Teach-In was a head carnival

The Tuesday Teach-In was a head carnival — you took your head with you from booth to booth and let it meet other heads. It was good for your head, not your grade point average.

I am very happy with the success of CSCSB’s series of convocations. We have worked together, and we CAN'T STOP NOW. These problems rage on. There remains much to be done for a complex social, cultural, and political structure that is torn. To those who choose not to participate in the teach-ins, I can only quote a poster made by a member of the Strike Committee, which was ripped down by the university people, that says: "Governor Ronnie blesses you all for your duplicity and passiveness in the face of horror."

I am happy and infuriated by the National Guard’s failure to learn from experience. Six young blacks; Sammy McCullough, William Wright, Charles MacMurphy, John Stokes, John Bennett, and Mack Wilson were murdered Monday by the guard in Atlanta, Georgia. They were not "news-worthy." This time SIX people have been murdered by the National Guard. If the pigs are not going to give us the opportunity to see how to propagate a system that is sick, morally degenerate, and strives to maintain its unwashable presence throughout the world.

I am happy that the United Student Communication Fund is being used to bring the students’ fight for Peace and Non-Violence to the people by, the utilization of mass media (i.e., TV, Radio, and newspapers). The news people refuse to cover non-commercial, non-commercial news. They say it is not "news-worthy."

People keep saying, "You must move the 'ulest majority.' You must attack the problem economically. We are going to do that, but we need your help. One minute of time on television costs between $4,500.00 to $7,000.00. We cannot afford to be put down and stomped upon because it struck too close to home: Lester Maddox, illusions guneth of the state of Georgia, gave orders for the guard to SHOOT TO KILL. He had the audacity and stupidity to call the students ‘freaks.’ We must remove the fascist political freaks; Reagan, Maddox, Nixon, and their cronies from powerful positions and start learning how to live with other people IN PEACE!

I am happy with the success of the CSCSB’s series of convocations."

No Responsibility

Because of certain beliefs I hold concerned the subject of newspaper editorial policy and layout, I would like to clarify a statement which appeared on the front cover of last week’s Pauwprint. I am not responsible for the production of the issue. The only responsibility I can rightly claim as well as the only responsibility with which I wish to be associated at this time is that of supervising the layout and making any provisory arrangements necessary for the timely publication of the paper.

I claim responsibility for my photographs as they are and not for the manner in which they may be used.

I make no claim of responsibility or credit for the paper as a whole.

SORRY, ONLY YES VOTES HERE

NEW YORK (UPI) There is a telephone call in Washington that the White House will receive calls from persons wanting to voice approval or disapproval of President Nixon's movement of troops into Cambodia.

UPI New York made four telephone calls in rapid succession this morning. Two were votes favorable to the President. The caller immediately switched to someone who answered "White House."

The other two callers were against the President. They never gave their names or asked to speak to someone in Washington. Here's how the calls went:

(FIRST CALL) UPI: "I would like to register a vote for the President." WHITE HOUSE: "Yes, you certainly can." UPI: "This is the White House, I hope." WHITE HOUSE: "Yes, where do you live?" UPI: "New Jersey." WHITE HOUSE: "All right, thank you very much for your call." (SECOND CALL) UPI: "Listen, are you taking votes?" WHITE HOUSE: "No, I'm not taking votes. Are you taking votes?" UPI: "I'd like to register a vote against the President." WHITE HOUSE: "Your way too early for that." UPI: "You're not taking any votes?" WHITE HOUSE: "We're not any votes and haven't been taking any votes; (THIRD CALL) UPI: "I'd like to register a vote for President Nixon's policy." WHITE HOUSE: "You can have your name, please?" UPI: "James Dobrun, Washington, D.C." WHITE HOUSE: "I'll take a message for you if you want me to. Give it to me." UPI: "I don't want to say too much. I'm just thoroughly in agreement with everything the President has said. WHITE HOUSE: "Okay, James, and we really appreciate that now, and I can tell you that he does appreciate it, too." (FOURTH CALL) UPI: "I understand you are taking votes and I'd like to say against the President and Vice President Agnew, too. End policy. Can I register that, please?" WHITE HOUSE: "You want to vote for or against what has happened?" WHITE HOUSE: "This poll is being taken on the extension of troops into Cambodia, and against any more American troops going anywhere in Southeast Asia. WHITE HOUSE: "Where are you calling from?" UPI: "New York City." WHITE HOUSE: "From New York City, we have headquarters in Washington. It's almost 6:00;"

"Bread, Beans and Things"

The rich Afro-American cultural experience, particularly its music and poetry, will be reflected in the Watts musical "Bread, Beans, and Things." The play will be presented in the Swing Auditorium at the Orange Show Grounds at 8:15 Friday, May 22, 1970.

