CSCSB RECEIVES
5 YEAR ACCREDITATION

California State College, San Bernardino has been reaccredited for a five-year period by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, CSCSB President John M. Hafstrom announced today.

Word of the reaccreditation was received Monday from the WASC’s Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities.

The five-year accreditation, the maximum granted by the association, extends through June 30, 1975.

Before an educational institution is accredited by the WASC or one of the other regional agencies, an evaluation of its academic program, faculty, library resources, scholarship standards and physical facilities is made by a select committee of educators. The committee visits the Cal State campus earlier in the winter and makes detailed reports to the accreditation commission which then grants approval.

Accreditation has a double aspect, explained President Hafstrom. It is a judgment and a service. It certifies that a college or university is a whole meets minimum academic standards. More important, it assists the college in examining itself identifying its problems and improving programs for growth and improvement.

CSCSB has been accredited by the WASC since its opening in the fall of 1965.

California State College grows in size and standing. CSCSB has recently received reaccreditation.

What's Happening to Politics?

By NANCY SAUNDERS

What has our attitude become toward politics? Have you all given up participating in this democratic fashion? Have you all become bored with life in general? This observer believes we have. I, for one, feel that we could care less' attitude. I have hopes and dreams of far better tomorrows. There are several ways to make these dreams into reality; however, the quickest method is changed from within. Join with other political programs, and be a member not an outsider. Many have chosen this path but in comparison to our total population only a few. There are only a few who currently believe in maintaining the drug laws intact. Can we Enforcement of a drug program becomes the cost of our being irresponsible to their drug use. For what we are now making certain for the money they are paid but because they care. These people who sacrifice are politicians and thank God we have them.

Wednesday I handed out several flyers on Senator John Harmer's upcoming visit on February 10th at 3:00 p.m. in P.S. 10. Many were left behind or others were balled. Three questions were asked several times and I'm sure these questions might be in your mind now. Who is Senator Harmer? What can he do for me? Why should I come and hear him? First of all John Harmer is the state senator for the 21st district of California. He is a dynamic person with strong convictions about this country of ours. He has taken time to come and talk with us on problems we face here in our state. Most of all, however, he is the leading candidate for the Attorney General of California, a position we must elect a man into.

Secondly, in regard to "What can he do for me?" The answer is simply "nothing," unless you elect him into office. Every elected official is a puppet of the people and if he forgets this for any moment, he no longer exists. The question then should have been asked "What can I do for him?"

Thirdly, "Why should I come and listen?" You owe it to yourself and country. You are this country. If you say it hasn't done nothing for you, then I say you have done nothing for yourself.

I feel that all of you must care. I have that much faith in you. Show you are one of those who is not willing to sit idly by and let life pass on. Come and listen, for we are tomorrow. We are life as we are to know it for the next few decades. PARTICIPATE.

L & PA

Nancy, Last Jan. 25 issue of the Pawprint carried an article on page 5 of my resignation by the President, Chairman of Lectures and Public Affairs Committee. I thank you for the "no put-on-the-back," but I think the whole article makes it seem as though I am resigning in disgust, or that there are internal hassles in the L & PA Committee. Neither is true. I am not a creative but I have been the Chairman of L & PA for two years and I feel that a third term is not in the best interest of the committee or in the best interest of my metabolism. It is a very time consuming job, when my time is up I think I will go back to smoking pot. I hope in my present term as chairman expresses then I have said that I will not seek, nor accept the nomination again.

Sincerely, William L. Haney Chairman (as of now, until April) of Lectures & Public Affairs Committee

HANDS OFF THE POT

Dear Editor:

I read Mr. Thwing's crusading editorial with considerable agreement. Normally, if Mr. Thwing doesn't want to smoke pot, I thought, then by God somebody ought to come around and make sure we don't. Hurt us, hurt us, before we kill ourselves!

Sincerely, Mike Barza Peace Corps Recruits

Mr. Thwing's letters have stirred heated debate and discussion on this campus. It is my opinion that this is a serious issue, especially so if the student body is to be on campus recruiting for the Peace Corps. Also, thanks for printing the letter that we wrote after our recruiting campaign was over. Also, please thank your editor who I know was instrumental in placing the article about our campaign.

Hope that all is going well with school and the paper. Again thanks for all of your assistance.

Sincerely, Mike Barza

Legalization of Marijuana?

By VERDA EDINBURGH, Junior, English, in her article "Legalization of Marijuana," she expresses her opinion that marijuana should be relaxed. She expresses her personal opinion that marijuana should be legalizing. She argues that marijuana is a non-addictive drug and should be legalizing. She believes that marijuana should be legalized because it is a non-addictive drug and should be legalizing. She expresses her opinion that marijuana should be legalizing.

