The College's third annual commencement, and first to be held indoors, will begin at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the CSCSB Gym.

Some 122 degree candidates, out of 185 eligible to march, will participate in the ceremony. The 185 total includes Fall and Winter graduates, as well as Spring and Summer candidates.

"There Once Was a College at Camelot," the commencement address, will be given by Louis H. Heilbron, former chairman of the California State Colleges Board of Trustees.

All faculty who plan to march in the ceremony have been asked to report in academic regalia to the faculty marshals in the pool area, no later than 7:30 p.m. Room PE-129 can be used by faculty as a robing room. The faculty marshals are Drs. Ronald Barnes, James Crum and Russell DeRemer.

All College personnel and their families are welcome to attend the commencement exercises. No tickets are required. Everyone is also welcome at the reception in the Little Gym, following the ceremony.

Spring quarter grades are due in the Admissions and Records office from faculty members no later than 9 a.m. Monday, June 16.

At its last meeting of the academic year held Tuesday afternoon, the CSCSB Faculty Senate voted unanimously to establish a program of ethnic studies courses.

Pending approval by President Pfau, the program, which is planned to include several black studies and Mexican-American studies courses in 1969-70, will be enlarged as faculty and facilities are made available.

Registration for Summer Session will take place this year in the Gymnasium on June 23. To date 634 students have pre-registered for the College's third Summer Session.

Those who have pre-registered will pay their fees from 8 a.m. until noon. Those not pre-registered may register from 1 to 4 p.m.
ROBERT GREENFIELD
TO RECEIVE DEGREE IN WHEELCHAIR AT UCLA

Robert J. Greenfield, Assistant Professor of Sociology, will receive his Ph.D. in sociology this month at UCLA's commencement ceremonies.

Since he is recuperating from a serious illness, he will receive the degree in a wheelchair.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Jim Arabatzis (Bookstore) recently received a diploma on college store management, awarded by the National Association of College Stores. He attended the seminars the last three summers at Stanford University to complete the association's requirements. President Pfau presented the diploma.

Fred Cordova (Physical Plant) has been elected assistant regional director of the California State Employees Association for Region XII. Incomplete returns show that he defeated Irene Lovewell of Cal Poly Pomona.

Leroy Hansberger (Advisory Board) has been elected president of the San Bernardino County Economic Development Commission.

President John M. Pfau has been elected president of San Bernardino Symphony Association for a third term.

"WAR" PROVES SO POPULAR IT'S HELD OVER

"War," produced by William L. Slout's class in advanced drama, has proved so popular on campus that two public showings have been planned during the summer session.

The mixed media show, which features sound, light, readings and slides, will be staged in the Little Theater at 1:30 and 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday, June 25. Everyone is invited.

Each of the five participants gives his individual views on war. They are Theresa Browne, Terry Dray, Bob Forshay, Kevin Riddell and Mike Stapleton.

"BULLETIN" OUT EARLY THIS WEEK

The Bulletin is being distributed on Thursday this week, instead of Friday, due to commencement tomorrow night.

During the summer, the Bulletin will not be published every week, but only as often as the amount of news warrants.
