SUPREME COURT JUSTICE KENNEDY DEDICATES ANNENBERG WING AT CSUSB’S PALM DESERT CAMPUSS

U.S. Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy told a capacity audience of 300 at the Indian Wells Theater, "An enlightened citizenry is a precondition for democracy," Kennedy said. "That's why we are here this day." Kennedy talked of education and the importance of the arts in a healthy society. It was his first such speech in the region. "This will provide the next generation of teachers and counselors that are so needed," said CSU San Bernardino President Albert Karnig. The university's Palm Desert campus is the first state university to be built with private, foundation and local city funding. Rep. Mary Bono, R-Palm Springs, and Assemblyman John Benoit, R-Palm Desert, also spoke at the ceremony.

NEW BILINGUAL PICTURE BOOK CELEBRATES THE CHERISHED RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN GRANDPARENTS & GRANDCHILDREN

Samuel Caraballo's ode to family, Mis abuelos y yo / My Grandparents and I (Arte Publico Press, $14.95), depicts the special influence of a young boy's grandparents in his life. His voice rings as he catalogs the various ways his grandparents impact him. Through gentle verse, Caraballo strings the joys and adventures of weekends spent throwing parties in the kitchen with delectable desserts, strolls to the museums and historic sites, and sprinting through the spray of a water hose in the backyard. Set in Puerto Rico, the story also pays homage to a unique childhood on the island, colored by descriptions of El Morro, the cruise-liners and big...
Compiled by Christine Kloster, Inspiration to Realization offers a master plan for personal and professional breakthroughs and summits. Divided into three sections - spiritual, personal, and business/financial - the topics covered includes:
- Five ways to tune into your intuition and trust your soul
- Two tips to attract a successful romantic relationship
- How to take care of yourself...first
- A nine-step process for creating the life of your dreams
- Simple methods for reducing stress
- Seven tools to design and manifest a balanced, and fulfilling life.

Pringle contributed Chapter 36 entitled Listening to Your Spirit: Accepting Guidance from Within. The chapter is an overview of the lessons Pringle learned in her career in communication management, with the most recent experience being tied to the creation and launching of the Inland California Television Network (ICTN).

ICTN, which debuted in November 2003, is a publicly supported, community-based television network established and managed by Cal State, San Bernardino, in partnership with 15 local municipal governments in San Bernardino County.

The network offers the only live nightly news program, which focuses on news in the San Bernardino-Riverside County region. The news is cablecast live Monday-Friday on Channel 3 at 10 p.m. and repeated at 10:30 p.m. and re-broadcast at 11 p.m. on KVCR-TV, Channel 24, which reaches satellite, off-air and cable viewers for a potential audience of 4 million throughout the Southland and Palm Desert area.

Pringle, who became ICTN’s executive director in July 2002, began her career in communications as a radio and newspaper reporter in Wisconsin. She moved into on-camera work for KCSB-TV3, KVCR-TV and Time Warner in Palm Desert as part of her 13 years as the Director of Public Affairs for Cal State, San Bernardino.

She is the award-winning host of Job Connection, a job development program that ran on TV3 in San Bernardino for five years. Pringle has held leadership posts for various civic organizations, including the San Bernardino Area Chamber of Commerce, the Inland Empire Symphony Guild and Santa Claus, Inc., among others.

A resident of San Bernardino, she has two grown daughters who also live and attend school in the area. Pringle holds a BA in mass communication from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a degree in psychology and marketing management from Cal State, San Bernardino.

Like a symphony of self-accomplished female professionals, Inspiration to Realization authors reflect a varied group of successful artists, business owners, life coaches, consultants, CEOs, TV executives, inventors, and psychologists. They are also thriving individuals, girlfriends, wives, mothers, daughters, grandmothers, and sisters.

The book’s premise holds that women collectively share in the pursuit of a vibrant, well-rounded life. Yet, an overemphasis on career and business endeavors while shortchanging personal or family matters carries a profound unspoken cost. Conversely, if an individual’s focus strays too far into the spiritual at the expense of the life of your dreams, the result is that true freedom becomes fleeting.

Inspiration to Realization can be purchased online for $19.95 (plus tax and shipping) at www.inspirationtorealization.com.
WASHINGTON, D.C. - The Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) praised the introduction in Congress this week of two Hispanic graduate education bills to meet the advanced education needs of the nation's youngest and largest ethnic population.

"The 109th Congress is being asked to make an investment in graduate education at those colleges and universities which serve the largest concentrations of Hispanic students. We applaud the tenacious leadership of Senator Jeff Bingaman of New Mexico and Congressman Ruben Hinojosa of Texas for re-introducing these important bills," said HACU President and CEO Antonio R. Flores.

"This legislation will benefit all of us in providing the nation's Hispanics, who currently make up one of three new workers joining the workforce, the advanced knowledge and skills so necessary to our nation's future economic success, security and global leadership," Flores said.

Congressman Hinojosa, chair of Education Task Force of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus, on Thursday introduced the "Next Generation on Hispanic-Serving Institutions" bill, HR 761, which would also enhance undergraduate education at those colleges and universities for the Act next five-year cycle.

For Hispanics, who suffer the lowest high school and college graduation rates of any major population group, the "Next Generation" bills provide comprehensive support to substantially increase the numbers of Hispanic Americans obtaining undergraduate and graduate degrees.

Flores said.

In addition to providing a new graduate program support, the bills would increase the funding authorization level for undergraduate education at HSIs to $175 million under Title V of the HEA, beginning in FY 2006. Undergraduate Title V appropriation for HSIs for FY 2005 totaled $95.1 million.

