WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Joe Baca (D-Rialto) addressed the Democratic National Convention in Denver, Colorado, in his role as Chair of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus (CHC) in this 110th Congress. In his speech, Congressman Baca voiced strong support for Senator Barack Obama, stating he is the candidate best suited to fight for the needs of Hispanic Americans, and working class families across the nation.

"Growing up the youngest of 15 children in a poor New Mexico household, I never imagined I would one day be participating at such a historic event," said Rep. Baca. "As Chair of the Hispanic Caucus, it is a great honor to represent the Latino community as we nominate Barack Obama, the first African American major party candidate to run for the position of President of the United States!"

Rep. Baca spoke, accompanied with his colleagues from the CHC, Rep. Grace Napolitano (D-CA), Rep. Silvestre Reyes (D-TX), and Rep. Jose Serrano (D-NY), reminding the conference of the negative impact President Bush's policies have had on our economy, the wellbeing of working families, and our national security.

"We cannot afford four more years of the failed Bush-Cheney policies," concluded Rep. Baca. "We need a president who knows that equal opportunity and access to an affordable college education are rights every American deserves. We need a president who knows that it is morally wrong to have 12 million uninsured children and 45 million uninsured adults living in the United States of America."

"As president, Barack Obama will work to resolve America's education and health care systems, get the economy moving in the right direction again, and create more jobs at home. He will also bring a responsible end to the war in Iraq, and continue to make sure all our returning soldiers are given the care and benefits they so richly deserve. Barack Obama will be a fighter for every American and the right person for the job of next President of the United States!"

"We wish him a well-deserved retirement and many years of enjoyment with his wife, Dr. Cheryl Fischer, his children and grandchildren."

While news reports continue to forecast rising foreclosures rates, there may be a solution for homeowners who think they’re trapped in a mortgage with no way out. Distressed homeowners already have plenty of legal firepower on their side... they just don’t know it.

“There have been hundreds of thousands—if not millions—of violations of predatory lending laws over the last nine years,” says investigative journalist Benjamin Dover, the creator of a new consumer-friendly website, www.VoidMyMortgage.com.

“There are four incredibly powerful federal laws that have been around for decades, but are relatively unknown or misunderstood to the average consumer: The Fair Housing, Truth In Lending, Equal Credit Opportunity and Real Estate Settlement Practices Acts collectively give hopeless homeowners plenty of leverage to play some serious hardball with their mortgage companies.”

Dover urges distressed homeowners to analyze their situations and get aggressive early in the game, long before their payments escalate out of sight and become impossible to make. Here are his Top 5 Red Flag Warning Signs that indicate you could be the victim of predatory lending:

1. Your loan was an Adjustable Rate Mortgage, or ARM.
2. Your monthly loan payment has increased more than $200 in the past year—or—if your monthly payment will increase by more than $200 in the next six months.
3. If your loan has a pre-payment penalty longer than three years.
4. If your home was originally appraised for a higher value than homes were selling for in your neighborhood.
5. Or, if your Realtor or title company steered you to a specific mortgage company.

If you answered ‘yes’ to two or more of these questions, Dover says you may have a case against your originator, the title company who closed the loan, the appraiser who provided your lender with the original appraisal, or the loan servicer—the company to whom you send your monthly house payment.

There are potentially hundreds of thousands—if not millions—of predatory lending victims spread across the country, but before the launch of Dover’s whistle-blowing website, there were no advocates informing distressed homeowners that they might have a case. As Dover points out, there is zero incentive for banks and mortgage companies to put homeowners on alert, for obvious financial reasons.

As for those consumers who may have already been contacted by their mortgage company about re-writing their loans, Dover cautions: "Before you jump on offers to reduce your principal balance and re-write your loan, consider who initially put you in the financial mess you’re in. You’re not really going to trust them to give you the best possible deal and rewrite your loan, are you?"

Dover’s company, VoidMyMortgage.com has retained Dr. Gary Lacefield, one of the nation’s leading experts to handle mortgage audits for distressed homeowners.

The County of Riverside, CA has retained Dr. Lacefield as the former enforcer for the Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD), Lacefield personally, has advocated the six largest lending settlement agreements in HUD Civil Rights history, totaling over $10 billion.

Dover and Lacefield’s plan to save the American dream is simple. “Our goal is to re-write or ‘recast’ these illegal loans. ‘We want to help keep people in their homes,’ says Dover.

Benjamin Dover has written two bestselling books, Life After Debt: The Blueprint for Surviving In America’s Credit Society and Back Off! The Definitive Guide To Stopping Collection Agencies. He is a regular column. Ask Ben, appeared weekly in The Dallas Morning News from 1998 – 2004 and his expert commentary, advice, tips and strategies have been featured in some of the nation’s leading newspapers and magazines for almost two decades.

State Announces $227 Million in Grants for Public Schools

Proposition 1D funds will help schools repair, build and modernize facilities for student success.

