GOVERNOR NAMES TWO
STATE COLLEGE TRUSTEES
Governor Ronald Reagan recently named
Robert A. Hornby of Los Angeles and Phillip
V. Sanchez of Fresno to eight-year terms as trustees of the California State Colleges.

Hornby, 69, retired president of Pacific Lighting Corporation and member of the California Coordinating Council for Higher Education, succeeds James F. Thacher of San Francisco, whose term has expired.

Sanchez, 40, Fresno County administrator and member of the Board of Governors of California Community Colleges, is the first graduate of the California state college system to serve as trustee.
He is a Fresno State alumnus and succeeds Earle M. Jorgensen of West Los Angeles who has retired.

NEWCOMERS AND OTHERS TO TAKE
All College personnel are invited to participate in a guided tour of the campus next week, Thursday, 10:30 a.m. The College Relations office is distributing forms to determine the number of persons interested in the tour, which should be of special interest to newcomers to the College. Many "old timers" have not yet seen many of the buildings and facilities.

The tour, jointly sponsored by the Staff Council and College Relations office, will last approximately one hour and will leave from the Administration Building Lobby.

CSC "NEW SCHOLAR"  Articles for The New Scholar: A Journal of Gradu-ARTICLES SOLICITED ate Studies in the Social Sciences may be sent to James Nutsch, local campus representative.

Both academic and commentary articles are acceptable for consideration. Commentary articles are defined as those relating to the general interests of graduate and undergraduate education in the California state colleges - comparative articles proposing solutions to problem areas are especially encouraged. Book reviews are also included in the journal, as well as a section of "News and Notes," which should be of interest to more than one campus.

Undergraduate as well as graduate students of the state colleges may submit articles for consideration. Academic articles should
"NEW SCHOLAR" (continued) first be screened by a local faculty member in the appropriate discipline before being submitted to the local campus representative. "Social Sciences" is very loosely interpreted and includes many disciplines usually considered in the Humanities.

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT Cal-West Life Insurance: Additions, cancellations, and changes for California-Western States Life Insurance for the February pay period were not processed in time for the Master Payroll cut-off date. Any employee adding, changing or canceling Cal-West life insurance during February is invited to inquire at the Personnel office if he has questions regarding this.

Notice to Attendance Clerks: Docks for employees who have been absent without time to cover the absence should be in the Personnel office no later than noon today.

CAMPUS POLICE CAPTURE ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECT Mickey Carns, Campus Police, is credited with capturing a fleeing, armed robbery suspect after a high-speed chase on Kendall Blvd.

The suspect, later charged with two counts of armed robbery, was apprehended by Sgt. Carns around 1 a.m. last Sunday. A Police broadcast alerted Sgt. Carns and Officer Charles Byrd that the suspect and companion were headed toward the College vicinity on a motorcycle. Carns and Byrd set up surveillance at nearby intersections.

The motorcycle passed Carns who went in pursuit. Following a 70-mile-an-hour chase, resulting in the motorcycle’s upset, one suspect, a .22 automatic nearby, was apprehended by Carns. The other suspect was taken in police custody a few days later.
