Renaissance Month Begins
MASTERWORKS EXHIBIT.
PROGRAMS OF MUSIC, DRAMA,
DANCE, LECTURES MARK EVENT

Today ushers in the Month of Renaissance on the CSCSB campus, which will bring a series of exhibits, programs of music, drama, dance and lectures unparalleled in the history of the College.

Renaissance Month, planned by Richard Switzer, Dean of the School of Humanities, is designed to show the marking of the beginning of the modern world of the arts. Featured throughout the month are:

A banquet and viewing of the exhibit of items from the world-famous Frank V. de Bellis collection of books and manuscripts. Mrs. Serena de Bellis will give a talk on some of the rarest of the 150 items. Sunday, Feb. 3, reception honoring Mrs. de Bellis, 5:30 p.m.; dinner, 6:30 p.m., both at the Commons. Preview tour follows the dinner.

A play, "Mandragola," by Machiavelli, staged by the professional Travelers Company of Hollywood, directed by Helene Koon, Assoc. Prof., English, featuring actors from TV and films. Feb. 8 and 9, 8:15 p.m. and 2:30 p.m., Feb. 10 in FA-117; $2 admission; reservations, Drama Dept.

Costumed Chamber Singers directed by Loren Filbeck, Asst. Prof., Music, will sing and dance at a banquet. Feb. 24, 6 p.m. (James I will be imperial guest.)

The de Bellis exhibit will be on display at the Library First Floor throughout Renaissance Month. Admission is free. Highlights include literary manuscripts, one dating back to 1367; letters of Cicero; Sermons of St. Augustine, books by Dante, Boccaccio, Machiavelli, Michelangelo, Virgil, Galileo, Euclid, Ptolemy, Aristotle. Also featured are drawings by Raphael, Michelangelo, del Sarto.

OFFICIAL CENSUS SHOWS
3,097 STUDENTS ON CAMPUS;
UP 2% OVER FALL QUARTER

Official Jan. 25 census figures for Winter Term enrollment show 3,097 students on campus. This is an increase of nearly 2% over the Fall, 1973 student population, which totaled 3,023.

Translated into Full-Time-Equivalent figures, this represents an F.T.E. of 2,609, the same as last Fall's enrollment, which indicates that students this quarter are carrying a slightly lighter-than-usual workload. Last year's Winter Term enrollment totaled 2,599 students, making the current term an increase of 498 over the Winter, 1973 count.
SERRANO RESIDENTS WELCOME INSTALLATION OF TELEVISION CABLE

TV has come to Serrano Village, under an agreement between the College and the Liberty Cable TV Service. The long-awaited installation took place last Wednesday and was celebrated by Serrano residents in a party last night, with refreshments furnished by Mary Doherty, Cafeteria Manager. Ordinary TV antenna reception is not possible on campus due to the surrounding hills, necessitating the use of a cable.

MODELS OF LEONARDO DA VINCI INVENTIONS IN LIBRARY EXHIBIT

Models of inventions by Leonardo da Vinci, who designed a flying machine and other devices now in use, over five centuries ago, are on display during Renaissance Month on the Fourth floor of the Library.

Models on loan from the Design and Arts Programs of IBM include an ornithopter from an early Leonardo design of a lattice-like wooden framework, two movable wings, a series of ropes and pulleys and a windlass. Also included in the exhibit are models of his designs for a helicopter and a parachute. The models are displayed with panels of explanatory material and sketches reproduced from Leonardo's notebooks. Other panels bear his sketches in the fields of mathematics, optics, astronomy, botany and city planning. The IBM touring exhibit was seen in more than 150 cities throughout the United States last year.

RENAISSANCE DRAWINGS ON DISPLAY IN GALLERY

As part of the Renaissance Month observance, original drawings from that period will be on display in the Art Gallery throughout February. The show represents selections from the Sonnenshein collection, owned by Cornell College in Mount Vernon, Iowa.

A reception at 6 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 10 in the Art Gallery will introduce the exhibit and conclude an afternoon of Renaissance events. (See Page 1) The activities, a 2:30 matinee performance of "Mandragola" and 5 p.m. lecture on Machiavelli, are in the FA Building. There is a $2 charge for the play but none for the lecture and reception.
