S.B. COUNTY SHERIFF’S DEPARTMENT
DEPUTY CHIEF SHEREE STEWART NAMED
31ST SENATE DISTRICT 2007 WOMAN OF
THE YEAR

San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department Deputy Chief Sheree Stewart was named 2007 Woman of the Year by Senator Bob Dutton (R-Rancho Cucamonga) in Sacramento on March 5. Photo courtesy of Senator Dutton’s Office

SACRAMENTO - Sheree Stewart has accomplished many firsts in her 25 years as a member of the San Bernardino County Sheriff’s Department.

For her dedication to duty and her many accomplishments for over two decades Deputy Chief Stewart was honored by Sen. Bob Dutton’s (R-Rancho Cucamonga) as 2007 Woman of the Year.

Deputy Chief Stewart received her honor from Senator Dutton and Senate Pro Tem Don Perata during a ceremony on the floor of the California State Senate on March 5.

“I can’t think of a person more deserving of this honor than Deputy Chief Stewart,” Senator Dutton said.

“Deputy Chief Stewart is not only an outstanding member of the San Bernardino Sheriff’s Department, but she’s also dedicated to the community where she lives and a wonderful mother and wife. The 31st Senate District is a safer and more enriched community because of Deputy Chief Stewart.”

Since joining the San Bernardino Sheriff’s Department in 1981, Deputy Chief Stewart has risen steadily through the ranks including becoming the first female captain in the department’s history as well as the department’s first deputy chief. She was also the Chief of Police for the City of Highland, in a contractual agreement with the San Bernardino Sheriff’s Department for law enforcement services, for six years prior to her promotion to Deputy Chief.

In her current position, she is responsible for Region 1 Operations for the San Bernardino Sheriff’s Department and oversees eight patrol stations.

Congressman Joe Baca will host a Women’s Forum co-hosted with the Fontana Women’s Club on Friday, March 30, 2007 at 16880 Seville Avenue in Fontana, from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

The event will feature a panel discussion on women’s health, financial security, career advancement, mentoring and leadership opportunities; a tribute to Alice Paul, suffragist leader who wrote the Equal Rights Amendment in 1923, and her efforts as a pioneer for women’s suffrage, and legislation Congressman Baca has introduced on her behalf; and a short film will be shown.

Dr. Kimberly Salter, president of the California National Organization of Women (NOW), is keynote speaker. Dr. Salter will present an update of the current status of women in the United States and California.

The event is cost free and open to the public. To RSVP or further information for the event, call Jennifer Rustigan at (909) 885-2222.

CHAVEZ ANNUAL BREAKFAST
COMMEMORATES LIFE OF CESAR
Actor Ed Begley Jr. to speak at Cesar Chavez event

The Redlands Human Relations Commission and representatives of local community organization are sponsoring the annual Cesar Chavez Commemorative Breakfast Friday, March 30.

Movie and television actor Ed Begley Jr. will be the keynote speaker. Begley worked with Chavez on issues involving use of pesticides and later became involved in labor and social justice issues and joined Cesar and the United Farm Workers in their fight to unionize farm workers who were being exploited by growers, underpaid and forced to live in substandard, deplorable conditions.

When Chavez died in 1993, Begley helped carry his casket through the streets of Delano in California’s Central Valley. This experience inspired Begley to write and produce the critically acclaimed “Cesar and Ruben,” about the life of Cesar Chavez. The play opened at the El Portal Theater on March 14, 2003 and won a Nosotros Award and five Valley Theater Awards the following year.

Cesar Estrada Chavez was born March 31, 1927 near Yuma, Ariz., and died on April 13, 1993, in San Luis, a small village also near Yuma. When his father lost his farm, 10-year-old Cesar followed the tough migrant trail across America, helping harvest the crops as they ripened. He learned firsthand about the low wages, poor schools and substandard housing at the labor camps. Chavez wanted to fight this exploitation and unionize the farm workers. He organized strikes, picket lines, marches and economic boycotts against the powerful growers. He mobilized support across the country to reach his goal of a better life for the farm workers of America.

“I never knew Doctor King or Mahatma Gandhi, but I knew Cesar and he was a man of that ilk,” said Begley.

The breakfast will be held at American Legion Post 650, 1532 N. Church St. Breakfast tickets are $5 and may be purchased from Human Relations Commission members, event committee members, and the Redlands Police Department, 212 Brookside Ave. (please ask for Irene Romero or call her at 909-798-7618).

