NEW CATALOG ARRIVES, IS BEING DISTRIBUTED

The 1969-70 CSCSB Catalog arrived from the State Printer this week and is being distributed. Each faculty member will receive a copy.

Due to heavy demand for the Catalog, a copy will be given to non-faculty staff employees only if they request one.

Offices or individuals with special Catalog needs should contact College Relations. Persons who want extra copies for personal use may buy them at the Bookstore for $1.05. Students must buy their copies, according to Trustee regulations.

The new Catalog was published under the direction of Dr. Gerald M. Scherba, Vice President for Academic Affairs, and represents the efforts of many people. Mrs. Phyllis Stroud, Faculty Personnel Clerk, compiled the academic materials.

Miss Edna Steinman, Director of College Publications, edited and designed the new format and took many of the photographs.

PAYDAY WILL BE THURSDAY, MAY 29, AFTER 3 P.M.
PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Lucas Lawrence (Audio-Visual) summarized his early work on experimental laser engines in an article of the same title in the June issue of Electronics World.

Fernando Penalosa (Sociology) spoke to representatives from Southern California communities and organizations at a seminar on Mexican-American education sponsored by UMAS and MAPA at Barstow College last Saturday.

Patti Smith, graduating senior, was named Senior Woman of the Year by Theta Psi Omega, women's service organization. Selected on the basis of service and scholarship, Miss Smith is the third person so honored. Nominations are made by faculty members and voted on by Theta Psi Omega members. Miss Smith will receive a trophy and have her name placed on a plaque located in the Library Foyer.
