WOMEN'S RIGHTS & ROLES SCUTINIZED IN SURVEY

Do you believe the institution of marriage is on its way out? Or that women's lib is breaking up the home?

Thirty questions relating to women's lib, the pill, abortion, family, etc. were asked of 25 College and local personnel. Answers, requiring a ratio of "disagree-agree" were weighed by the respondents. Conclusions reached in the survey, conducted by students in Brij Khare's Political Behavior class, indicate that marriage is here to stay (the majority of respondents were male); that women's lib is here to stay; however, women will continue to carry on the role of wife and mother but will seek outside careers. The majority of women surveyed indicated that they were content to let their husbands assume the "rule of the roost."
BREATHE EASIER....CARPOOL CAMPAIGN AGAINST SMOG WIDENS

A college-university conference on computer carpooling will be held on campus Saturday, May 1, in PS-10.
