Winter Term classes began last Wednesday for 2,348 students. The student enrollment was computed at the end of the two-day scheduled registration and represents a full-time-equivalent student population of 2,106. The Office of Admissions and Records will continue to register students through January 11, the last day to add classes.

Barbara Duncan, Robert Grove

Two assistant psychology professors have recently completed requirements for the degree of Ph.D. in psychology. Robert Grove was awarded his doctoral degree from the University of Minnesota, effective December 15. His dissertation was on "The Effects of Insulin on Food-Reinforced Operant Behavior."

Barbara Duncan has fulfilled all requirements to receive her Ph.D. in psychology at the University of California, San Diego, effective this month. "Some Effects of Inter-reinforcement Time Upon Choice" was the subject of her dissertation.

"SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE,

Over 50 courses covering a wide range of topics and interests, offered in more than 15 communities in the counties of San Bernardino and Riverside, are now available through the CSCSB Extension Program. The offerings ("Something for Everyone") are designed to meet the special needs of teachers, business and professional people, degree-oriented students and individuals seeking personal enrichment, according to Dean of Continuing Education, Fred Roach.

Courses are offered on both quarter and semester bases, from mid-January through the end of May and are open to anyone 18 years and older or who has a high school diploma. Formal admission to the College is not required.

The Library currently is displaying a collection of books, music and photographs on the Polish composer, Frederic Chopin. The items concerning the great pianist are located on the fourth floor near the listening facilities area.
A program of piano music will be presented by Arthur Wenk on campus next Sunday evening, January 16, 8:15. For the recital, his third since coming to CSCSB, Dr. Wenk will play three rondos by Bartok, a Beethoven sonata, Debussy's "Images" and a Chopin ballade.

The public is invited to the recital, which will be held in PS-10.

Dr. Wenk is director of the College Chorus, Madrigal Singers and Choral Society.

GOOD NEWS SINGERS PRESENT "SHOW ME" NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT The Good News Singers, a group of college students and young professionals, will present a semi-rock, Christian-oriented musical, "Show Me," Friday evening, January 14 on campus.

The program, open to the public without charge, as well as the campus community, will begin at 8 p.m. in PS-10, sponsored by the Christian Life Club. Refreshments will be served after the concert.

The group's music is folk-style gospel and also features traditional songs. The singers have toured throughout Southern California, the western United States and Canada. The 35 singers are from the Bethany Church of Alhambra and are accompanied by rhythm and brass background.
THE NEWSBANK URBAN AFFAIRS LIBRARY AVAILABLE AT U OF R

The Newsbank Urban Affairs Library, now available at the Armacost Library, University of Redlands, is a comprehensive information source on current urban problems in the United States. This reference service is updated monthly and should be of interest to persons needing material on social, economic and political issues. Faculty and students from CSCSB may borrow books from Armacost Library by showing their campus I.D. card.