BSU Accepts No Whitewash

BY NANCY SAUNDERS

Doyle Washington, President of the B.S.U., recently submitted his resignation, he said that he felt he had held the office for too long. He said that there had been no real disagreement and that he fully supported all B.S.U. activities. For the future, Washington remarked that the B.S.U. would be moving out to attack problems that bring dissension between students.

He was asked to comment on the recent "Pawprint" controversy, and stated that "It's happening, and we're going to keep the right of student determination out of their hands and into the hands of those who break out behind standard set procedures. They are the ones who wear the American and yell out, "If mama's apple pie was good enough for them, then it's good enough for us."

Washington feels that there should be a continual investigation into the facets of semantics versus action. "The B.S.U. will accept no whitewash from those on this campus who do not see the relevance of blacks. Our interests should be safeguarded." He would like to see more cultural programs at C.S.O.S.B., and would like black history presented to the people to acknowledge the contributions that they have given to the world.

The Black Students' Union of Cal State, San Bernardino would like to seize this moment to announce the beginning of National Negro History Week. This is an annual event that will be celebrated through-out the nation beginning February 8, 1970-February 15, 1970. Our theme this year will be "BLACK CONTRIBUTIONS HERE AND AROUND THE WORLD."

1. There will be displays on Black Contributions made in the Humanities Natural Sciences, and Social Sciences Divisions graphically exhibited in select areas around the campus.

2. There will be articles about the Liberation of the Black Man written by Black Sisters and Brothers in the Pawprint.

3. There will be Black Literature, Poetry, plays, and Quotes read each day.

4. There will be Soul Food served in the Campus Cafeteria every day.

5. There will be Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr. recording played every day.

6. There will be a prize given to the student who can come up with the most out-of-sight natural hairstyle.

7. All this is to be concluded Friday by a personal visit from one of the areas most "together" brother to speak on "The Black Students and the Brother in the Street."

Azusa Pacific College

Glen Yarbrough
Will Appear
Feb. 26-27

Glen Yarbrough will be appearing at Azusa Pacific College and will be a guest of the College's Lecture-Artist Series.

In the past, the Lecture-Artist Series has hosted such performers as Robert Hale and Jerome Hines. The series is under the direction of Paul Lundberg, a Professor of Music at the college.

Yarbrough, who is best known as the former lead singer with the hit trio, "The Limelighters," is now doing standing-room-only business throughout the nation as a single.

Planning a career in education, Glen Yarbrough first sang professionally in 1956. In 1959 he met Alex Hassiev and Lou Gottlieb and "The Limelighters" became one of the most popular folk singing groups in the nation. Since that time, Yarbrough has made it as a single and now records for Warner Brother's Seven Arts. Yarbrough's latest album on the Warner label is entitled "Time to Gather Seed." It is a surprise album for it features "The Limelighters" in a rare reunion.

The two-day, three-show performance at Azusa Pacific is expected to be sold out by show time because of the interest and response now being shown by the public. Tickets for the concert are available through Ticketron and Computicket, or by writing the box office at Azusa Pacific College. Phone reservations are also being accepted between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m., Monday through Friday at 334-7123.

What the Critical Generation Thinks Of America

As part of its continuing effort to encourage better critical writing on the campus, Harper's Magazine is announcing its Second Annual Criticism Contest for college students. The contest offers three first prizes of $500 for the best articles of political, social or artistic criticism, with a matching prize of $500 to each publication which carried the winning entries, and is open to all articles which have appeared in any college publication between March 1, 1969 and February 27, 1970.

We have since compiled a collection of the prize-winning entries in "What the Critical Generation Thinks Of America" and have thus far answered almost 1100 requests for the booklet. We're hoping this year's contest will draw an even greater response.

We need help making the world turn.

Like it or not, money is what makes things happen in this world. In business, In government, In all the worldly affairs of man.

It takes money to discover medicines, to rebuild ghettos, to educate children, to feed, clothe, and house humanity. Money is an essential ingredient in solving man's day to day problems—and in promoting his century to century progress.

In short, money makes the world turn. We're the world's largest bank and putting money to work is our business. We think it's an important enough business to hire the best people we can find to run it.

A Bank of America personnel representative will make an appointment.

Choral Music Class

To Be Offered

San Bernardino City Schools' Department of Adult Education is offering a class in choral music during the second semester of this school year. This class is held in the choral music room, E-5, at San Gorgonio High School, 35999 Pacific Street, San Bernardino, from 7 to 10 p.m. on Monday evenings, with the first class scheduled for Monday, February 2.

The chorus will be directed by Patrick Hicks of Loma Linda. Mr. Hicks holds a Master of Music Degree from the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore, Maryland, and is now engaged in doctoral studies at U.S.C. He has had extensive experience with church and school choirs and choral societies since 1950.

