UNOFFICIAL REGISTRATION FIGURES SHOW 2,500 F.T.E. Current Winter Term enrollment appears to be down about 3% from last quarter's count, according to preliminary figures received from the Admissions and Records office.

Unofficial figures show 2,500 full-time equivalent students registered this quarter compared to 2,610 F.T.E. in Fall, 1973.

The official Winter Quarter census of January 25, 1973 recorded a 2,229 F.T.E. The Winter, 1974 census date (and last date to drop classes) is January 25, 1974.

NEW LIBRARY HOURS SATURDAY hours of noon to 4 p.m. have been reinstated in the Library's schedule, which was recently reduced to provide savings in energy.

Library hours now in effect are:

- Monday thru Thursday - 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.
- Friday - 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Saturday - Noon to 4 p.m.
- Sunday - 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The Library Director will adjust hours, depending on need, during mid-term and final examination periods.

UPWARD BOUND STUDENT- PARENT ORIENTATION A student-parent orientation session for participants in the Upward Bound program will be held on campus tomorrow from 3 to 6 p.m.

Sixty high school students represent the first group selected for the College's Upward Bound program, begun this fall under the guidance of Gilbert Lara, Upward Bound Director. All are juniors or seniors in local high schools who might benefit from a program of interest and encouragement.

Tomorrow's program begins with a tram tour of the campus conducted by CSCSB tour guides, followed by the students and their parents convening in the Commons for dinner and a talk by President John Pfau.
NEWLY-ESTABLISHED MINORITY INFORMATION CENTER HAS DIRECTOR

Mike Duran is the Director of the newly-established Minority Information Center and is also Veterans Counselor with the Veterans Services Center.

A CSCSC graduate in 1973 in political science, Mr. Duran joined the College staff last September on a part-time basis and now divides his day between the two offices. In the morning he can be reached at the Veterans Center, adjacent to the Admissions & Records Lobby in the SS Bldg, Ext. 428. In the afternoon he is located in the Minority Center, Trailer 2-D, Ext. 397.

In his role as Minority Information Center Director he coordinates and disseminates information regarding professional education and employment opportunities for minority students. Minority students are urged to take advantage of these new services.

CAST IN REHEARSAL FOR "WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF?"

CRAFTON HILLS, VALLEY AND CSCSB IN RECIPROCAL BORROWING PROGRAM

The combined resources of three college libraries are now available to students and faculty at Crafton Hills, San Bernardino Valley and CSCSB. Under a recent agreement students or faculty apply at their college library for a borrowing card which allows use of the other two libraries as well. The experimental program continues through June 30, 1974, at which time it will be evaluated.

The Physical Education Dept. announces that the pool will not be heated during the month of January. It will, however, be heated and available for use after the first of February until further notice.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION
Insurance company representatives who offer life, dental, disability and income protection insurance will be on campus to present their plans on Tuesday, January 15. The clinic will be held in SS-100 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Release time from work assignments, subject to departmental approval, is authorized for employees who wish to meet the insurance representatives during the above hours.

The Sunday tours of the campus which began in 1968 and which have been enjoyed by thousands of visitors, have been indefinitely postponed due to the energy crisis.

Weekday tours of the campus, however, may still be arranged by calling the College Relations office.

Serrano Village is available at any time to members of the campus community who may be stranded due to mountain storms or flood conditions. For $2 per nite (no linen supplied) or $3 with linen, faculty, staff and students may stay at the village by contacting Theron Pace, Ext. 592. A number of faculty members and their families are currently occupying rooms in the residence halls.

Today is the last day to add classes and also the final day to register for the Winter Term.
