LIVES OF GOVERNESS, LIEUTENANT, CONSUL MESH IN PLOT OF PLAY

A young governess, a foreign consul and a naval lieutenant, involved in a tangled labyrinth of love affairs and selfishness, develop their own version of the events in their lives in Pirandello's play, "To Clothe the Naked."

Set in the 20's, the play, one of the first to reveal comedy within human tragedy, tells of the rationalization and distortion of facts that people resort to in order to live with their consciences. Pirandello unravels the relationship between "truth" and "lie."

A Winter Quarter production of the Players of the Pear Garden, the play opens next weekend, Friday, February 19. It will continue (Continued on Page 3)
SOCIAL CONCERN, SUBJECT OF "BLACK, WHITE, & MRS. GREEN"

"Black, White and Mrs. Green," the story of some church members who thought they were without prejudice until faced with a new situation, will be brought to the CSCSB campus next Tuesday at 2 p.m. in Phys Sci-10. The Interactors of San Bernardino have developed and acted in the socio-drama, and will present the program which is followed by a discussion by the cast and the audience.

Admission is free. The public is invited.
