MISS STEINMAN NAMED PUBLICATIONS DIRECTOR

Miss Edna Steinman, director of the University of Redlands news bureau the past four years, will become Director of College Publications effective September 1, President John M. Pfau announced.

She will replace James H. McKone, who has been appointed to the new position of Director of College Relations.

A graduate of the University of Missouri, Miss Steinman received a bachelor of journalism degree. She taught photography at the University of Missouri School of Journalism for a year, then became a newspaper reporter in her home state of South Dakota and later for the Albuquerque Journal in New Mexico.

She currently serves as an officer in the American Association of University Women, the Zonta Club of Redlands and the American College Public Relations Association.

Miss Steinman will be in charge of press and radio news and official College publications.