Caucasian Chalk Circle Presented

"The Caucasian Chalk Circle," Bertolt Brecht's famous play about the parole of the child with two mothers, opened Friday evening, May 15, at California State College, San Bernardino.

Performance will continue on Thrusday through Saturday, May 21-23. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theatre on campus.

Reservations may be made by calling the Drama-Music Office at the College. Ticket sales may be available at the door.

Dr. Ronald E. Barnes, director of the Drama-Music Office, believes Brecht continues to be one of the most influential playwrights in the modern world. "In his plays, the primary contributions was to restore the theater's respect for its audience, and then to use its imagination."

The parable of the child with two mothers and a judge who conceives the test of motherhood appears in Chinese folklore and in the story of Solomon in the Old Testament. Brecht has set his story in a Russian province in the year 945.

Linda Caussemeul, sophomore drama major from Yorupa, appears in the role of Grusha, the "true" mother and Tert Gianoli of Fillmore is the "other" mother. Also a sophomore drama major, is Natica, the natural mother.

Most of the 18 students in the cast has a number of roles. The storyisler is Mary Barnes.

Appearing in the play are: Audrey Brown, Redlands; David Combs, Santa Cruz; Harvey Friedman, Fontana; Juanita Karwarski, Elako; Jerrod Rohde, Crestline; Mike Stapleton, Claremont; Jess Swick, Pomona; David Temple, Petaluma; Weldon Tunnell, Vallejo; and from San Bernardino: Robert Forsbary, Pom Greenhalgh, Linda Houston, Rosella King, Jerry Rohde, and Ron Smith.

Brecht, who died in 1956, wrote "The Caucasian Chalk Circle" in California in the 1940s while in exile from his native Germany. The world premiere was at Carlson College in Minnesota in 1948, the play now has become an established classic of the world repertoire. The Actor's Workshop of San Francisco offered a production in 1963. The play was presented in 1965 at the play at the Tyrone Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis in 1965. Brecht is also known for his "The Threepenny Opera," music by Kurt Weill, which is based on Dickens's social views.

As we have since 1968 and before, we continue to demand the legal and moral withdrawal of all U.S. military forces from Southeast Asia. Because Mr. Nixon's long-priced attack on Cambodia coupled at home with National Guard offices, arrest protesting students and the Department of Justice's attack to execute Bobby Seale, we conclude that the U.S. government, controlled by generals and corporation executives, would order all American students and black militants than stop its predicament in Indochina.

We therefore, call upon all Americans in this time of national crisis to stop cooperating with the U.S. government, its branches and agencies and institutions related to Portland, Oregon will be the scene of a Revolutionary Festival of Life summer, August 28 thru September 3. Music, ecology, and political action will be the main focus of the Festival which is coming at the same time as the National Convention of the American Legion.

Contacts are being made now to bring nationally famous music groups to Portland. From August 28 to September 3, Portland will be a free city with free food, music and housing. To do this we need money now. We are asking for financial contributions from student governments and groups on all the campuses on the West Coast. Money now will either make or break the Festival. "A bortion: Ethical Considerations" will be discussed by a panel of clergymen, professors, and a physician at a public meeting Monday, May 18 at California State College, San Bernardino.

The symposium, sponsored by Zero Population Growth, will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Lecture Hall of the Physical Sciences Building.

Participants will include: Rabbi Hillel Cohen, the Rev. Robert Perry and the Rev. Leo Petit, representing the Jewish, Protestant and Catholic faiths; Dr. Gwen Anser of Riverside, an obstetrician-gynecologist; Dr. Ronald Taylor, assistant professor of biology, and Dr. Paul Johnson, assistant professor of philosophy at the college.

A question and answer period will follow the presentations by the speakers, said Dr. Richard Goodman, a CSSB biologist who is active in Zero Population Growth.

In an effort to clean up the environment, ZPG will charge an admission fee of two empty glass jars or containers or 25 cents, according to Dr. Goodman. All proceeds will be used for ZPG programs.
