CSUSB
Crime Wave Hits Student Union

A recent crime wave, now into its third month, has affected the Student Union. According to Paul Bennecke, Student Union Coordinator, a number of personal and student-related items have been taken, all proceeds of A.S. activities and Union operating revenue totaling $56.00, are missing as well.

The problem has continued steadily last quarter, when a door mat was noticed missing during the Ice Concert last quarter. A door mat was also removed from the premises, as were a number of promotional posters for upcoming movies at CSCSB. In a related incident, a poster for "The Rose" was taken from its easel, which was then damaged by an unknown vandal during last week's disco while eyewitnesses looked on.

According to the rock group Amethyst, who played here in November, a brand new amplifier was noticed missing immediately after their performance. Its whereabouts are still unknown. It has been difficult to pinpoint a suspect, although many of those familiar with the situation feel that a campus resident is responsible for the thefts. Paul Woodruff, A.S. Activities Director, suspects that "someone in need of decorative materials" has had a hand in the thefts, and urged more vigilant supervision of the Union during peak hours—a sentiment echoed by Bennecke. "I'd like to see the students get involved," he said, "and be on the lookout for any suspicious activity." Otherwise it may be necessary to check IDs, he added.

One of the most frustrating aspects of this case lies in the fact that A.S. funds must be used to replace the stolen objects, which means that ultimately the cost will be borne by the students. "It's like they are robbing themselves," Bennecke claimed.

NEWS SHORTAGE CAUSES FUROR

The PawPrint is currently in the midst of a severe shortage of news. Preliminary reports show the general availability of general news to be down 70% from a year ago, the result of a presently undetermined action or agent. Experts predict that the current downswing will have far-reaching and potentially dangerous effects.

"We foresee this shortage as leading to a general increase in low-interest, artificial articles, much like this one," said Sue Doe, Chief of Public Relations. Chairperson of an advisory committee appointed to study the problem. The general public is just going to have to start paying attention to the amount of news they are currently reading, or else seek it from foreign markets at an inflated price, she continued.

It is rumored that much of the copy in this paper has been journalistically altered to give it the appearance of a genuine news article, whereas it is in reality, a senseless filler. This charge was refuted by PawPrint Editor-in-Chief Karen Newcombe as "hogwash." However, reliable sources indicate that the paper was suffering from a lack of material just prior to press time, and that drastic measures were taken to cut the number of unfilled spaces. It is believed that members of the PawPrint staff were making up news when no real news was to be found. "I wouldn't put it past them," stated one source close to PawPrint staff members to generate news, as there are no funds with which to pay reporters. This in turn has resulted in a number of desperate attempts by PawPrint staff members to generate revenue through unconventional means, including solicitation, and occasional begging. Efforts have been, to this point in time, entirely unsuccessful.

PAWPRINT FACES BUDGET PROBLEMS

A severe lack of money is currently hampering PawPrint efforts to produce a newspaper of acceptable proportions. In little or no news, as there are no funds with which to pay reporters. In this turn has resulted in a number of desperate attempts by PawPrint staff members to generate revenue through unconventional means, including solicitation, and occasional begging. It has been, to this point in time, entirely unsuccessful.

Bomb Explodes In Joshua

A 0.000006 megaton incendiary device exploded in the Joshua dormitory Tuesday, January 6 at approximately 9 a.m. Campus police are looking for a suspect, assumed to be a dorm resident with a package of 11 unpopped firecrackers.
Dear Editor,

I must commend you on the fine job you are doing. I recognize the difficulties one encounters when trying to produce a newspaper, but you seem to have overcome most of them admirably, I might add.

I think I speak for everyone here when I say that we are proud to have a fine paper such as this to read. Keep up the good work.

Dad

Dear Ms. Newcombe:

I'd like to publicly thank the PawPrint, the staff of the Student Union and the following volunteers for helping to make the A.S. sponsored Book Co-op a tremendous success. They are: Joan Chacon, Julie Hoffman, Russ Castle, Jim Fuentes and Jim Monroe.

Student response was very encouraging—I am looking forward to future Book Coops. Thank you.

Dear Pauline,

Thank you. Glad to help.

The Editor

Dear Editor,

Last week when I saw numerous signs advertising "Jobs available at the Pawprint", I decided to inquire about them. Having two years experience as a yearbook staff editor, I felt I was qualified for the job. The Pawprint editor looked over my application and she told me I was qualified. The only problem was that she had just been informed that there were no funds available for employers. If the school expects a good quality paper, they should expect to pay for an experienced qualified staff. Until they do, I don't expect the best from the Pawprint.

