Friday Bulletin
EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANTS INCREASED

The College has received notice from the U.S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare that its application for $14,000 to support students with financial needs has been approved. According to Doyle Stansel, $6,000 of this will assist approximately 12 new enrollees, $5,000 will provide continuing support to students now enrolled and $2,000 will go to students now receiving Educational Opportunity Grants who earn above average grades this year. Faculty are urged to suggest this source of help to students in need.

ASB ELECTIONS

Elections will be held on Monday, April 24, for Student Body officers and Class Officers. If run-off elections are needed, they will be held on Wednesday, April 26, and the election results will be posted on Thursday, April 27.

NEW STATE-WIDE PUBLICATION

More reading material may be on its way! An Inter-Campus Newspaper for the State Colleges is about to be started with headquarters at Chico, California. Our campus was asked to submit a story and pictures about the student drama program.

CSEA CREDIT UNION

The CSEA Credit Union resources are available to permanent employees of the State Colleges. Local offices are at 437 W. 16th Street in San Bernardino; Telephone, TU 54545. Office hours are: week-days from noon to six, open until nine on Mondays. Through authorized payroll deductions, permanent employees are eligible to deposit savings which are insured up to $2,000. Last year a 5% dividend was paid. Personal loans of varying amounts are available at very low interest rates. Joining the Credit Union involves a payment of $6. If you are interested, inquire of Mr. Joe Jerz.

FULBRIGHT DEADLINES CHANGED

Please check with Associate Dean Marcy if you are applying for a Fulbright Research Grant or Lectureship. The new deadline for both is June 1.

COLOR US BRIGHT

The Bookstore has arranged with a company which produces postcards to have some printed of the campus. Those who saw the three views taken were impressed by the beautiful color. They will be on sale in the Bookstore in the fall.
VISITORS ON CAMPUS

Dr. Ernest G. Palola, Project Director of the Center for Research and Development in Higher Education at the University of California, Berkeley, spent Tuesday and Wednesday interviewing administrators on our campus.

Doctors and nurses of the Blood Bank of San Bernardino-Riverside Counties brought the equipment necessary to accept blood donations from students, faculty and staff to start our College Blood Bank. Ninety-six pints were collected.

NEWS OF THE FACULTY

Leo Kreter (Music) has composed the music and text of "Show Us Thy Way, O Lord," published by Galaxy Music Corporation

Kenton L. Monroe (Dean of Students) is the newly-elected President of the San Bernardino County Counseling and Guidance Association. He has served as Editor of the "Guidance Research Bulletin" this past year. Dr. Monroe also spoke to the PTA of Pacific High School on April 12 about the dangers of LSD.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Computer Dance at the Kaiser Dome - Orange Show, on Saturday, April 22, from 8:00 to midnight. The Class of 1970, which is sponsoring this dance, made over $45 on their Rummage Sale last week.

Sophomore Beach Party (for Sophomores only) on Sunday, April 23.

Fashion Show at the May Company, Valencia Room, on Monday, April 24, at 7:00pm. Benefit for Theta Psi Omega.

Gimmick Rallye sponsored by the Motor Enthusiasts on April 29 at 6:30. This is a repeat of a very successful event and this time the club guarantees "no mistakes!" There were 17 cars and over 50 people taking part last time. A total of $10 in prizes was awarded.

OTHER COMING EVENTS

The Lectures and Public Affairs Committee has planned a fine calendar of events for the Spring Term. Next on the list is an evening with Sam Hinton, folk singer, to be held in the Cafeteria Patio on Friday, April 28 at 7:30. A man of varied interests and notable achievements, Mr. Hinton has recorded 60 songs for the Library of Congress and more than 140 songs for commercial distribution. Besides his fame as a performing folklorist, Mr. Hinton is a distinguished marine biologist and is presently serving the statewide University of California system as Assistant Director of Relations with Schools.

Refreshments for this event will be served by the Freshman Class.

The Faculty Wives are planning a theatre party for the opening night of "Hay Fever" on Friday, May 5. Curtain time is 8:00 for the play with a buffet afterwards at the home of President and Mrs. Pfau. Tickets for faculty for this performance will be sold only on April 27.

GOOD NEWS FOR FACULTY WIFE

Mrs. Shirley Van Marter, currently working toward a doctorate in English at the University of Chicago, has received two grants which will enable her to spend necessary time in London. The AAUW has given her $3,000 and she has also been awarded a Kent Foundation Fellowship.

NOTICE The Bookstore will not guarantee delivery for caps and gowns orders placed after MAY 1, 1967!
