Next Monday 105 students who will enter the College this fall under the Educational Opportunity Program will begin their orientation process, which will continue until September 7.

The orientation will include special daily classes in math and English as well as additional classes in political science, sociology, natural science, etc., instructed by CSCSB professors.

The first day's activities will include a welcome from President John M. Pfau and Lawrence Johnson and George Meneses of the E.O.P. office. Kenneth Washington, special assistant to the Chancellor on E.O.P. matters of the California State Colleges, will also speak to the students.

On the same day they will take a guided tour of the campus and lunch with 200 visitors from the community.

NEW ACTIVITIES ADVISOR NAMED

Miss Kate Wilson has been appointed to the position of Activities Advisor in the Activities and Housing office, effective September 1, President Pfau announced.

Miss Wilson will work primarily in the area of lectures and public affairs in coordinating arrangements for on-campus events, programs, etc.

Until recently Miss Wilson served as residence hall director and advisor at George Washington University in Washington, D.C., while earning her M.A. in Student Personnel work. She was also engaged in a project to establish and carry out programs through the university for the disadvantaged youths of the city.

A graduate of American University in Washington, D.C., she has a B.A. in Political Science.

Miss Wilson will work under the direction of Associate Dean of Activities and Housing, Russell DeRemer.

PAYDAY WILL BE MONDAY, AUGUST 31, AFTER 3 P.M.
DAVID RANDOLPH, STUDENT AND FORMER EMPLOYEE DROWNS IN ACCIDENT

David L. Randolph, an employee of the College for three years and more recently Coordinator of the Tutorial Program in the E.O.P. office, was drowned last Sunday at Lake Elsinore while on a fishing excursion.

Mr. Randolph first came to the College December 1, 1966, as a technical assistant in the Natural Sciences Division where he remained until September, 1969, when he resigned to become a full-time senior sociology student. He was also a member of the Ethnic Studies Committee.

Mr. Randolph, 31, is survived by his wife, Alta, and four children. Funeral services will be held in Waco, Texas.

The College extends its sympathy to Mr. Randolph's family. * * *

VAN DERWALKER RECEIVES PH.D.

Jess E. Van Derwalker, Assistant Professor of Economics, has received word that he has completed all requirements for the degree of Ph.D. in the Department of Economics of the University of North Carolina. The degree will be awarded August 27, 1970.

The Science Parking Lot will be closed all of next week, Monday through the weekend, for leveling and re-oiling.

The 1970-71 Speakers Bureau Brochure was received from the printer this week. The brochure lists 40 speakers and 104 speeches.

Copies are available in the College Relations office. College personnel who know of organizations interested in securing speakers should give the organization's name to the College Relations office.

* * *

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Edward Carlson (Business Administration) presented his research experiences in the area of employment programs for the disadvantaged at the 14th Annual Southern California Industry-Education Conference, Lake Arrowhead, earlier this month. He included in his report work done on campus for Operation Second Chance students.

Mr. Carlson also participated in the Claremont Graduate School-Department of Labor Institute, serving on a panel to answer questions relating to the preview showing of a film on hard core unemployment.

Leo Kreter (Assoc. Prof. of Music, CSCSB, for 3 years) currently Chairman of the Department of Music, Cal State, Fullerton, has been named director of music at First United Methodist Church of Fullerton.
PEOPLE - (Cont'd) Vernon Leviege (Sociology) spoke on "Hollistic Approach (Bio-Psycho-Socio) of the Black Man in America" and "Blackology" at the Institute for Afro-American Studies held this week at the University of Iowa.

INITIAL ART FACILITY Now Under Construction

Physical Plant craftsmen are currently constructing the College's Initial Art Facility.

Located at the south side of the Cafeteria Building, the 33x80-foot concrete block building will house labs for ceramics, wood sculpture and metal working. A kiln will be located adjacent to the building.

The $20,000 project is expected to be completed some time in November. Work will be temporarily halted due to other commitments of the building trades workmen necessitated by the opening of the Fall Term.

FINAL SUMMER CLASSES END

Final Post-Session classes and exams are being held today.

Figures have been received from the Registrar on this year's Summer Session enrollment:

Of the 787 students who registered, 355 were returning CSCSB students and 432 were new or previous Summer School students. Undergraduates totaled 467 and graduates, 320. The total enrollment showed a gain of approximately 19% over last year.

STUDENT HANDBOOK DUE NEXT WEEK

The 1970-71 Student Handbook will be ready for distribution next Wednesday. The 64-page booklet was compiled by Theron Pace, Housing Coordinator, and printed in the College Duplicating Center.

REMINDERS . . . There will be no Bulletin next week. Next issue will be Friday, September 4.

SEPTEMBER 10 IS VOTER REGISTRATION DEADLINE: REGISTRAR ON CAMPUS

College personnel who wish to be eligible to vote in the November 3 General Election may register from September 1 through 10 at the Personnel Office, A-109. Mrs. Gloria Darling will conduct voter registration.

Resident requirements: 1 year in State; 90 days in County; 54 days in Precinct. If voters move before Sept. 10 they must be registered at new address. After Sept. 10 voters may return to the precinct where they previously registered. Absentee ballots may be applied for from October 5-27.

PERSONALS - The sympathy of the College is extended to the family of Doreen A. Brown. Mrs. Brown, sociology junior, was killed in an automobile accident last Friday in Colton. She is survived by her husband, Stan, two children and her mother.
FRESNO STATE

The following positions are available at Fresno State:

HAS OPENINGS

Academic Vice President, $23,040-28,008; deadline for applying, November 15, 1970.

Dean of Educational Services and Summer Sessions, $20,388 - $24,792; application deadline, November 30, 1970.

* * *

CSCSB EMPLOYMENT

Technical Assistant II in the Language Laboratory. Proficiency in French and Spanish required. B.A. preferred; available September 1; salary: $556-676.

Clerical Assistant IIA in Admissions office. Good typing and one year general office experience required; available September 1; salary: $457-556.

Clerical Assistant IIB in Records office. Good typing and shorthand and one year's office experience required. Available September 1; salary: $492 - 599.

For information on the above positions, please contact the Personnel office.