DR. FRED ROACH NAMED CONTINUING EDUCATION DEAN

Appointment of the College's first Dean of Continuing Education has been announced by President John M. Pfau.

Dr. Fred Roach, presently Assistant Professor of Political Science and Journalism at Claremont Men's College, will join the CSCSB administrative staff next September. As Dean of Continuing Education, Dr. Roach's duties will include responsibility for development and operation of the College's summer session, extension program and extended day program.

After graduating from State University of Iowa with a B.A. in Economics, Dr. Roach served as a newspaper editor and publisher in Iowa. After a 13-year career as a newspaperman, he entered Claremont Graduate School, where he received his Ph.D. in Government, with honors, in 1965.

Dr. Roach and his wife presently live in Claremont. They plan on moving to San Bernardino some time in August. The Roaches have four children, ages 15, 12, 3 and 1.
