Robert Blackey, Associate Professor of History, has been appointed Relations with Schools Officer, announced Gerald M. Scherba, Vice President for Academic Affairs.

The appointment, effective immediately, will run until September, 1972. The duties of the new position are primarily aimed at working with high school and community college students, counselors and faculty.

"His responsibilities will be to make it easier for students from high schools and community colleges to make the transition to this College by keeping the faculty and counselors of those institutions up to date about the opportunities and new programs at our College," stated Vice President Scherba.

Dr. Blackey is also serving as chairman of a newly-formed Community Colleges Liaison Committee which is established to enhance CSCSB's relations with community junior colleges; it will serve as a clearinghouse for articulation and related problems. The committee will work with questions arising from transfer of (Continued on Page 2)

Mystery Solved: PRETTY PEAR TREES UNPURLOINED

The case of the disappearing pear trees has been solved. The six evergreen pear trees in the Student Services Bldg. atrium, whose delightful white blooms have brought joy to all who beheld their beauty, have been found transplanted to the east side of the Cafeteria Bldg.

Moving the trees was the initial step in a project to convert the atrium to a completely enclosed snack and recreation area. Transplanting was imperative at this time, according to Woody Wilson, Chief of Grounds Maintenance, as delay would have lessened their chances for survival. The former tree-filled area will be furnished with vending machines, tables and chairs, after completion of alterations some time in the future.
BLACKEY APPOINTED - (Cont'd) course credits of community colleges in the area, making sure that students who start their careers in other colleges will be able to use as much of the work taken there as possible.

Other members of the committee include H. Stephen Prouty, Associate Dean of Admissions and Records, and all division chairmen: Ward McAfee, Social Sciences; Ralph Petrucci, Natural Sciences, and Richard Switzer, Humanities.
