LOUIS H. HEILBRON
NAMED AS SPEAKER
FOR COMMENCEMENT
Louis H. Heilbron, chairman of the California State Colleges Board of Trustees in 1960-63 and long associated with the University of California at Berkeley, will give the commencement address at CSCSB June 13.

A graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, where he also received his law degree, Heilbron once served as assistant dean of men at his alma mater.

He was a member of the California Coordinating Council for Higher Education for eight years. He also served on the CSC Board of Trustees, before his term expired earlier this year.

Commencement exercises will begin at 8 p.m. Friday, June 13, in the CSCSB Gymnasium.

DR. PICKER NAMED DEAN OF INSTRUCTION
Dr. Robert D. Picker, Associate Professor of Geography at San Francisco State College, has been appointed Dean of Instruction beginning in the fall, President John M. Pfau announced.

Formerly on the faculty of Wisconsin State University and the University of Washington, Dr. Picker received his Ph.D. in geography from the University of Washington. His doctoral dissertation was on "Industrial Development in Central Siberia and Northern Kazakhstan."

He is a member of the Association for the Study of Soviet-type Economies, the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, and several other scholarly and professional organizations.

Dr. and Mrs. Picker have children aged 7, 6 and 4.

HOLIDAY - Friday, May 30, Memorial Day, is an Academic and Administrative Holiday, with the entire College closed.

PAYDAY - The State Disbursing Office states that pay checks will be sent to the College early enough so that they may be distributed on May 29th after 3:00 p.m.
"KEYBOARD INTERPRETATIONS"
TO BE GIVEN BY ARLO HARRIS
IN PIANO-HARPSCICHORD PROGRAM

Dr. Arlo Harris will present a program of "Keyboard Interpretations," an hour of music, Tuesday, May 27.

The chemistry professor will use both piano and harpsichord in his presentation which will range from contemporary Russian to the Beatles' "Yesterday."

Dr. Harris started studying piano at age five and made his debut at age 19 with the Cincinnati Symphony. He has performed on TV, radio, and in person as a professional entertainer.

Dr. Harris' program, during which it is requested that no applause be given, will be held at 11:30 a.m. in PS-10. Everyone is invited.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS
David Combs will study in France, and Mary-Ellen Madril will study in Spain, next academic year as CSCSB's participation in the Cal State International Programs rises to four students. Donald Lannon (Sweden) and Leslie Roberts (France) previously were selected to spend a year abroad.

Edward Sanford (Business Administration) spoke to the students and PTA of the Condit Elementary School in Claremont on "The Promises We Live By," a discussion of money, yesterday.

Leslie Van Marter (Philosophy) served on the Honors Examination Committee last Thursday at the University of Redlands.

"THE KINETIC ART" MAKES FINAL BOW

The final program in "The Kinetic Art," film series, will be screened tonight at 7, free of charge, in PS-10.

Last week the College received the wrong film for the second portion of the series. The third and final film will be shown tonight at 7, an hour earlier than usual, to avoid a conflict with the TGIF dance by the pool starting at 9 p.m.

REMINDEERS . . Deadline noon today to submit material for the May 27 Faculty Senate meeting.

. . The College Chorus Concert scheduled for June 4 has been canceled.

. . Today is the deadline for senior science majors to file application for Hamilton Watch Company award of an electric wrist watch, L-120.

PERSONALS - Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Paynton (Sociology) have adopted a three-month-old son, Scott Thomas Paynton.
"ANTIGONE" TO Sophocles' classic play, "Antigone," a Players of the Pear Garden Spring production, will open at 8:15 tonight in the Little Theatre.

Directed by Ronald Barnes, original score composed by Michael Andrews, and stage settings by Bob Squire, the Greek drama provides the backdrop for the age-old conflict between youth challenging existing society.

Teri Giannotti plays Antigone and Terry Dray, Creon. The cast also includes Rita Furiga, Harvey Friedman, Bob Forshay, Nick Pencoff, Diana Knapp, Mike Stapleton, Marie DeLong and Craig Manley.

Members of the chorus are Mary Barnes, Corinne Schnur, Bill Maddox, David Maxwell, Marilyn Petric, Bunny Shartzer, Debbie Mena-ker, Marlene Maxwell and May Economy.

Michael Brown and Joseph McKee will assist in the musical score presentation.

Tickets are available for all performances in the Humanities Division office and at the box office, $.75 for College personnel and $1.50 for off-campus personnel.

***

FIRST ALL-STAFF GET-TOGETHER SET FOR NEXT THURSDAY The first all-staff get-together will be held next Thursday, May 22. A "Thursday Night Relaxer" will be held at The Mug, 1588 W. Highland Ave., beginning at 4:30 p.m.

All staff members, their spouses and guests are welcome. The Staff Council is sponsoring the staff affair. Arrangements are being made by the Liaison Committee. Staff members and guests may arrive any time between 4:30 and 6:00 p.m.

***

LASER ENERGY EFFECTS TO BE LECTURE TOPIC The biological effects of laser energy will be discussed in a lecture by Dr. Donald E. Rounds, research coordinator at the Pasadena Foundation for Medical Research, Tuesday, May 20. The illustrated talk, sponsored by the Life Sciences Club, will be given in B-101 at 10:30 a.m. and is open to all.

***

CSCSB-AREA MODEL PLANS DISPLAYED The San Bernardino Redevelopment Agency has placed a scale model of planned CSCSB-area redevelopment plans on display in the Library foyer.

ANTIGONE - "I cannot share in hatred but in love."

***

COMBINATION RALLYE-HOOTENANNY-WEINER ROAST TO BE HELD

The Motor Enthusiasts Club is sponsoring a Car Rallye-Hootenanny-Weiher Roast Saturday, May 24. Price is $1.75 per couple and includes entry and food. Rallye will begin in parking lot. Those wishing to participate only in the hootenanny and food can go to the rendezvous directly. The entire College community is invited. A trophy and prize will be awarded.

***

YOUNG FACULTY MEMBERS GRANTS AVAILABLE

Frederick Gardner Cottrell Grants for work in chemistry, physics, mathematics, etc. can be obtained for appropriate scholarly research of young faculty members just beginning or in the early years of their professional careers. For further information, see the Associate Dean of Academic Administration.

***

HARDING-WILLIAMS CORP. BOUGHT BY SAGA CORP.

Saga Administrative Corporation of Menlo Park, California, has purchased the Harding-Williams Corporation of Chicago and its affiliates.

Harding-Williams currently has the contract for food service in the CSCSB Cafeteria. The corporation will become an operating division of the Saga Administrative Corporation and continue to headquarter in Chicago.

***

JOB OPENINGS

Clerical Asst. IIB in Natural Sciences Division. Good typing and shorthand required. Salary $446 - 543. See Personnel office.

***

DIRECTORY CHANGES

Betty Phillips - 353 W. 44th St., Apt. 4
San Bernardino - TU 6-5830

Vivian McEachern - 1678 Hampshire Rd.
San Bernardino 92404

Catherine B. Brown - 1303 Lynwood, Apt. 17
San Bernardino 92404

New extension: Karen Sweeney - 295

Ted C. White - 2025 Adams St.
San Bernardino 92405 - TU 7-4444

Promotions: Sandra McDole from Cler. Asst. IIA, Library, to Cler. Asst. IIB, Social Sciences Division.

Transfers: Corinne Schnur from Natural Sciences to Publications.

No Longer with College: Wilmer D. Carter

New Titles: H. Stephen Prouty, Jr. - Associate Dean, Admissions and Records

Doyle J. Stansel - Associate Dean, Placement & Financial Aid