Funds raised from the event will be used to award scholarships to high school students in the Redlands Unified School District.

Chairperson Alex Contreras, Vice president of Student Services at Crafton Hills College, invites the public to this event which honors the legacy of Cesar Chavez.

NOTE: Please contact Anthony Bocanegra, Member, Redlands Human Relations Commission at 909-884-3228 office or e-mail at mexicanasymphony@msn.com if you desire further information or require Mr. Begley’s photo.

Dr. David Long, Riverside County Superintendent of Schools, celebrated the academic achievement of Riverside County schools March 7 in his annual “Education Briefing.”

The event at the Riverside County Office of Education was attended by more than 175 schoolteachers, principals, students, and administrators from districts around the county. In addition, local legislative leaders and community members were on hand to hear how Riverside County schools continue to grow in enrollment and test scores are also on the rise.

There were 307,055 students in the county eight years ago when he took office and 404,331 now, a 31 percent increase, Long said. Hispanic students were 44 percent in 1999, up to 54 percent up to 8 percent, and Anglos 43 percent compared to 31 percent. The county grows by 44 students each day, and could fill 14 new schools a year.

Riverside County's population passed the 2 million mark in 2006, up from 1.5 million in 1999. While Riverside County continues to be one of the fastest growing large counties in the state (and country), 80 percent of the other counties in the state are experiencing declining or flat enrollments. Riverside County is now presenting different challenges for legislators than other declining counties, Long said.

Long highlighted schools and districts that have shown significant gains measured by the Academic Performance Index, including top five scoring districts last year were:

- Elsinore Unified (+22), Hemet Unified School District.
- National American Star of Teaching Award, Aimee Garcia, Victoriano Elementary School, Victorville Unified School District.
- National Distinguished Schools (nominees), James Day Middle School, Temecula Valley Unified School District.
- All-County Academic Team Captains Nicolas Altemose, Chaparral High School, Presidential Valley Unified School District, and Antony Jan, Beaumont High School, Beaumont Unified School District (both scoring perfect 2400 scores on their college SAT’s).

CONGRESSIONAL HISPANIC CAUCUS CRITICIZES U.S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
By Heidi Gruggink
WASHINGTON - Hispanic House members, who have been embroiled in a controversy over the future of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus (CHC) for much of this year, directed their anger yesterday at a new target: the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. "I care deeply about businesses like the U.S. Hispanic Chamber," Rep. Joe Baca (D-CA.) said to a packed briefing yesterday in the Rayburn House Office Building. "They create jobs, they create value."

No other business or ethnic group has been targeted, said a member of the CHC, attributed the trademark challenge to the U.S. Chamber's fear of Hispanic businesses. "I say to the U.S. Chamber of Congress: Thank you very much for publicizing the strength and value of the Hispanic chamber," Becerra said. "You've a victim of your own success."

Baca, the chairman of the CHC, spoke on behalf of the United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, which filed a trademark application to protect its logos and trademarks in 2001. In 2002, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce filed an objection to the trademark application, claiming that the Hispanic chamber's application creates "confusion" in the marketplace. "This can only mean one thing," Hispanic chamber Chairman David Lizarraga said. "The U.S. Chamber of Commerce intends to launch a target against Hispanic businesses."

No other business or ethnic group using the words "Chamber of Commerce" has been targeted, said Frank Lopez, president and CEO of the Hispanic chamber. Rep. Xavier Becerra (D-CA.), also a member of the CHC, attributed the trademark challenge to the U.S. Chamber's fear of Hispanic businesses. "I say to the U.S. Chamber of Congress: Thank you very much for publicizing the strength and value of the Hispanic chamber," Becerra said. "You've a victim of your own success."

Resident Commissioner Luis Fortuño (R-Puerto Rico) agreed. "Almost 2 million businesses in the United States are owned by Hispanics," he said. "The only way to get ahead is to work hard, and that's what the U.S. Hispanic chamber stands for."

Becerra issued a challenge to Thomas Donohue, the president of the U.S. Chamber, which was met with rousing applause. "Thank you, Tom. Thank you, U.S. Chamber of Commerce," he said. "Because if you think you can make this a fight, you haven't seen all the soldiers we have."

Steven Law, general counsel and chief legal officer of the U.S. Chamber, seemed mystified by the very public battle being waged by the Hispanic chamber. "We've tried to reach a mutually beneficial agreement for some time now," he said. "All we're saying is they can't register the name. Call them up and tell them we'll settle this now for $1."

