Next Monday, February 28, academic advisement for the Spring Term begins, continuing through Friday, March 4.

Last day of classes for the Winter Term is Wednesday, March 16 and final examinations begin on March 17 and end on March 22, which is also the day officially ending the Winter Term.

Music Makes the World Go Round with Gay and Solemn Sound is the title of the Cal State Concert Choir and Chamber Singers concert next Sunday, February 27. And suiting words to action, the musical groups will live up to that philosophy in a four-part program beginning at 7:30 p.m.

An ode, Purcell's "Come Ye Sons of Art," comprises the first quarter of the program. Choir soloists featured in the eight selections are Sandy MacAulay, Becky Huskey, Gena Baca, Kevin Price, Janet Collins and Joe Coyazo. "Weep O Mine Eyes," "A Song of Music," and "Nanie," will be sung by the 25-member Concert Choir, the latter two pieces being conducted by Miss Huskey and Mr. Price, respectively.

The 10-voice Chamber Singers will sing the third portion of the program, featuring compositions by Haydn and Billings, an American composer in the 18th century. In the last portion of the program Miss MacAulay will conduct the Choir in "Four Slovak Folk Songs" by Bartok. The choir will also sing "Simple Gifts" and "Stomp Your Foot" by Copland. (PS-10; admission:$1.50; children & students free.)

COMING ooo CONCERT BAND PROGRAM - Easy-listening music will be played by the Cal State Concert Band in a Sunday evening program, March 6.

The public is invited to attend the concert, free of charge, which will begin at 7:30 p.m. in PS-10. Arthur Moorefield, Music Department Chairman, will conduct.

The artist will give a talk on opening day at 7 p.m. in FA-104. A reception will follow at 8 p.m. in the Art Gallery. The College and the public are invited to both the talk and reception. Mr. Rosen will discuss the development of his painting, emphasizing the work on display.

PAYDAY IS TUESDAY, MARCH 1.

The artist's paintings have been shown widely throughout this country and are in 16 museum and university collections.

The show will be on exhibit through March 31.

ART STUDENT HAS SHOW AT U OF REDLANDS

Brian Babinski, CSCSB art major, has an exhibit of drawings and paintings at the Gallery at the University of Redlands, co-exhibiting with David Lawson, former CSCSB student. The show is called "Two Realists" and closes Sunday, February 27.

"The Lady's Not for Burning," which opened last night, seems destined to be a box office smash. Due to the heavy demand for seats, playgoers are asked to contact the Drama Department, Ext. 7452, for availability of tickets.

MEL HAWKINS EARNS PH.D.

Melvin G. Hawkins, Associate Professor of Sociology, has received word from the United States International University at San Diego that he has completed all requirements for the Ph.D. in Sociology with a specialization in Social Psychology.

Dr. Hawkins' dissertation was on "A Study of the Resocialization of Juvenile Delinquents in Institutions and Family Group Homes." The degree will be officially conferred in June, 1977.

Dr. Hawkins, who joined the CSCSB faculty in 1972, holds a B.A. degree from Morehouse College and a M.S.W. from Atlanta University.

George Weiny, Professor of Physical Education, has been appointed Chairman of the Physical Education and Recreation Department, effective with the 1977-78 academic year, President John M. Pfau has announced.

Prof. Weiny, who joined the College in 1967, will take over the position being vacated by C. Michael O'Gara who recently announced his forthcoming retirement.

Before coming to Cal State, Mr. Weiny taught and coached football, cross-country, and swimming at Pacific High in San Bernardino and served as head swimming coach at both Pacific and San Gorgonio High Schools.

A graduate of Iowa Wesleyan, Mr. Weiny also holds a master's degree from the State University of Iowa. Prior to his post at Pacific High he served as principal, coach and teacher at Hillsboro School District in Iowa; Asst. Director of Public Relations at Iowa Wesleyan College; and teacher-coach at Burlington High School and J.C. in Iowa. He has worked as YMCA physical director with the YMCA both in Iowa and San Bernardino, organizing the Downtown Y's swim team which won a Southern California championship. He has also assisted in instruction of skin and scuba diving at the YMCA.

Nationally known as one of the top scuba divers in the country, he was chosen in 1973 by the Federal government to assist in training natives of the Island of Truk in the Pacific to salvage sunken Japanese warships, a task which called on his experience as a demolitions expert during the Korean War. He has dived with scuba gear since 1951 and has taught it for 12 years.

COMING LECTURES

Dr. Nancy Sue Johnson, Asst. Prof. of Statistics, UC, Riverside, will speak on "A Non-Parametric Approach to Categorical Data" at noon in BI-129, Monday, March 7. The talk, sponsored by the Department of Mathematics, is open to all.

How mental hospitalization can lead to a "career of madness" will be discussed by sociologist-author Thomas Scheff here Wednesday evening, March 9, as part of the Distinguished Lecture Series. (7:30 p.m., Lower Commons 104)

CSCEB POLITICAL HOPEFULS CAMPAIGN

Cal State personnel are displaying a distinct penchant for politics, at least at the local level. Five CSCEB members are currently involved in school district elections.

Ward McAfee, Dean, School of Social Sciences, is in a race for a seat with an incumbent in one area of the Wrightwood Elementary School Dist.. while Charles Hoffman, Asst. Prof., Psychology, has entered the race in another area of the same district. Les Herold, Assoc. Prof., Psych., also a Wrightwood resident, has announced his withdrawal from the field.

Tom Rivera, Assoc. Dean, Special Services, is campaigning for a seat on the Board of the Colton Unified School District, one of four against the incumbent from his area. Two professors from the School of Administration have entered the arena: Rauf A. Khan, Assoc. Prof., is running for the San Bernardino Valley Community College Board and L. Rick Tillman, Asst. Prof., seeks the office of Victor Valley J.C. board member.

In addition to those campaigning, the College can boast of many already elected. Margaret Gibbs, Assoc. Prof., Administration, is president of the Board of Trustees of Citrus College and a four-year member. Ernest Garcia, Prof., Education, is past president and six-year veteran of the Rialto Unified School Dist. Board. John Hatton, Assoc. Dean, Counseling and Testing, successfully ran for San Bernardino City Unified School Dist. in 1975 and Mike Rose, Relations with Schools Officer, was elected two years ago to the Banning Unified School District Board.
