WINTER AND SPRING EXAM SCHEDULES
OMIT 3 P.M. CLASSES

Winter and Spring Term Class Schedules for 1970 do not reflect the Final Examination Schedule for 3 p.m. classes:

Final Examination Schedule

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Winter Term:</th>
<th>Classes Meeting</th>
<th>Exam Day</th>
<th>Exam Hour</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3 p.m.</td>
<td>3 p.m.</td>
<td>Thursday, March 19</td>
<td>3:15 - 5:15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spring Term:</td>
<td>3 p.m.</td>
<td>Wednesday, June 10</td>
<td>3:15 - 5:15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

HOLIDAY CHANGES

FEBRUARY 12 HOLIDAY CHANGED TO FRIDAY, JUNE 19:
The College worked yesterday, February 12, Lincoln's Birthday. An in-lieu-of-holiday was previously designated as March 27 and is listed as an Administrative Holiday in the College Catalog for 1969-70. However, because state employees normally are entitled to three hours off on the afternoon of Good Friday (which falls on March 27), the holiday will be taken on Friday, June 19.

FEBRUARY 23 HOLIDAY TO BE TAKEN JULY 3:
Washington's Birthday, February 22, falls on a Sunday this year and would normally be observed the following Monday, February 23. However, February 23 will be a regular work and class day for the College, with an in-lieu-of holiday to be observed on July 3.

1970 SUMMER SESSION

Student Rates Raised - The State College Board of Trustees at its January 28 meeting, took action to increase student fees for summer sessions, effective with the beginning of the 1970 Summer Session, to $24 (from $22.50) per summer semester unit and $16 (from $15) per summer quarter unit.

Summer Class Schedules May Be Consulted - Completed and approved class schedules for the 1970 Summer Session are now available and may be consulted for student advisement or other purposes in the division offices and Office of Continuing Education. They will be available for general distribution only as part of the Summer Session Catalog, scheduled for delivery about April 1.
STAFF COUNCIL
SEEKS CHANGES IN CONSTITUTION

A vote will be taken among staff members next week which proposes a date change in staff elections so that they will not conflict with vacations. Proposed date will permit the Staff Elections to be completed by June 1.

Ballots to change the election date will be distributed next Monday, February 16, and should be returned on Wednesday, February 18.

***

LA TIMES SCIENCE EDITOR TO SPEAK ON CAMPUS TUES.
Dr. Irving S. Bengelsdorf, for the past seven years science editor of the Los Angeles Times, will be on campus next Tuesday, February 17, to deliver a lecture.

"Spaceship Earth: Population, Poverty and Pollution" is the theme given by Dr. Bengelsdorf for his lecture, scheduled for 11 a.m. in PS-10.

Dr. Bengelsdorf has served both as a research chemist and as a university instructor in his field; he is the recipient of nine awards for science writing, awarded by medical, scientific and journalistic organizations. Admission free; public welcome.

An informal coffee reception will be held, beginning at 2 p.m. as a continuation of the lecture, on a personal basis in B-129 for anyone who wishes to attend.

MECHA SPONSORS FOOD, CLOTHING DRIVE FOR UFW
Members of MECHA, student organization, are conducting a drive to assist migrant farm workers of Coachella, who have need of food, money and clothes. Checks may be made out to United Farm Workers of Coachella and mailed to UFWOC, 722 Vine St., Coachella 92236 or given to Socorro Gomez or Sergio Elizondo, A-168.

***

NEW ART SHOW OPENS
A new art exhibit opens today in PS-22. With an emphasis on paintings, works will range from naturalistic to abstract. Students whose work is being shown are mainly from Professor William Haney's art class,

New gallery hours will be from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

***

VALENTINE-DAY ROYALTY TO BE CROWNED TOMORROW
The Valentine's Day Dance, to be held tomorrow night at 8:30 in the Little Gym, will be highlighted by the crowning of a king and queen, to be chosen by the student body from candidates who have been nominated by the clubs and classes on campus. Pennies are being used to cast the votes.
"SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY" The secret lives of small-town midwesterners will unfold on stage when "Spoon River Anthology" opens at 8:15 in the Little Theater.

Eight students take on 70 roles in the play, which is described as a "collage of life" by Director Amanda Rudisill.

Written by Edgar Lee Masters, American poet, the turn-of-the-century play is the Winter production of the Players of the Pear Garden. Original music by Mike Stapleton, student, is featured.

Tickets are on sale in C-102, Music/Drama office, and will be available at the door. Prices are $.75 for students, faculty and staff and $1.50 for others.

Performances are scheduled for February 20-21 and the following weekend, February 26, 27 and 28.