RIVERSIDE LANET 10TH ANNUAL CELEBRACIÓN DE LA MUJER

As co-chair of MECHA at Riverside City College, Ms. Vega has been involved in numerous events and organizations that target the Latino community. Her efforts have included promotion of equity in higher education, food and toy drives for the less fortunate, leadership development experiences, and various community forums. Ms. Vega is a graduate of the Latino Leadership Institute and has eagerly embraced her role of providing leadership and as a role model for her fellow peers.

Lisa Munoz

Ms. Munoz was hired by the City of Riverside Fire Department’s Fire Prevention Bureau as a Public Education Specialist and within a five-year period was promoted to Fire Inspector II. In this position, she has served in various capacities: the implementation of fire educational programs, paramount among them the Juvenile Firesetters Intervention Program targeting children playing with fire, provides interpretation for Spanish-speaking constituents, and called to translate complex fire code regulations to the Latino business community. She has also served on the Board of the Riverside Fire Prevention Officers Association.

Alicia Rubio Berber

Ms. Berber currently is Riverside City College Women’s Basketball Coach. She is completing her Masters of Arts in Kinesiology. In her tenure as coach, she has been named 2005 Orange Empire Conference Coach of the Year. 2006 Coach of the Year for California Community College Women’s Basketball Coaches Association, and recently was nominated to the 2007 Riverside Community College District Hall of Fame. Ms. Berber uses her leadership skills as a coach to guide and lift young women to higher levels of education and competition that opens doors for future opportunities. The bottom line for her is to take care of her student players.

Sinar Lomeli

Ms. Lomeli is employed as a Guidance Counselor at Norte Vista High School. Previously, she served as an Educational Advisor at Riverside City College where she was instrumental in encouraging students to participate in outreach efforts, further their educational aspirations and dedicate their time to community service. In numerous occasions, Ms. Lomeli has stepped up to the plate to assist in community efforts and Latino Network events. She also volunteers to coordinate community organizations in mutually working in various projects. Her accomplishments are phenomenal and true to her heart and soul.

Marisa Valencia Yeager

Ms. Yeager embraces many aspects of inter-government relations with over 14 years experience in community and government relations. Currently, she administers government relations for the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority. Her previous governmental experiences included internship for the late Congressman George Brown, Jr. and served as legislative aide for Congressman Xavier Becerra. Her community activities include; Human Relations Commissioner, Latino Network, Riverside Women’s Democratic Club (president), Sigma Omicron, Inc., and Riverside International Relations Council.

Ememira Valencia

Ms. Valencia is Director of the Riverside County Office of Education’s Head Start/Early Head Start Program, where she oversaw a budget of $35 million and the enrollment of over 3,200 students. She volunteers her service to the Latina Women’s Health Forum, the Riverside Hispanic Chamber of Commerce’s Education Committee, and the Hispanic Education Advancement Foundation Scholarship. Ms. Valencia earned an M.A. in Counseling Psychology, with an emphasis in Marriage, Family and Child Therapy, that allows her to provide effective services to low-income Spanish-speaking families. She also provides endless hours mentoring young women.

Christian Cardenas is a graduate of Aquinas Catholic School, San Bernardino Community College, Dr. Garcia-Teague graduated from the following higher-level schools: College of the Desert, A.S.N.-Nursing; University of Phoenix, B.S.N.-Nursing; University of Southern California, M.S.N.-Nursing; University of California, Los Angeles, Ph.D.-Nursing with specialty in Neuro-Psychiatric and Nurse Practitioner in 2002. As a registered nurse, Dr. Garcia-Teague has been employed in nursing positions for 10 years in several general hospitals in Southern California. She also held positions of research assistant and part-time coordinator at UCLA, and assisted with the development of a Human Immunoodeficiency Virus Education Adherence Program, and directing several of the classes. This resulted in writing and co-publishing of two manuscripts in the field of HIV adherence that ultimately guided her in a new interest concerning Latina living with HIV. She continued her work as clinical nurse instructor at USC, and later as project coordinator at UCLA School of Nursing. She is currently working on an international project funded by the National Institute of Mental Health on “Genetics of Bipolar Disorder in Latino Populations”. In her biography, Dr. Garcia states that in her study of genetic psychiatric research on Latinos, she asks to approve a commemorative stamp to honor DEA Enrique Camarena. The students, with her assistance, developed a proposal, gathered signatures and wrote a letter to the Citizens’ Stamp Advisory Committee for approval. In the last nine years, the students have continued to send thousands of signatures and have distributed letter throughout the United States for support of the project. The project has received wide acclaim and supporters are hopeful that it will be approved. In January, 2007, Ms. Holly received a letter from the Advisory Committee advising that the proposal was being presented before the Committee for consideration. The approval of the stamp, according to Ms. Holly, will prove that young students can make a difference, and that hard work doesn’t always go unnoticed. Ms. Holly isn’t really retired, and states that consideration for full retirement will be based on the continuing and final success of her students’ two projects.

