Gonzalez Named Cal State Interim V.P.

Dr. Juan Gonzalez, assistant to the president at Cal State, San Bernardino, will become the interim vice president for student services effective Sept. 1.

Gonzalez, who has been with the university since 1987, succeeds Dr. Peter Wilson, who has been named the acting dean of the Cal State satellite campus in Palm Desert. The full-service off-campus center in the low desert, which is attended by more than 700 students, has been overseen since it opened in 1986 by Dr. Catherine Gannon, who is returning to teach full-time in the English Department at Cal State.

Gonzalez' experience in program evaluation and the administration of educational equity programs corresponds with his new duties managing Cal State's student services division, which houses enrollment services, financial aid, pre-college outreach and student housing, among other offices.

Prior to joining Cal State as the university's first presidential assistant, Gonzalez was a visiting research associate at UCLA's Higher Education Research Institute, studying strategies for keeping low income and minority students in college. Previously, he had served as the director of the Academic Advancement Program at that campus.

Gonzalez has been a consultant to a variety of educational agencies, including the California Postsecondary Commission and the Tomas Rivera Center in Claremont. He has a Ph.D. in educational psychology from the University of Illinois, an M.A. in bilingual-bicultural education from the University of Texas in San Antonio, and an undergraduate degree in Latin American Studies from the University of Texas in San Antonio, and an undergraduate degree in Latin American Studies from Texas Tech.

Active in the community, Gonzalez is president of the Kiwanis Club of Greater San Bernardino, a member of the executive board of Arrowhead United Way and chair of the association's committee on minority concerns, and secretary to the board of directors of the Boys and Girls Club in San Bernardino. Additionally, he is the chair-elect of the American Association for Higher Education's Hispanic Caucus, a national association with more than 4,000 members. He and his wife, Irene Hoffman, reside in Claremont.

Colton's Mayor Frank Gonzales Seeks Third Term

Mayor Frank Gonzales announced that he will seek the office of mayor for a third consecutive term.

"There are several very important major projects that have not been completed and I would like to see them completed as mayor," he said.

The projects the mayor speaks of are the Senior Housing Project, a proposed park in the west side of the city which would offer a teen center and counseling for teenagers, the K-Mart and Wal-Mart in the Cooley Ranch area.

Mayor Gonzalez stated that the last four years have been very productive for the city. He said that developments include Albertsons, Stater Bros. and its adjacent shopping center and a new fire station in the Cooley Ranch area, American RV Expo, Price Club, the expansion of the Hutton and Luque centers, new city yards and the opening of the Colton Museum.

The mayor said the city needs to attract new developments in order that increased sales tax revenues can provide the services for the residents of Colton.

Added projects under discussion are the expansion of the Civic Center to include ways to expedite customer's bills payments.

The population of Colton is increasing rapidly, according to the mayor. "We have 40,000 people in our city and in two or more years the city will increase to 50,000 or more. Our growth projection in seven years is 70,000."

Mayor Gonzalez, a lifelong resident of Colton, is vice chairman for the Inland Valley Development Agency. The Agency is the policy board for the reuse of Norton which is slated for closure in 1994. The Norton's projected reuse employment is 10,000 jobs.

"I have served on the Agency's board for 2 years. It is important to the city that member continuity be established, otherwise, the information and expertise developed will be lost," he said.

"I am a full-time mayor and to do a job right, you have to be full time." He estimates that he spends 60 hours or more a week on the average as mayor.

Labor Day Salute

Pete Espudo - dedicated Hispanic Labor Leader

(Publisher's note: In observance of Labor Day on September 3, the Inland Empire Hispanic News selected Mr. Pete Espudo to be representative of Hispanics who are involved in labor activities and have been recognized for their achievements).

Pete Espudo is Secretary-Treasurer of the Teamsters Union Local 166, which is equivalent to a chief executive officer. He has reached the highest office in the local union hierarchy, (however, he holds a position at the regional level). Few persons achieve this goal, and this is especially true for Hispanics. In his big office, he gives the impression of a self-made man who is in charge and is confident of what he is doing and capable of overcoming obstacles.

"The future growth of our city is very crucial and I enjoy being part of that growth," he said. An important part of the growth is the expansion of city's recreational facilities. "We are a sport-oriented community and sports keep our youth involved and are an outlet for them and also cuts the gang problems down."

