No survey being taken

For three months two white, male have been phoning students of Cal State San Bernardino stating they are taking a survey for the University of Chicago. They are contacting mostly female students. They phone outside during the late afternoon around 10 o'clock, stating they are taking a poll that will take up to ten minutes to complete. They do not show identification. At any type of question, the questions are in no way related or pertinent to the college.

There is no survey being conducted by the University of Chicago. The real purpose of it is not known. Anyone wishing to give information when contacted doing so at their own risk. Anyone who is or has been harassed and would like something done about it contact the San Bernardino police or the college police. These people are violating the city ordinance and state law. The Director of College Police, Walter S. Kadyk, does not recommend any contact with these people.

The election is over and there will be no Union for 1972.

Tell it like it is,” to be presented April 3

Tell it Like It Is,” a folk musical will be presented April 3 and 4 at 8 p.m. in PS 10. The program will be presented by the Christian Life Club.

Ralph Carmichael has written the production. The folk musical is open to the public and members of the production are high school, junior college and college students.

Christian Life Club is interdenominational and meets weekly in room C-113. Dr. Pace is the faculty advisor.

The club is comprised of Cal State students, faculty and staff, who believe that his life style meets its own professional medical needs. This would be the cost if Proposition 1 was approved.

Here is what it would do:
It would provide $246.3 million to build medical, dental, nursing, pharmacy, optometry, public health, and veterinary schools to train the health experts California needs.

The passage of Proposition 1 is imperative because there are simply not enough people in every phase of health care in California to handle the State’s needs.

California now trains only 30 per cent of its doctors, 25 per cent of its newly licensed dentists, 65 per cent of its dentists, and 20 per cent of its veterinarians. There are not enough of these professional people now, and the shortages worsen every year.

In 1966, for example, the State’s medical schools trained only 400 new physicians, but 500 are known to have died in that year. Since then, according to estimates, the gap has grown.

Just to maintain today’s inadequate ratios, California needs 11,000 more doctors by 1980, 4,000 more medical dentists and 21,000 additional registered nurses.

If approved, Proposition 1 will more than double the number of doctors graduating each year from state-supported medical schools. And it would increase by more than one-quarter the number of dentists graduating each year. And it would increase substantially the numbers of graduating nurses, optometrists, pharmacists, veterinarians, and public health experts.

It would also provide the necessary funds to complete three new medical schools at San Diego, Irvine and Davis. And it would make possible the expansion of medical, nursing, dental, pharmacy, veterinary and other health training facilities at the University of California throughout the State.

As an all black cast will present its first play review at CSUSB on Tuesday, March 17, 1970 at 7:30 p.m. The play is entitled, “A Black Boy’s Dream.” Submitted by Amelius Baker.

One company’s position

It’s time to reject violence

Despite recent events and despite recurring threats, Bank of America reopened its I’Ava Vista branch promptly. The branch reopened Monday, March 9, in temporary quarters.

Bank of America realizes that there is danger in this course of action. But they believe the greater danger to themselves and to all of the people is to be intimidated by mob violence. They refuse to be so intimidated.

They would also like to make very clear that they have great respect for the young people of America. They admire their integrity, their moral courage and their willingness to dissent. They need these qualities in America.

They view their reopening as a demonstration that the participation of a few students in a destructive act will not deter them from attempting to serve the financial needs of the majority of students on the Santa Barbara campus. The record of those students who have actively supported their six-five per cent of the branch’s customers are students. When reserve requirements are considered, every penny on deposit in I’Ava Vista is out on loans. All I’Ava Vista funds are used in I’Ava Vista, primarily in loans to students. We have 1,600 student-educational loans totaling $1.5 million to Santa Barbara students. Our statewide student loan outstandings are 104,464 loans totaling $94,975,000, with most of these loans below significantly below prevailing rates. And although tight money has made it impossible for us to make a loan to every student applicant, Bank of America has made more student loans than any other bank in the nation.

The decision to reopen in I’Ava Vista was not taken lightly. There will be no student union at Cal State. The vote failed with a two-thirds majority. The payments would have begun in the fall quarter of 1970 at $3 per quarter. The fee would have been $5 per quarter. In 1971-72 Union fee would have been $5 per quarter, and in 1972, when eligible to vote, only 530 turned out at the polls. Lak March 4 and 5, only 296 “yes” votes and 234 “no” votes. Out of approximately 1500 student union into existence.

