BENJAMIN RODRIGUEZ AWARDED TUITION FELLOWSHIP AT CORNELL

Benjamin Rodriguez, senior biology major, has been accepted to begin the study of medicine with a full tuition fellowship at Cornell University Medical School.

Mr. Rodriguez, full-time psychiatric technician at Patton State Hospital at night, attends full-time classes at CSCSB during the day. The 28-year old student is a native of New York City, but moved to California in 1955, completing a year at Riverside Community College. In 1967 he was drafted into the Army where he served as a medic. "It was then I decided to go into medicine," he said. He is the first CSCSB graduate to be accepted directly into medical school.

He enrolled as a full-time student at CSCSB in 1969 and is an honors candidate in biology. Mr. Rodriguez and his wife Sarita have a 17-month old son, Ruben.
Over 200 Chicano and Native American senior and junior students have been invited to attend an Orientation Day at CSCSB. Students from ten high schools in the area will be on campus next week from April 10 through April 13.

John Gutierrez, student, and member of the Ramona Drop-In Center, states that the program is being offered to the students to give them a realistic view of college life, attitudes and procedures and a desire to further their education.

The schedule will include Pan Chicano y chocolate upon arrival at 8; registration for classes (students will select two classes for audit); tour of the college; lunch; background on admissions procedures, E.O.P. etc., Chicano and Native American speakers and workshops.