Church choir director are particularly invited to bring this musical opportunity to the attention of their choir members. We would like to stress the fact that the Choral Arts Society is not intended to be hurtful competition for church choirs. Rather, it is seen as an instrument for strengthening choral music throughout the area by affording the opportunity to sing both sacred and secular music with a large chorus under the leadership of an experienced and very successful choral director.

Registration will take place in the classroom and the fee is $2.00 for the semester.

A final point of Interest is that the Choral Arts Society will provide the opening concert of the Third Annual Allied Arts Council's Festival of the Arts on Sunday, May 3, 1970.

For further information, contact the Adult School office at TU 2-2537 or Mr. Joe R. Momyer at TU 2-5025.

World Affairs Council
Encourages Membership

by MICHAEL ZLAKET

The World Affairs Council of Inland Southern California is an organization sponsored by eight colleges in the Inland Empire to provide an avenue for the study and full and free discussion of matters of current international importance. The Council members meet, hear and question the speakers.

The organization has succeeded well in its aim during its six years of existence. Speakers have included such people as Henry Steele Commager, Professors Marshall Shulman, and the honorable Dean Rusk, former Secretary of State.

Last Monday, the Council's guest speaker was Richard E. Leakey, the son of the world-famous anthropologists Dr. Louis S.B. and Mary Leakey. The event included a buffet lunch, followed by an address from the honor of the University of California's, at Riverside, and the intercollegiate and his lectures and film.

Viet Nam War Moratorium. Most of the dissenters' speeches were dedicated, but they have not educated themselves as to what is really going on.

As Thwing sees it, he attempts to put forth the facts concerning an issue in his lectures, while the dissenters merely say that something is unfair without actually probing beneath the surface. They are taking only a superficial look at the causes of problems without really examining the facts.

Thwing feels that the dissenters do not realize the consequences of what they are doing. When these people are older, they will have matured and will look back, wondering why they did things the way they did. He says that in his own experience: his views have changed from what they were several years ago!

Instead of picking away at society and its faults, these people should devote their energies to finding out what is right with our society.

The dissenters generally have strong leaders who implant ideas in their minds and utilize them for a cause. Most of the dissenter educators themselves as to the realities of the causes of society's ills, most of them would rebel against their own groups.

The film he presented was a color documentary, with his personal commentary, disclosing his recent paleontological endeavors. The World Affairs Council of Inland Southern California is an organization sponsored by eight colleges in the Inland Empire to provide an avenue for the study and full and free discussion of matters of current international importance. The Council members meet, hear and question the speakers.

The organization has succeeded well in its aim during its six years of existence. Speakers have included such people as Henry Steele Commager, Professors Marshall Shulman, and the honorable Dean Rusk, former Secretary of State.

Last Monday, the Council's guest speaker was Richard E. Leakey, the son of the world-famous anthropologists Dr. Louis S.B. and Mary Leakey. The event included a buffet lunch, followed by an address from the honor of the University of California's, at Riverside, and the intercollegiate and his lectures and film.

Thwing feels that the dissenters do not realize the consequences of what they are doing. When these people are older, they will have matured and will look back, wondering why they did things the way they did. He says that in his own experience: his views have changed from what they were several years ago!

Instead of picking away at society and its faults, these people should devote their energies to finding out what is right with our society.

The dissenters generally have strong leaders who implant ideas in their minds and utilize them for a cause. Most of the dissenter educators themselves as to the realities of the causes of society's ills, most of them would rebel against their own groups.

The film he presented was a color documentary, with his personal commentary, disclosing his recent paleontological endeavors. In an interview with the California State College at San Bernardino, the Claremont Colleges, La Sierra College, Loma Linda University, Riverside City College, San Bernardino Valley College, University of California at Riverside, and the University of Redlands.

The Board of Directors consists of three persons: Stephen L. Agnew, President; Ernest H. Krause, Vice-President; and Milton R. Sage, Treasurer. Dr. James F. Drury, of VTP, is Director of the Educational Extension Program. Dr. Seaborg is a member of the Atomic Energy Commission.

The art eventually spread to Japan, where it was known as jujutsu. The Japanese refined it by taking out the punching and kicking techniques. This version of the art became what is known today as judo.

The CSCSB course is an accelerated course rather than the standard course. The class is divided into two sections, each meeting once a week. The beginning section meets on Tuesday, while the more advanced section meets on Friday. Each section lasts two hours, 3 to 5 p.m. A student may attend both sections if he wishes.

Karate is a refined version of an art that was developed centuries ago in China. The twenty-third Buddha, Buddha dah Ruma, brought the Zen philosophy to the Orient and attempted to spread it by sending missionaries throughout the land. The missionaries were not well-accepted and, in fact, were often robbed. Thus, they developed karate as a method of self-defense.

Some forty students are presently enrolled in the CSCSB Karate Class. Tony Gneck, a student at the college, instructs the class. Students must undergo vigorous practice to develop the skills required to earn a Black Belt.
