." Till then don't forget to "Rock till you Drop!"

Take Charge At 22.

In most jobs, at 22 you're near the bottom of the ladder. In the Navy, at 22 you can be a leader. After just 16 weeks of leadership training, you're an officer. You'll have the kind of job your education and training prepared you for, and the decision-making authority you need to make the most of it.

As a college graduate and officer candidate, your Navy training is geared to making you a leader. There is no boot camp. Instead, you receive professional training to help you build the technical and management skills you'll need as a Navy officer.

This training is designed to instill confidence by firsthand experience. You learn by doing. On your first sea tour, you're responsible for managing the work of up to 30 men and the care of sophisticated equipment worth millions of dollars.

It's a bigger challenge and a lot more responsibility than most corporations give you at 22. The rewards are bigger, too. There's a comprehensive package of benefits, including special duty pay. The starting salary is $17,000—more than most companies would pay you right out of college. After four years, with regular promotions and pay increases, your salary will have increased to as much as $31,000.

Along with promotions, you'll get squares, stripes, and a valuable management education. You may advance your education, including the possibility of attending graduate school while you're in the Navy. Don't just take a job. Become a Navy officer, and take charge. Even at 22.

Whose Paper is it?

Unlike the A.S. Board of Directors' action to vote on the Intercollegiate Sports issue before consulting the general student body, The Publications Board decided to ask the student body's opinion before taking a stand on whether to change the name of the newspaper or not. After spending almost $100 and countless hours put in by the Activities Director and the Editor-in-Chief ascertaining the preference of the students, the Pub Board members exercised their oligarchical powers and voted their own personal preference anyway.

The majority of the students that participated in the poll and the majority of Pub Board student members voted for the change, thereby mandating the change. As this paper is primarily for the students, and subsidized by student fees, the decision to change the name should rest with the students, and not a seven member board. After all, just whose paper is it?

Hopefully the members of The Publications Board will keep in mind that the newspaper belongs to the students of this campus when they decide on formal guidelines for changes in the name. As the makeup of the student body changes, the character of this campus changes, and as such, symbols and traditions must be subject to change. In the early 70's the paper changed from "The Communiqué to The Paw Print" because the character of the campus had changed. The results of the Pub Board initiated poll indicates that the character of the campus has changed again, thereby prompting the name to change again.

CSCSB INQUIRY

Glenn ' Comes Out' Against National Gay Rights Act

Last week, Democratic presidential candidate John Glenn stated that he would not support a national gay rights act if he were elected. He also stated that he did not think that homosexuals should be allowed to teach, be soldiers, or be spies.

Do you agree or disagree with Glenn? Do you think his comments will hurt or help his chances for the Democratic nomination?

Anonymous

I tend to agree with Glenn concerning a National Gay Rights Act. There are more than enough laws on the books to protect the rights of people. If the gay people can refrain from showing their feelings, then they should be allowed to teach, be soldiers, or spies. This may not be that easy! There are so many splinter groups within the Democratic Party that no matter what Glenn says or does it will hurt his chances.

Kevin Colton, Biology

Gays should not be allowed to be soldiers, as it may disrupt the team spirit necessary in so many vital operations. It's hell to be stuck in a fox hole with a gay.

They should be allowed to teach or be spies. Sexual preference should have no bearing on their job performances.

Bob Mull, Pres. CSCSB

Gay and Lesbian Union

Bob Mull, Pres. CSCSB

Gay and Lesbian Union

Political Science

I believe that Senator Glenn, by making such absurd remarks, has only weakened his already frail campaign to secure the Presidential Nomination. There are only certain, others in this country that "think" the same way as the Senator, but many Americans are coming to the realization that Gay people do exist as friends, relatives, neighbors, co-workers, in all occupations, from all walks of life. Discrimination against gays must be eliminated and civil rights afforded to all.

Trish Grimes, A.S. Treasurer

I feel that Mr. Glenn's outward expression of homophobia clearly represented his narrow minded political stance. I can't help but think that he is silencing his own prejudice towards groups such as women and blacks because he fears the action of their voting power. I don't think that anyone with concern for civil liberties could possibly support John Glenn.

Frustrations of Registration

Now that the headaches of registration are over, it is time to look back and ask if it was worth it all. Although the lines inside the gym were not quite as long as they were for Fall registration, they still moved at a snail's pace. Equally annoying was being told over and over again to have our Emergency cards filled out.

Once inside the gym, the fun continues. The whole scene is reminiscent of a bee hive, with people instead of bees scurrying around. Even the ultimate frustration is yet to come. Finding that none of your classes are open, then being stabbed in the back. Worse yet is: when the person on the other side of the desk will not let you petition for the class. These people must enjoy seeing students pull out their hair and shred their class schedules.

The agony is far from over. There are still mobs of people wanting to refuse to print ads and copy submitted after the deadline. However, the Cal State Chronicle reserves the right to edit all submissions to comply with space requirements and legal laws.

They should be allowed to teach or be spies. Sexual preference should have no bearing on their job performances.

Trish Grimes, A.S. Treasurer

I feel that Mr. Glenn's outward expression of homophobia clearly represented his narrow minded political stance. I can't help but think that he is silencing his own prejudice towards groups such as women and blacks because he fears the action of their voting power. I don't think that anyone with concern for civil liberties could possibly support John Glenn.

Letter to the Editor

Finding that none of your advertisers in本期 issue of the Cal State Chronicle have any idea that you have no desire to take their cowardly petition for the class. If they are being assaulted by mobs of people wanting to refuse to print ads and copy submitted after the deadline. However, the Cal State Chronicle reserves the right to edit all submissions to comply with space requirements and legal laws.

Frustrations of Registration

Now that the headaches of registration are over, it is time to look back and ask if it was worth it all. Although the lines inside the gym were not quite as long as they were for Fall registration, they still moved at a snail's pace. Equally annoying was being told over and over again to have our Emergency cards filled out.