Joe Baca Responds to Lois Carson on Rivera Removal

Dear Editor,

I feel compelled to refute Lois Carson's allegations concerning Dr. Manuel Rivera's non-renewal of his contract because they are inaccurate and irresponsible statements coming from a board member. Specifically, I am referring to the article in the Precinct Reporter and The San Telegraph, title "Lois Carson Responds to Critics Regarding Vote Against S.B.V.C. President."

First of all, I am appalled that Lois Carson changed her mind to renew the contract of Dr. Manuel Rivera for one year for the following reason: "I changed my mind after the rally on campus." This decision that was based on a rally attendance to not renew the contract is poor judgment and lacks responsibility on her part.

If you and I were to judge people who marched with Dr. Martin Luther King on Civil Rights, should we condemn them because they stood and spoke for what they believed? What about the message they wanted to deliver? What right do we have to judge someone (Dr. Rivera) for speaking on his accomplishments as President of S.B.V.C. at a press conference, which he was invited by individuals who support his contributions to San Bernardino Valley College and the community.

We do have freedom of speech guaranteed to us by the Constitution of the United States and thank God we do, but let us not condemn those for speaking out, or let's not deny, as you did Lois Carson and other members of the Board of Trustees, the right to speak at a public meeting. If we as minorities become too critical of those that are speaking out, then where do we stand on affirmative action and those that speak out when they have been inappropriately terminated and not given upward mobility because of their race, skin color, creed, sex or disability, etc.

In Lois Carson's assertion that the evaluation process of the two presidents was untruthful, I challenge Lois Carson and any member of the community to view the evaluations, how they were modified (a different response was given at S.B.V.C. vs. C.H.C. - negative compared to positive respectfully) and what was the method of response. The evaluation form used at SBVC was geared to produce negative results while the modified version of CHC produced positive results. This is clearly, in my opinion, a double standard use of evaluation by the institutions.

Lois Carson clearly states she is an advocate of affirmative action. However, the issue is not the affirmative action program. The issue is how and why Dr. Rivera's contract was not renewed. Yet, she justifies her actions by her claim, that it took the majority of the Board of Trustees to vote on and promote the selection of minorities, Roger Anton as President of Crafton Hills College, Judith Valles, Frank Reyes, Jess Carreron and R. Luis Gomez. Also, Lois Carson is not solely responsible for the hiring and advancement of these minorities and others, as she would have the public credit.

When a board member must respond to critics, public scrutiny, we must ask ourselves why? Does she indeed have to respond or does she have to justify why she voted as she did with other members of the board not to allow community members to speak at a public meeting. In eleven years as elected official on the board, we have never denied the public the right to speak at a public meeting. This clearly is violation of the Brown Act and our Constitutional rights. Lois Carson, as all members of the Board of Trustees for San Bernardino Community College District, were elected to office by the people of the district to represent them responsibly and effectively. So, as elected officials, our positions may be questioned, and they should.

Sincerely,

(Signed)

Joe Baca

Brief History

In January 1964, President Lyndon B. Johnson declared an "unconditional war on poverty" in his first State of the Union Address. On August 20, 1964, the Economic Opportunity Act was signed into law.

Aurelio DeLaTorre, San Bernardino County Veteran's Affairs Department served at the Department of Veterans' Affairs, San Bernardino County Department of Veteran's Affairs served more veterans in the 1989-90 fiscal year, than any other county in California.

Aurelio DeLaTorre, County Veterans Service Officer listed the numbers. "Our County led the charge with 9,577 claims filed, followed by Orange County with 9,399; Los Angeles with 7,357; Riverside with 6,470; Monterey with 5,548; and San Diego with 5,416. What makes this so significant is that our county (San Bernardino) is number 6 in veteran population, yet we file more claims than any county in California."

DeLaTorre attributes the departments success to a combination of dedicated loyal employees and the special attention to constantly seeking ways to improve effectiveness and efficiency in the department.

The Veterans' Affairs office was established in 1926 by the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors to assist in obtaining benefits from federal and state agencies administering programs for veterans and their dependents.

Salvador named Mayor's Assistant

The San Bernardino City Council has approved Mayor Holcomb's appointment of Ray Salvador as Assistant to the Mayor. Salvador most recently served as the Mayor's Project Coordinator and succeeds Rachel Mendosa Krausey who was appointed as City Clerk.