A two-thirds majority was needed to pass the union. The payments would have begun in the fall quarter of 1970 at $3 per quarter. The fee would have been $5 per quarter.

Students would have had a say in the allocation of the space. Such items as office space, storage, study areas, a parking lot, a child care center, and an alumni center could have been provided.

Money collected through Union fees would have been used for the down payment for acquiring facilities, purchase of furniture and equipment, operating costs, and loan payments.

What is the significance of this issue failing? With an increase in enrollment which will prevent space for student use, there will be no longer be facilities except for instructional and related purposes.

Let it burn

"Bands of youth," these are the words that are in all the papers, on television and radio In reference to the tragic burning of the Isla Vista branch of the Bank of America. Who composed these bands and what are we to make of it?

Who is to blame? Should the blame fall on defense attorney William Kunstler, on Jim or on Mrs. Rubin? No, not alone. There are groups of people involved, and the tragic part is that many of those people are students.

Bank of Americas: that was no prank. That was a planned criminal act. Bands of young people blocked traffic and burned and ransacked bank in Santa Barbara. Ugliness was there to be seen and the smell of tears and burning gasoline were there in the air.

National guard troops were called in by Gov. Ronald Reagan when a state of extreme emergency was declared.

All the trouble started on Feb. 24 when police deputies on patrol stopped a former college student from the Santa Barbara campus who had been expelled. A group gathered around the officers and the youth began to throw stones under control car, resulting in injuries to the officers and the nearby spectators.

That evening fires were set in the Isla Vista area near the campus. Windows were smashed in stores and the Bank of America.

A firebomb was thrown under the patrol car, resulting in injuries to the policemen, and the 150 assisting highway patrolmen.

Editorial

No union for state

The ballots have been cast and counted. There will be no Student Union at Cal State San Bernardino. Apparently not enough students were interested to get out and vote.

Those who were short sighted may or may not feel the results of this vote. But there are some of us who are attempting to find a workable solution to this problem, and there are some of us who are attempting to do just that — find a workable solution. Because we realize there is a problem and WE DO CARE. And remember — this is one person on campus who does not intend to remain silent, to sit down and just amusing yourselves, especially when it involves the destruction of property and ruined lives. We have had enough of both.

Preparation 1 is the result of legislation I authored last year. It was placed on the November ballot as a special election ballot by an overwhelming vote of the Legislature. It was approved by the Assembly 74-0 and 30-4 by the Senate.

More Californias are now covered by some form of health insurance, and the Gallup poll reports that health care in unpreceded numbers.

The State's population is expected to increase six million during the next 10 years. In other words, some of the health needs of today's critical shortage will become monumental within a short time.

We do care

Some of us tolerate the games of certain groups on this campus such as tampering with the flag or harassing guest speakers because we realize children have nothing better to occupy their time. However, when these people cause destruction with the future lives of other human beings, using them as scapegoats to do the dirty work and take the blame just to see yourselves in print, this day and time is over because neither can I nor do I intend to let it go unreported.

Perhaps you should reevaluate your motives. Just what is it you are trying to do, to bring violence for everyone, everywhere; or do you want to help those of us who are trying to find a workable solution to this problem; and there are some of us who are attempting to do just that — find a workable solution. Because we realize there is a problem and WE DO CARE. And remember — this is one person on campus who does not intend to remain silent, to sit down and just amusing yourselves, especially when it involves the destruction of property and ruined lives. Summer session (continued from page 1)

Students planning to attend summer session at CSCSB do not need to be formally admitted to the college first, explained Dr. Roach. A full year's credit may be earned in the all-day class. The equivalent of two quarters of work in Spanish, French or German also will be available in the six-week term. With the addition of the August post-session, students in Spanish may complete a year's sequence in nine weeks.

Courses in education, ranging from basic courses through workshops and advanced offerings, will focus on major contemporary problems and challenges facing the teaching profession, said Dr. Roach. Afternoon workshops during the first "half-term," June 22-July 10, will deal with elementary and secondary curriculum; in the second period, July 13-31, a special seminar will deal with unique concerns of junior high school teachers and administrators.

During the six-week term courses will be offered in: General Studies, art, biology, business administration, drama, education, English, French, German, Spanish, history, mathematics, music, philosophy, political science, psychology, social science and sociology.

Announcement

Would you like to take part in your community programs? Well you can in the C.A.P. (College Age Program) with the March of Dimes. The C.A.P. Chairmanship of the March of Dimes is a volunteer position. As a new group we need help in getting C.A.P. on its feet. We would like to welcome any Cal State student to take part in this program as an officer (Co-Chairman or Treasurer) or as a part time volunteer.