Julie Agnew

Dear Julie,

Thank you for your letter. True, there are no funds for staff wages yet. We are currently working on ways to correct this situation. Soon, I hope. Meanwhile, we will do our best here and we will work flat out until the paper is finished to the best of our capabilities. Keep in touch and when we have the funds I will give you a call.

Dear Editor,

What the hell do you mean there's no money for wages?!

-Brad

Oh, did I say that?

A Nurse Story With A Happy Ending.

Not too long ago in California lived a new RN graduate named GLORIA who was a tad confused about her future. Now of course, she loved people (why else would she have studied so hard?), but who was going to take care of her? Unhappily, GLORIA heard that new graduates must work long, crazy hours, make short, stubby salaries and never have enough help. Grey skies for GLORIA. What could make them blue?

Ray of light! Kaiser Permanente of San Francisco could! GLORIA signed up for our 8-week ICU/CCU training program beginning February 17th and found out that she didn't need critical care experience to qualify. We simply required that she had passed or applied to take State Boards. Subsequently, GLORIA also found out that she would be supervised throughout training by a Preceptor Staff Nurse. And, after completion, she would have her choice of working 32 or 40 hour/week (nights) in our ICU/CCU. And, not-to-mention an extraordinary starting salary and benefits program.

End of story? Not at all! Yours can have a happy ending, too! If you're an RN graduate like GLORIA, contact The Nurse Recruiter at 3200 Geary Blvd., San Francisco, CA 94115 or call him COLLECT at (415) 929-4134. His name is George Egolf.

* Application deadline is February 1st.

STEP TO AVOID DELAYS IN VA EDUCATION PAYMENTS

To help students avoid delays in their Veterans Administration education payments, VA Regional Office Director H.H. Villalovos has some pointers for them.

Some 600,000 VA checks worth more than $200 million are mailed each month to veteran-students and to eligible dependents, and the agency wants to do everything possible to avoid delays.

For the students' part, Mr. Villalovos suggests:

- "When you believe the initial payment for the school term has been delayed, first check with the school to find out the date the enrollment certificate was sent to VA. At least four weeks should be allowed from that date before an education check can be expected."

- "If an advance payment check is expected, make sure the required written request was signed. The specific request for the advance money should have been submitted to VA at least a month before the beginning of the semester."

- "Students who have gotten education benefits in the past should consider whether an overpayment exists, current benefits are withheld until the overpayment is recovered by the VA."

For further information on possible education payment delays, contact Ray Suycr, 887-7398, Cal State.

Book-Co-op

Students who sold books through the A.S. sponsored Book-Co-op may pick up their money and/or unsold books at the Associated Students Office located in the Student Union from 11 to 1 (Monday through Thursday) from now until January 22. Special arrangements can be made for evening students by calling Kathy Luster at 887-7394. ID cards required. Books/money not claimed by January 22 become property of Associated Students.

Intramurals

'Awesome' is the only word that describes the Cal State Browns' domination of the 6-man division of intramural football. Speed, moves, and an occasional good call propelled them, almost uncontested, to the coveted 'Green Shirt,' the CSCSB symbol of athletic excellence.

The Browns, manned, and womanned, by Kerry Boykins, Terry Boykins, Ery Caver, Anthony Duncan, George Duncan, Nancy Ferritti, Ivan Glasco, Julie Hoover, Sonya Jackson, Paul Lemire, and Vicki Tilmon, join a long list of Fall quarter Intramural Champions, including:

- B League 3:3 Basketball: Rimjammers' Jay Alverson, Ery Caver, Chris Cahoon, Wayne Hutchins, Paul Lemire, and Bob Trujillo.
- Turkey Trot: Mike West, Lee Ann Roberts and Jim Pierson.
- Frisbee Golf: Diane Matthews, Dave Favorite.
- Horseshoes: Joe Liscano, Sonya Jackson.
- Blood Drive: Rita George.
- Volleyball Doubles: Men: 'Turkey Hunters' Rob Wilson and Jeff Wasite.
- Volleyball Doubles: Women: Dena Duncan and Heather Matthews.
- Best Sportsmanship: Slim Veit.

The first event of the Winter quarter, the Puck Shoot, held at registration, drew 40 participants, 14 of whom were successful. Four of the 14 Pat Siever, Allyn Kruse, David Flatt, and Bill Zima won the drawing for the T-shirts, which may be picked up in Joe Long's office, PE 124.
