Today is the last day for Winter Quarter classes. Advisement for the Spring Term ended yesterday. Final examinations begin next Monday, March 19. The Spring Break ends with registration taking place March 29 and 30. Spring Quarter classes begin April 2.

One hundred fifty-one seniors have filed graduation requirement checks for Winter graduation. These graduates, added to the 114 Fall grads and the 360 Spring and Summer candidates bring the 1973 graduating class to a potential of 625.

This year's Commencement will be held Saturday, June 16, at 8 p.m. in the College Gymnasium. The Senior Class is currently conducting a survey to determine color of academic garb. Seniors and graduates will be notified by mail concerning details on colors, renting or purchasing caps and gowns and other information as soon as it is available.

Graduation announcements are expected to be on hand in the Bookstore for purchase around April 1 at 25¢ each.

The Personnel office has moved to new quarters in the Student Services Building. Main entry to the suite of offices is through SS-151. Craftsmen from the Physical Plant Department carried out the remodeling project which involved converting former classrooms and vending machine areas into the present Personnel offices.

The Personnel staff of Oscar Jackson, Sandi Jensen, Jean Durham and Jeanne Rudloff will retain their present telephone extension number, 215.

The Payroll office will remain in its present location until Wed., March 21, when the staff will move to AD-115B. A new extension, 518, will go into effect at that time. Payroll personnel are Judy Meenan and Pat Stumpf.
"Last year I went skinny-dipping in the Fountain of Youth," begins an account of Frank Campbell's experiences here at CSCSB as a retired USAF Lt. Col. student returnee.

Now a CSCSB grad (June, 1972) and a candidate for a secondary credential, Mr. Campbell has written an account of his re-entry into the world of academe which appears in the March, 1973 Air Force Magazine. (Editor's note: A copy of the refreshing and clever article is available in the College Relations office, AD-151.)
