CSCSB HOLDS SCIENCE DAY

Approximately 275 students and teachers of Riverside and San Bernardino Counties will be on campus to attend Science Day Saturday, February 3. Dr. Ralph Petrucci, Chairman of the Division of Natural Sciences, will host the group, aided by Dr. Arlo Harris, Chairman of the Science Day Committee.

President Pfau will welcome the participants in the Cafeteria Mall at 8:45. All Science Day student guests are science students from high schools or junior colleges.

Professor Lloyd Ingles, Professor Emeritus of Zoology at Fresno State College, will narrate his African wildlife film "East of the Mountains of the Moon" in the PS Lecture Hall. Following the film, Professor Michael O'Gara will serve the guests an outdoor-grill luncheon in the Physical Education area.

Afternoon activities will see the group attending one of four lectures given by members of the Natural Sciences Division. James Crum will speak on "Chemistry of the Creation of the Universe;" Alfred Egge will lecture on "Homeostasis;" Russell DeRemer's topic will be "Nuclear Particles;" and John Hafstrom will discuss "Modern Mathematics."

Six scientific demonstrations of various types will be given: Richard Goodman and Alexander Sokoloff, biology; Peter Sprague and Lee Kalbus, chemistry; Dennis Ikenberry, physics; and Robert Stein, mathematics.

Members of the men's and women's service clubs of CSCSB will be on hand to conduct guided tours of the campus.

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENTS INVITED TO ART EXHIBIT

The first formal art exhibit ever held at CSCSB will open between 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, February 4, in Room BS-101. William Haney (Art) will exhibit prints, drawings, and three paintings entitled Utica, Albuquerque, and Salina.

Carol Schille (Mrs. Haney), holder of M.F.A. degrees from Indiana and Yale Universities, will show three paintings and several drawings in the same exhibit.

All faculty, staff and students are invited. Professor Robert Harrison said the exhibit would continue through February 24, 9 to 4, Monday through Friday.
C. Carl Johnson, Chief of College Police, is the only security officer on duty during weekdays. He is frequently out of his office while on duty around the campus. Anyone unable to reach him at telephone Extension 349 can leave a message for him in the Dean of Student's office, Extension 211.

W. C. FIELDS' FILMS TONIGHT

Six classic comedy films starring W.C. Fields will be shown tonight in the PS Lecture Hall at 7:30 p.m.

The Fields' films are currently enjoying a popular revival throughout the country.

Next Friday, the Lectures and Public Affairs Committee will also bring The Bank Dick.

All students, faculty and staff are invited to attend, free of charge, and may bring guests.

The Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges met January 24 and 25 at Sonoma State College.

"What Makes Social Science Scientific" will be the issue discussed at the first winter term meeting of the Philosophy Forum. At 12:30, Tuesday, January 30, in PS-122 Dr. Robert Roberts, Chairman of the Social Sciences Division, will be paired with Professor Paul Johnson of the Philosophy staff. Dr. Leslie Van Marter, also of the Philosophy staff, will serve as chairman of the forum. All students, faculty, and campus personnel are encouraged to come and join in the discussion.

Bids were opened January 16 for landscaping the Physical and Biological Science buildings. Apparent low bidder was J. Putnam Henck, Inc. of San Bernardino, with a bid of $145,264.

According to Executive Dean Joseph Thomas, work on the project will begin in approximately three weeks.
MARIE ASTOR GIVES CONCERT TUESDAY

Marie Astor, a member of the music staff who teaches advanced piano students, will give her first concert at CSCSB next Tuesday night.

All College personnel, students, and the public are invited to the event beginning at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, January 30, in the Physical Science Building Lecture Hall.

Miss Astor joined the staff last fall. She is a graduate of the London and Zurich conservatories. Although she is an American citizen, she has spent most of her career in Europe. She has given recitals in almost every major music capital in the world. Last year she toured Europe and Israel, including television and concert appearances in Madrid, Lisbon, and 15 other cities. In 1959 she gave a series of five programs at Carnegie Hall. She made her debut in Germany at the age of 5 after World War II.

Her concert is sponsored by the Lectures and Public Affairs Committee. There is no admission charge.

HOLIDAY SCHEDULE

Classes will be in session on Lincoln's Birthday, February 12, and Washington's Birthday, February 22, so they will be considered normal workdays for all employees. Non-academic employees working on Lincoln's Birthday will receive compensating-time-off. Those working on Washington's Birthday will have an in-lieu-of holiday on Friday, July 5.

Staff employees who wish to be absent on either February 12 or 22 should contact their supervisors. Arrangements can probably be made to allow their absence.

ACTIVITIES OFFICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

There are several student organizations which have need of faculty advisors. Faculty members who are interested in being a faculty advisor should contact the Activities Office.

The Activities Office has had a block of 50 tickets set aside for the Ravi Shankar performance at the UC, Irvine campus, Sunday, February 4. Seats are unreserved and cost $3.00. The program will be held in the Gymnasium at 8:30 p.m. Faculty, staff and students may obtain tickets from the Activities Office.

PEOPLE IN

Lee Kalbus (Chemistry) spoke on "The Origin and Development of the Atomic Theory" last week at Mt. San Jacinto J.C.

President Pfau spoke last week at the first annual banquet for scholars at the San Bernardino High School, which honored 300 students who had an average of B plus or higher.

Four board members of the SCTA have been invited to attend the PEOPLE . . cont'd.
San Bernardino Teachers' Leadership Council dinner and workshop February 6 at the Holiday Inn. They are John Snyder, Robert Waddell, Cheryl Wall and Carmen Molina, students.