Pete Espudo - Dedicated Hispanic Labor Leader

Personal Profile

But life started with many obstacles for Mr. Espudo. Born in Marfa, Texas, his mother died when he was very young, his father returned to Mexico and his grandparents continued to raise the three brothers and sister in addition to their own children. "Life was very hard for us. But in addition to the poverty and hardships that existed for our family, there was a lot of discrimination toward Mexican-Americans where I grew up. I remember as a young kid when we had to walk across town to attend a segregated school and we had to pass the nice school where the Anglo kids attended. The teachers were complacent and not interested in teaching us Mexican kids. If we would complain about wanting to learn, they would punish us. The barrio where we lived didn't have too much either, no playground to speak of, or anything else for that matter." He attended Catholic school for one year, getting a formal education and receiving his First Communion.

"My grandparents were very traditional, my grandfather being the head of the household and my grandmother was very gentle and had a very positive impact on me."

At the age of seven, Mr. Espudo and his brother came to California with his uncle and aunt where they worked as field hands. They would migrate from El Centro and Imperial Valley to Fresno and Madera, harvesting the various crops. In between harvesting the crops, he would attend the local school. "I was glad that California had a compulsory law that required attendance of all young people. Otherwise, I would have been illiterate," he said. He stated that this was the period in his life where he was exposed to persons of different nationalities, which gave him the experience and ability to relate to people.

However, being on his own, Mr. Espudo's life was very unstable and was barely existing on a day to day basis. He consistently attempted to enlist in the Marine Corps, but was rejected because of his age. At 17, he bribed a woman to act as his mother in order to pass the nice school where the Anglo kids attended. The teachers were complacent and not interested in teaching us Mexican kids. I would complain about wanting to learn, they would punish us. The barrio where we lived didn't have too much either, no playground to speak of, or anything else for that matter." He attended Catholic school for one year, getting a formal education and receiving his First Communion.

He stated that this was the period in his life where he was exposed to persons of different nationalities, which gave him the experience and ability to relate to people.

He continued his education in the Marine Corps, receiving his G.E.D. from the U.S.A.F.I and a special business administration training at Polomar Junior College. One of the highlights in the Marine Corps was being 1st of 80, out of 1100 marines to complete the drill sergeant's school. The other highlight was his marriage to the former Luce Gomez in 1956.

"One of the best decisions that I made in my youth was to join the Marine Corps. It taught me the discipline that I needed. I developed organizational skills and ability to achieve goals against every obstacle and instilled in me the motivational force to succeed. In other words, the Corps molded me into a better all-around person and has been a key to my success." He said proudly.

In 1962 he was discharged from the Marine Corps with the rank of sergeant after serving for 10 years.

Working at International Furniture in Corona, his brother, Pino, encouraged him to attend union meetings. He became interested in union activities and in 1965 he was elected chief steward of the United Furniture Workers Local 1010. At a later date, he was elected to the Executive Board. Although he was offered management positions with the company, he opted to remain as a union activist.

In 1968, Mr. Espudo was hired as an organizer for the AFSCME, AFL-CIO in Los Angeles County. He was instrumental in organizing the probation officers, superior court clerks, librarians and parks and recreation specialist. Injured in 1969, he was off work for four months.

Pete Espudo is one of the best secretary-treasurers of any local within the Teamsters organization. He is very hard-working and is always available at anytime to help his members. He is loved and highly respected by all of us. To me, he is a role model that I respect and I try to pattern myself after him. Ronald Randolph

Member, Executive Board Teamster Local 166

In 1970, he was hired by the Teamsters Local 166 as an organizer. "During this time, I was able to bring in 800 dues-paying members into the union," he said. Becoming a business agent in 1972, he later coordinated the Teamsters' activities in Coachella Valley during the time that the union represented the farm workers in addition to performing his job responsibilities at the local level.

Elected as Vice-President of the Executive Board in 1976, he held the position until he was appointed as Secretary-Treasurer in 1982. "I was the first minority to be elected to this position and I felt good about it," he said. He has been re-elected to that position in the present time. During his tenure as Secretary-Treasurer, the union membership has had an increase of 3280 to a current 6880 members.