Ensuring that schools are receiving the financial resources to provide students with modern amenities, the California State and Consumer Services Agency and the Office of the Secretary of Education announced today the allocation of $272 million in construction grants by the State Allocation Board (SAB) to more than 300 California schools. The allocation includes $259 million in Proposition 1D funds, the $10.4 billion bond measure championed by the governor as part of his Strategic Growth Plan approved by voters in 2006.

An additional $13 million was allocated to more than 250 campuses for emergency repairs.

“These funds will give many California schools the opportunity to make much-needed improvements and the ability to enhance the learning environments for our students,” said Secretary of Education David Long.

As part of Governor Schwarzenegger’s $42 billion Strategic Growth Plan to rehabilitate California’s infrastructure, the Proposition 1D grants for new construction and modernization of facilities will go to:

- three in Northern California and the north coast region, eight in the Central Valley, nine in the greater Sacramento area, 11 in the San Francisco Bay Area and central coast region, and 35 in Southern California.

Since 2007, more than $2 billion in Proposition 1D funds have been allocated for school improvements. Governor Schwarzenegger has facilitated and expedited the allocation of billions of dollars from the 2006 infrastructure bonds to launch key projects, create jobs and stimulate California’s economy. Specifically, he has:

- Announced approximately $136 million in Proposition 1B bond funds for 99 transit projects statewide.
- Announced the allocation of $463 million in Proposition 1D funds for new construction and modernization projects for 29 charter schools statewide.
- Announced $382 million in Proposition 1B funds for transportation projects across the state.
- Announced the approval of $3.5 billion in Proposition 1B bond funds for transportation and goods movement projects across the state.
- Announced $394 million in Proposition 1B bond funding for 106 transit projects statewide.
- Announced $40 million for port security from Proposition 1B funds.
- Announced $73 million for affordable housing projects in Proposition 1C and Proposition 46 funds to help more than 1,600 California families rent or purchase affordable housing.
- Announced $211 million for expedited implementation in Proposition 1E funds to four critical school improvement projects in Northern California.
- Announced $69.5 million in permanent low-interest loans from the Proposition 1C housing bonds to jump-start new multi-family projects up and down the state, helping more than 1,000 California families and individuals realize the dream of an affordable rental home.
IMMIGRANTS LESS LIKELY TO USE EMERGENCY ROOMS

False rumors that U.S. hospitals are closing because of undocumented immigrants have spread throughout the nativist internet network. The rumors started in 2005, when the discredited "medical expert" Madeleine Cosman published an article in a right-wing medical journal claiming that "$4 California hospitals were closing because undocumented immigrants were straining the hospitals' emergency facilities." The citation for Cosman's claim, though, does not support her contention.

The LA Times article cited reported that Robert F. Kennedy Medical Center in Hawthorne announced Thursday that it will shut down Dec. 31, becoming the sixth Los Angeles County emergency room [in 2004] to close its doors because of financial problems.

Nowhere in the article does the LA Times attribute the closing costs of care for undocumented immigrants. What the Times does say is emergency rooms are generally a "greater drain on hospital finances than other departments because more of their patients don't have insurance." Cosman's false claim relies on the assumption that most uninsured emergency room patients are immigrants. However, a recent study by the Public Policy Institute of California (PPIC) found: Medi-Cal users of emergency departments — even those without healthcare coverage — are less likely to seek treatment in the ER.*

1. Madeleine Cosman. "Illegal Aliens and American Medicine." Journal of American Physicians and Surgeons, Spring 2005. Many of Cosman's claims, including her allegation that undocumented immigrants were bringing leprosy to the U.S., were widely debunked by several news outlets in 2007.

NOTICE OF HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Bernardino will hold a public hearing on Tuesday, September 16, 2008, at 4:00 p.m., in the Board Chambers, 385 North Market Street, San Bernardino, CA. The purpose of the hearing is to review the County’s 2008-09 Consolidated Plan.

BACKGROUND

The County of San Bernardino has qualified to receive federal housing and community development grant funds through the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The County is required to submit a documents titled the ConsolidatedPlan.

Each year since 1975, the County of San Bernardino, in addition to these cities, the cities of Rancho Cucamonga, and Redlands were awarded by HUD to participate in the County’s HOME Program.

In 1995, HUD combined the HOME, ESG, and CDBG programs into a single Consolidation process. As part of the grant application, the County is required to submit a document that addresses the strategies and priority needs for using those funds in the current year.

This document is called the Consolidated Plan. The Consolidated Plan will be adopted by the Board of Supervisors on April 12, 2007. This Plan covers fiscal years 2006-07, 2007-08, 2008-09, and 2009-10. To receive the 2007-08 CDBG, ESG, and HOME grant funds, the County must submit an Action Plan to address the housing, homelessness, economic development, and community development strategies of the Consolidated Plan.

The 2006-10 Consolidated Plan and ANNUAL PERFORMANCE REPORT were submitted to HUD in May 2007 for funding approval. During the past fiscal year, which began on July 1, 2007, and ended on June 30, 2008, the County carried out the Action Plan as part of the five-year Consolidated Plan, through a wide variety of grant-funded construction, public service, housing and economic development, and homeless assistance activities.

ANNUAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW

At the end of each fiscal year, the County submits a detailed report to HUD covering the past year’s accomplishments and expenditures. The County combines the annual HOME, ESG, and CDBG reports into a single Annual Performance Report (APR) pursuant to HUD Consolidated Plan regulations. As a result of the hearing, staff from the Department of Community Development and Housing (CDBG) and the County’s HOME, ESG, and CDBG reports into a single Annual Performance Report (APR) pursuant to HUD Consolidated Plan regulations. At the public hearing, the Board of Supervisors will receive the Annual Performance Review. Comments received after 5:00 p.m. September 10, 2008 cannot be considered in the preparation of the APR to HUD. Send comments to County CDH at the address shown below. A summary of the APR will be available for public review during the public comment period as indicated.

Those individuals who wish to express their views on the Annual Performance Review may be present and be heard at the public hearing or may, prior to the time of the hearing, submit written comments to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, 385 North Market Street, Second Floor, San Bernardino, CA 92415-0130.

If you challenge any decision regarding the above proposal in court, you may be required to show that you or someone you knew received the public hearing described in this notice or in written correspondence delivered to the Board of Supervisors at, or prior to, the public hearing.

Due to time constraints and the number of persons wishing to give oral testimony, time restrictions may be placed on the public hearing regarding this proposal. You may make your comments in writing to assure that you are able to express yourself adequately.

PAUL BIANE, CHAIRMAN
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO

DEAN M. SMITH
CLERK OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
LAUREL, Miss. - In another large-scale workplace immigration crackdown, federal officials raided a factory here on Monday, detaining at least 350 workers they said were in the country illegally.

Howard Industries, one of the largest employers in the region, manufactures electrical transformers, among other products.

Numerous agents from Immigration and Customs Enforcement descended on a factory belonging to Howard Industries Inc., which manufactures electrical transformers, among other products.

As of late Monday afternoon, no criminal charges had been filed, said Barbara Gonzalez, an agency spokeswoman, but she said that dozens of workers had been "identified, fingerprinted, interviewed, photographed and processed for removal from the U.S."

The raid follows a similar large-scale immigration operation at a meatpacking plant in Postville, Iowa, in May when nearly 400 workers were detained. The woman, Mary Troyer, said she was a translator for many of the families.

"I don't understand it. They have come here to work. It's very sad." the Postville raid took place in a temporary court facility on the grounds of the National Cattle Congress in Waterloo, Iowa. An interpreter was later sharply critical of the proceedings, saying the immigrants did not understand the charges against them.

An immigrant rights group in Jackson, Miss., the state capital, was critical of Monday's raid, saying families with children were involved.

"It's horrific what ICE is doing to these families and these communities," said Shuya Ohno, a spokesman for the Mississippi Immigrants Rights Alliance. "It's just hard to imagine that this is the United States of America."

In Laurel on Monday afternoon, several dozen family members of immigrants waited for news of their relatives at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. There were several small children. A priest at the church who identified himself only as Father Sergio refused to allow interviews with the families or answer any questions, saying only: "People are afraid. We need to calm them. There are mothers and children involved."

Entrances to the sprawling plant, in an industrial section south of town, had been blocked off by ICE. A nearby fast-food restaurant was full of the blue-shirted agents, one of whom said only that a "little inspiration" was under way at the facility.

A woman entering the church grounds with four small children said several of the youngsters' parents had been detained. The woman, Mary Troyer, said she was a translator for many of the families.

"I don't understand it. They have come here to work. It's very sad." the woman, Mary Troyer, said she was a translator for many of the families.

The ICE spokeswoman, Ms. Gonzalez, said the workers would be taken to an ICE detention center to "await the outcome of their cases." She said 50 would be "released into the community" instead of being sent to the center, for "humanitarian reasons," including medical difficulties or the need to take care of children.

She said no lawyers were present while the workers were being interrogated. "Everyone will have due process under law," Ms. Gonzalez said.

Late Monday afternoon, the grim-faced workers, some of them handcuffed, were lined up near white and silver buses as the rain poured down.

In a statement issued after the raid, Howard Industries, one of the largest employers in the region, acknowledged that it was "visited" by immigration agents trying to determine if its employees were citizens or otherwise legally authorized to work in the country.

"Howard Industries runs every check allowed to ascertain the immigration status of all applicants for jobs," the statement said. "It is company policy that it hires only U.S. citizens and legal immigrants."

Bill Chandler, executive director of the Mississippi Immigrants Rights Alliance, called the Laurel raid a violation of human rights.

"We're very disturbed at what's happened," Mr. Chandler said. "It's a real contradiction between our proclaimed values of hard work and family in Mississippi and the actions of local law enforcement, and ICE. I think it's a real affront to our values. They're creating their own terrorism by going after workers."

After the Iowa raid, the federal interpreter said many of the immigrants did not understand the charges to which they pleaded guilty. But federal officials said the judges in the cases believed that the guilty pleas had been made freely and voluntarily.