In this new program we hope to bring college students closer to the problems of birth defects in today's life. If you are interested in helping please contact the March of Dimes office at 81903 or Phyllis Farrington on campus or at 6311 Orange Knoll, San Bernardino, Calif.

Thank you for your time.

Announcing

March of Dimes is a volunteer organization.

Students who plan to continue as regular or part-time students in the fall quarter must apply for admission to the college prior to the deadlines announced by the Admissions Office.

Happiness

Is a city in the state of mind.

This advertisement has been purchased by the following students and faculty members of CSCSB as a counter to the Bank of America's stand on "Violence in America.

It is not a demonstration of weakness but an expression of determination to prove that violence does not do away with the priority of human values over property values, which are so highly treasured by the Bank of America.

The right of the individual to dissent in free speech is protected by the constitution of the United States. It is to be respected and not treated toward non existence.

VIOLENCE IN AMERICA

One Company's Position

Isla Vista, California, population 11,250.
The business district consists of a couple of gas stations, a few small shops, some real estate offices—and a bank. A large campus of the University of California is nearby. All in all, a normal American suburban community—perhaps very much like the one you live or work in. Normal, that is, until Wednesday, February 25, when violence shattered the peaceful calm of Isla Vista.

At about 8:30 p.m. on the night of February 25, rampaging demonstrators—students and non-students—protesting the "capitalist establishment" converged on the community's small business district.

Several protesters rolled a gasoline-soaked trash bin through a smashed front door in a Bank of America branch and set it ablaze. Other students extinguished the fire. But just before midnight, with the angry crowd in a frenzy, the branch was set ablaze again. While police and fire officials were held at bay by a rock-throwing mob, the bank was gutted by fire and totally destroyed. A police patrol car was overturned and burned. Numerous other fires were started. Windows were smashed and life and property threatened.

These events took place in a community called Isla Vista. They could have happened in your community. They can happen anywhere and with even more disastrous results.

Why did the eruption in Isla Vista take place?
Participants in the violence say it was a protest against the "capitalist establishment," "the war in Vietnam," "the Chicago trial," "student repression," "police brutality," and a list of other grievances against America in 1970. Some of these grievances are real, some are fanciful and others are false. But all deserve to be aired. To the degree that they are not aired, are not taken seriously, Americans break faith with their young.

But all Americans, young and old, liberal and conservative, lose by violence. Violence and destruction are the seeds of anarchy and tyranny—whether it be the tyranny of the extreme right or the extreme left.

We believe the time has come for Americans to unite in one cause: a rejection, total and complete, of violence as a means of political dissent.

All of us, young or old, liberal or conservative, have for too long been silent on the issue of violence. We have been afraid of labels or slogans that would brand us as either arch conservatives or traitors to a liberal cause. Such sloganeering does all of us a grave injustice.

Let us, as a nation, find once again our ability to distinguish between protest and revolt; between dissent and chaos; between demonstration and destruction; between non-violence and violence.

Let us cease to condemn those who disagree with us, but let us also be prompt and resolute in putting an end to violence in our land.

To this end we applaud the courageous response of many dedicated public officials. They deserve the cooperation of all citizens. They will have ours.

Every American has a right to walk the streets in safety. No polemic should be allowed to obscure this right. Your wife or husband, son or daughter ought to be safe in visiting a supermarket, a filling station or a bank—regardless of whether another may choose to reject that institution as an onerous symbol.

It is for these reasons that we re-opened our Isla Vista branch on Monday, March 9. We realize that there is danger in this course of action. But we believe the greater danger to ourselves and to all of the people in this nation is to be intimidated by mob violence. We refuse to be so intimidated.

Is the branch worth this much? In monetary terms, the answer is no. It is not, and never has been particularly profitable. But it is there to serve the banking needs of the community and we refuse to be driven out of any community by a violent few.

Is the branch worth this much? In monetary terms, the answer is no. It is not, and never has been particularly profitable. But it is there to serve the banking needs of the community and we refuse to be driven out of any community by a violent few.

Is this a bad business decision? Perhaps in a narrow sense it is. But we believe that at some time and in some place Americans must decide whether they intend to have their decisions, indeed their lives, ruled by a violent minority.

We are but one bank, but we have decided to take our stand in Isla Vista.
