NOTED SCHOLARS TO BE ON CAMPUS FOR ASIAN CONFERENCE MAY 14, 15

Noted Asian scholars from 21 different colleges including the University of North Carolina, Purdue and Northern Illinois University, plus schools across the state, will be on campus, attracted by the Asian Conference to be held here next week, May 14-15.

An Indonesian concert, Kabuki dancers, Asian dinner and distinguished speakers will highlight the conference. The program is open to the public and should be of special interest to students. The public is invited to attend the entire conference or individual events. Registration for the entire conference is $10 (students $5) and includes admission to the Indonesian concert, Kabuki performance and Asian dinner.

Tickets for the Indonesian Concert (Monday) and Japanese Kabuki performance (Tuesday) can be purchased at the door for $1 per person (50¢ students; 25¢ children).

Brij Khare, Chairman of the Political Science Department, is conference coordinator. The conference has drawn some of the top scholars in the field, according to Dr. Khare. "While it was planned for Southern California originally, we have heard from Northern (Continued on Page 2)

STRING QUARTET NAMED IN HONOR OF LESLIE HARRIS

Four distinguished local musicians will comprise the first string quartet in residence at the College, to be called the Leslie I. Harris String Quartet in honor of the late community leader.

Artists chosen for the quartet are Armen Turadian, violin; Clyda Yedinak, violin; Victoria Shapiro, viola and Catherine Graff, cello.

Debut performance will be Wednesday, May 23, 7:30 p.m. in PS-10. The public is invited.

Mr. Harris served on the College Advisory Board since it was organized in 1966. A memorial scholarship has been established in his name. He had been active in many areas of community work for over 50 years until his death in 1971.

Currently featured at the Library is an exhibit which displays photographically the social climate of the generations of the 40's and 30's.

One deals with the relocation of persons of Japanese ancestry in May of 1942. It includes a copy of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Executive Order which started the move to put Japanese-Americans and alien Japanese behind barbed wire.

The other exhibit concerns the work of women during the thirties illustrated through photographs by Dorothea Lange. Several of the photographs have never been on exhibit before.

Both exhibits are on the first floor of the Library.

The 1972 edition of the California State University and Colleges Statistical Abstract is now available in the Library.

The Library requests all staff members to either return or renew library materials by May 31, 1973. This cooperation is especially required as the inventory is the first to be taken since the move into the new building.

GROUNDBREAKING SCHEDULED FOR CHILD CARE PLAY YARD

Ground breaking ceremonies will be held Monday, May 14, at 2 p.m. for the play-yard of the Child Care Center.

The site for the long sought-after center is located north of the Student Services Building. The College donated the site and the trailers which are presently located in the area for use by the Center. This summer the trailers will be converted into a module classroom area for child care. The offices currently located in the trailers will be relocated in the Student Services Building sometime after remodeling occurs this summer.

Following the ground-breaking ceremony, refreshments will be served and the Child Care Center Committee will discuss future developments for the Center. Students, faculty and staff are invited to attend.