JUNIORS ARE NEXT Pre-registration for the Spring Quarter will continue next Wednesday, February 18, when Juniors pick up their registration packets at the Admissions and Records office counter.

Seniors who picked up their packets last Wednesday must return their completed packets and check for the correct fee payment to the Admissions counter on Monday, February 16 or Tuesday, February 17. No pre-registration for Seniors will be processed on any other days. Registration for students who did not pre-register is March 30.

BLOOD DRIVE A blood drive to obtain donations for all CSCSB students, faculty and staff and their immediate families will take place Thursday, February 19.

The fund will directly benefit the entire CSCSB community and assures that blood will be available when it is needed.

Sponsored by Theta Psi Omega, the San Bernardino and Riverside counties Bloodmobile will be on campus from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in PE-129. A taxi service from the front of the B-Building and the mall of the Administration Building will be available to shuttle donors to the PE Building and back.

Sign-up tables will be available throughout campus as well as the Health Center.

Donations will assure a supply of blood, free of charge, anywhere in the United States when needed. Present cost is $40 per pint.
REMINDEERS . . . The Personnel office would like to remind employees who have moved, have a change of phone number or name, to please notify the Personnel office. The Health Center should also be notified of any change in doctor or doctor's phone or address.

. . . The Outdoors Club pack-in to Dry Lake in the San Gorgonio wilderness area will leave at 6 a.m. and 7 a.m. from the Market Basket, 40th and Sierra Way. Bring pack with food for two days, sleeping bag and warm clothes.

. . . An AAUP meeting is scheduled for Monday, February 16, B-129, Natural Science Conference Room, 3 p.m.

. . . Officials of the California Institution for Women were very gratified at the response of the CSCSB community to their request for magazines. Nearly an auto trunkful have been donated so far. More magazines are solicited; they can be left at A-137, without address labels.

. . . Friday Film tonight is "The Cube," an experimental film depicting a behavioral study in human ecology. PS-10, 8 p.m. Free.

. . . Faculty Senate Meeting, PS-122, 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, February 17.

***

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS Frederick Damaske (Political Science) spoke to a group of seniors at Eisenhower High School last Friday on "Interviewing, Surveys and Participant Observation As Research Methods."

Margaret Summers (Library) was awarded an Honorary Life Membership in the P.T.A. from the Kendall Elementary School last Tuesday.

***

PERSONALS The College extends its best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. John Cavataio who were married last month. Mrs. Cavataio is the former Pat Broderick of Natural Sciences.

***

SHAMELESS LOVE A Shameless Love Poetry Reading observing Valentine's Day will be given at high noon today in PS-202.

***

Clerical Asst. IIB in Social Science Division, available March 2. Shorthand and good typing required. Experience necessary. Salary $469 - $571.
COLLEGE ADMINISTRATIVE POSITIONS AVAILABLE

The following administrative positions are available. Further details may be obtained from the Faculty Senate bulletin board (A-180).

Fresno State College - Director of Financial Aids, 12 mo., $13,644-$17,424; applications accepted immediately.

Director of Institutional Studies, 12 mo., $19,407-$23,604; start July 1, 1970.

Systems Analyst, $884-1,074.

Computer Programmer, $884-$1,074.

Cal State, Hayward - Vice President, Administration, salary $21,936-$26,676, depending on qualifications and experience; appointment, 12-mo. annual periods.

Dean of Academic Planning, salary $19,407-$23,604, depending on qualifications and experience; appointment, 12-mo.

***

FACULTY INVITED TO SUBMIT PROPOSALS ON EXTENSION COURSES FOR SPRING QUARTER

The Office of Continuing Education invites faculty members to submit proposals on extension courses which they would like to offer during the Spring Quarter. Forms are available in the Office of Continuing Education and should be returned no later than February 20.

***

DISNEYLAND AND UNIVERSAL OFFER REDUCED RATE

Public Employees Night at Disneyland will enable CSCSB employees to enjoy the amusement park on Friday, March 20, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Admission, parking, dancing and unlimited use of all facilities are included in the $3.95 per person fee (children under three, free). For tickets, see Sharon Ward, Purchasing Dept., or call Ext. 301.

Universal Studios offer Public Employees Month during February and Educators Month during March. Tickets: $3.00, adults; $2.20, juniors; $1.40, children. Discount certificates are available in the College Relations office, A-149, Ext. 418.

***

NSF PROJECT PROPOSALS DUE MONDAY, FEB. 16

Natural and Social Sciences faculty are reminded that proposals of projects to be funded under the National Science Foundation institutional grant to the College are due in the Office of Continuing Education on Monday, February 16. The $10,495 grant may be used to support either new or continuing research or instructional programs in most science fields.