Sylvia Guzman Avendano came to the United States from Mexico with her parents, Roberto and Ofelia Guzman, settled in Montebello, where the family still resides, actively involved in the community and parish, and raised three children. The Guzman siblings attended the University of Southern California; Ms. Avendano received a degree in Architecture. The siblings have been actively involved in their respective communities. Ms. Avendano has direct experience working with educational, public, and private institutions as a business and marketing professional for owners, architects, engineers, and construction management firms. She is currently Vice President of Project Development at HMV Architects in Ontario for the last three years and as the market leader for the firm’s Higher Education Practice throughout California and Nevada. She has over 25 years experience in the built environment field, including 15 years in direct experience as both the client and user, program manager for Capital Outlay Programs, Assistant Director for USC’s Social Science Research Institute, and the CSU Chancellor’s Office for Capital Outlay Budget and Planning. Within the last 14 years, Ms. Avendano has been Principal for Architectural and Engineers professional service firms, concentrating on k-12, municipalities, state and healthcare projects. She is a member of the AIA, SCUP, CCFC, APPA, CMAA, DBIA AAAE SMPS, BDAIE, BDAC, Board of Ramona Convent Secondary School, Esperanza Scholarship Foundation and Ontario Leadership Alliance. She has a strong presence in the Latino community, promoting the education of youth to strive for higher goals, continues to build bridges between schools and colleges for enrollment and retention of youth and future leaders, and to promote state-of-the-art facilities to enhance their learning environments.

CCEAJ GRANTED DESIGNATED PARTY STATUS IN RIALTO PERCHLORATE CLEANUP PROCEEDINGS; POLLUTERS NEVROUS

SAN BERNARDINO - The Center for Community Action and Environmental Justice (CCEAJ) has been granted “Designated Party,” status to represent Rialto Area Residents in the Rialto Perchlorate Cleanup Proceedings. At these proceedings the fate of the Rialto Area drinking water supply will be decided, along with whether or not polluters will have to pay for cleanup. In a letter to State Water Resource Control Board, CCEAJ stated why they should be a designated party.

CCEAJ strongly believes that the community most directly affected by perchlorate contamination has a right to participate in the decision-making process concerning the area's remediation... Their interest in the cleanup is purely financial... The residents primarily use water for drinking... Simply put, the Rialto/Colton community's interest is to protect the health of their families, and their voice must be heard in any procedure that decides the fate of cleanup in the Rialto/Colton Area.

Celia Zelaya, of Rialto says, "Prior to CCEAJ's involvement, the city of Rialto never explained to us how big the problem really is, in fact I didn’t know the water had even been contaminated."

San Bernardino County
Department of Community Development and Housing
NOTICE OF HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Bernardino will hold a public hearing on TUESDAY, March 27, 2007 at 10:00 A.M. in the Chambers of the Board of Supervisors, 385 North Arrowhead Avenue, First Floor, San Bernardino, CA... The purpose of the hearing is to review the County’s proposed 2005-2010 Consolidated Plan Update and 2007-2008 Action Plan...

BACKGROUND Each year since 1975, the County of San Bernardino has qualified to receive federal housing and community development grant funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)... The funds are for eligible projects in the unincorporated communities and thirteen (13) cooperating cities... The purpose of these grant funds is to provide expanded economic opportunities, principally for low- and moderate-income persons... The County of San Bernardino has qualified to receive grants for five (5) years... The purpose of these grants is to provide expanded economic opportunities, principally for low- and moderate-income persons...

PUBLIC COMMENT For a period of thirty (30) days beginning on March 12, 2007, and ending on April 10, 2007, the public is invited to submit written comments on this proposed Consolidated Plan...

Please join me in honoring the life of Cesar Chavez by promoting the ideals he exemplified: action and service to others by volunteering and contributing to the community.