Mr. Espudo was elected as a member of the Executive Board of the Joint Council of Teamsters #42 in 1990, which oversees the activities of 147,000 teamsters in Southern California and Southern Nevada. He was chosen by ACHVA/AMISTAD to represent Labor on a fact-finding trip to Israel in March, 1990. He also serves as Trustee of the Teamsters Construction Training & Upgrading Program. He is founder and president of the Teamsters Hispanic Caucus, an organization serving Hispanic teamsters officers and staff members of locals throughout California.

He continues his education by attending classes at UCLA and USC.

The Espudo's have been married for 34 years. They have five children, Patricia, Robert, Geneva, Roderick and Evelyn and three grandchildren. "My wife has been very supportive for all these years. I would not be in this position if it was not for her. I owe her a lot. I have also taught my children to respect the labor movement and appreciation for our country."

"During my growing up years, life was very hard for me. However, in reviewing my experiences, there is a sense that I was at the right place at the right time. There has been accomplishments in my life through hard work and commitment and fortunately, they have been recognized. I am a team player and have also been very straight-forward with whoever I have encountered. I am people-oriented and therefore, have attended to want to help people, more so for the Hispanic. I have also assembled the best field and office staff in Southern California of which I am very proud."

"I can only recommend to my fellow Hispanics the attributes which have been helpful in my career: develop realistic goals and have the determination and desire to overcome any obstacles in order to succeed in your goals."

If your electric bills seem to rise with summer temperatures, you'll be happy to hear this. Edison has all kinds of ways to cool yourself, and your bills, all at the same time. The choice is yours. Setting your thermostat at 78, just a few degrees higher, can help you save.

Try using a fan instead of your air conditioner. When temperatures cool, remember to turn your air conditioner off. Try not to use heat generating appliances, like your washer and dryer, when temperatures are up. And don't cool an empty house when you go out.

Replace your old air conditioner with an energy-efficient air conditioner. You'll save a bundle. Especially now that Edison is giving rebates. We're giving rebates on energy-efficient refrigerators too. Ask Edison which models qualify before you buy.

We've got all kinds of ideas on how to cool your electric bill. We've printed them up for you in a free booklet called "Hot Tips for a Cool Summer." For your copy just call us at 1-800-952-5062, or call our TDD-accessible phone number, 1-800-352-8580.

The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) and the City of Ontario propose to construct a new diamond interchange at the existing Haven Avenue overcrossing (PM R8.4/R9.4) of Route 60 located between Milliken Avenue interchange and Archibald Avenue interchange. The Haven Avenue roadway would be widened from two to six lanes at the overcrossing with double left turn lanes and shoulders. Auxiliary lane extensions would be provided easterly to join existing Milliken Avenue interchange auxiliary lanes, and a new auxiliary lane would be extended westerly to Archibald Avenue interchange for westbound traffic. The necessary right-of-way acquisition, soundwalls on the southerly side of the freeway and related utility relocation will be included with the project.

WHY THIS NOTICE:
Caltrans has studied the effects this project may have on the environment. The studies show the project will not significantly affect the quality of the environment. The study report explaining this is called an Environmental Assessment/Negative Declaration. This notice is to inform you of the preparation of the Environmental Assessment/Negative Declaration and of its availability for you to read. In addition, a public hearing will be held to give you an opportunity to discuss certain design features of the project with Caltrans and City staff before the final design is selected. Also, at the public hearing tentative schedule for right-of-way acquisition and construction scheduling will be discussed.

WHAT'S AVAILABLE:
Maps, the Environmental Assessment/Negative Declaration, and Technical Studies are available for review or purchase at the Caltrans District Office, 247 West Third Street, San Bernardino, CA weekdays from 7:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Copies of the documents are also available for review at the Ontario City Hall, Engineering Department, 303 East "B" Street, Ontario, CA and the City of Ontario Public Library, 215 East "C" Street, Ontario, CA during normal working hours.

WHEN AND WHERE:
Caltrans and the City of Ontario will hold informal showings on Wednesday, September 26 and Tuesday, October 2, 1990, from 4:00-7:00 p.m. at the Ontario City Hall (303 East "B" Street). Maps and other exhibits will be on display. Both Caltrans and the City of Ontario staff will be on hand to answer questions regarding the proposed project. Do you disagree with the findings of the study as set forth in the Environmental Assessment/Negative Declaration? Would you care to make any other comments on the project? Please submit your comments in writing no later than October 16, 1990 to Caltrans District 8, Public Affairs Office, P.O.
