DR. PFAU HONORED ON 10TH YEAR AS CSCSB PRESIDENT

President John Pfau was honored last Friday upon his tenth year as President of Cal State, San Bernardino at a luncheon and program held at the Arrowhead Country Club.

A group of approximately 50 from the College's administrative staff were on hand to greet the President and Mrs. Pfau. Joining in honoring the president was Dr. Kenneth Phillips, former executive dean on the College's original planning staff. Chancellor Glenn Dumke, who had planned on being present, was unable to attend and sent a recorded congratulatory message.

Dr. Pfau was presented with a plaque from the CSCSB Alumni Association, represented by Jim Penman, vice president of the association, in acknowledgement of Dr. Pfau's 10 years as president. A resolution citing the president's contribution to the College during the past decade was read by Joseph Thomas, representing the administrative staff.

The College community extends its congratulations to President Pfau on his first 10 years as President of CSCSB.