Since more than half of all Hispanic higher education students now attend two-year community colleges, the bills would allow Title V funds for the first time to be used for articulation support programs to ease the transfer of two year students to four-year colleges and universities.

The bills would also reduce regulatory burdens now hampering the efforts of many HSIs to obtain competitive Title V grants. The bills would eliminate the two-year wait-out period between applications for Title V grants and also eliminate the 50 percent low-income assurance requirement from the federal definition of HSIs.

"Although HSIs are at the forefront of every major effort to serve the fast-growing college-age population, HSIs on average receive only about half the funding per student accorded to all other degree-granting institutions. These bills comprehensively address this inequity," Flores said.

During the last HEA reauthorization cycle seven years ago, Congressman Hinojosa introduced the "Higher Education for the 21st Century Act." Passage of that Act led to new recognition for the National role of HSIs in higher education under a new Title V of the HEA, as well as substantial new multi-million dollars annual Title V appropriations for HSIs in every subsequent year.

For more information, contact HACU's national headquarters in San Antonio, Texas at (210) 692-3805 Ext. 107. Contact HACU's Washington, D.C., offices at (202) 833-836, or visit www.hacu.net.

STATE FIREFIGHTERS RECOGNIZE LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE: ASSEMBLYWOMAN GLORIA NEGRETE MCLEOD NAMED LEGISLATOR OF THE YEAR

The California State Firefighter’s Association honored Assemblymember Gloria Negrete McLeod Tuesday, Feb. 15, at a legislative reception in Sacramento after naming her Legislator of the Year.

The Assemblywoman was recognized for introducing multiple bills related to improving the provision of fire suppression services in California, CSFA president Kevin Nida said.

Gloria McLeod has been a staunch proponent of public safety. She also has demonstrated strong support for firefighters, the men and women who risk their own lives in their efforts to keep the public safe," Nida said.

The California State Firefighters’ Association named Negrete McLeod, whose 61st Assembly District includes Riverside County, the California State Firefighter’s Association honored Assemblymember Gloria Negrete McLeod Tuesday, Feb. 15, at a legislative reception in Sacramento after naming her Legislator of the Year.

Johnson's long service to the board. "I appreciate the opportunity to serve on the Riverside County Board of Education," he said. "I know I have some pretty big shoes to fill."

Mediano was born and raised in Banning. He graduated from Banning High School and earned a bachelor's degree in history from the University of California, San Diego in 1978. He was a group counselor at Twin Pines Ranch in 1987 and became a deputy probation officer in 1989. He is now a supervising probation officer in Indio. Mediano is married and has two children.

Mediano served nine years on the Banning Unified School District Board of Trustees and was appointed to one year on the Banning City Council. He is a member of the California Probation, Parole and Correctional Officers Association, Toastmasters Club #8396, Coachella Valley Baseball Association, Coachella Valley Football Officials Association, and has been involved in the Banning Youth Center.
ASSEMBLYMAN JOE BACA, JR. ANNOUNCES LOCAL APPOINTMENTS

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2005

Visit groups and individuals to be through our office, and Valentina Morales as our office secretary. "San Bernardino is my home town and I have interacted with many in our business, social and political community. This experience will be an added advantage for me to serve our constituents in the 62nd Assembly District."

Rafael Trujillo, II, born to Rafael and Rosalia Trujillo, in Corona, fourth in a family of two sisters, Lorena and Juanita and brother Miguel. His father, a factory worker and mother, a homemaker, both taught their children the attributes of hard work, respect for others, the value of higher education and family traditions. At Centennial High School, Trujillo became involved in civic and Chicanos activities. He graduated second in a class of 503, with a 4.6 grade point average! He enrolled at Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut in 1998. "I was the youngest in the family and I wanted a little independence and ability to expand in a different environment," he said, very straightforwardly.

At Yale, in addition to his studies, Trujillo was involved as a legislative intern with Congressman Diana DeGette, Mexican-American Legal Defense Fund (in Los Angeles), Jerome Frank Legal Services, Professor Owen Fiss of Yale Law School, and Latino Cultural Center at Yale, UFW (at Yale), among other political, social justice, immigration, and myriad of school activities. He graduated from Yale with a BA in History, Minor in Ethnicity, Race, and Immigration.

Trujillo campaigned for Al Gore (for president), Sarah Reyes, Tony Cardenas, Joey Acafin, Denise Ducheny and Joe Baca, Jr. He served as field representative for Assemblywoman Sarah Reyes.

Trujillo has received many accolades, the California Assembly Resolution for Service (31st Assembly District), Fresno County Office of Education Commendation for Contributions to Education, Phi Alpha Theta National History Honor Society, Yale University History Department Research Fellowship, and Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute Internship Program Award, among others.

"I am appreciative of my parents dedication to the family, their hard work and to instill in us those attributes of tradition, work ethic and dedication to the family, their hard work for my community," Trujillo said.

Born in Carson, California, Channing Hawkins attended Eltienda High School, and played football. "At times, I had difficulty in focusing in my studies in school. Fortunately for me, I had my family who guided me, my mother and father, Wanda and Michael Jackson, Uncle Nathaniel Spam, and my grandfather Art Jackson," he said. He graduated from high school in 1996.

He enrolled at Howard University in Washington, D.C. Hawkins became immediately involved in voter registration in North and South Carolina. "This experience in these battleground states gave me an insight into what are the biggest needs in the communities and a greater determination for involvement," Hawkins said.

Hawkins became interested in the teaching profession and history, with an emphasis in West African history and education policies at the local level.

He also became involved in school and outside community activities: Pan Hellenic Council, Alpha Phi Alumnae, director of the College Democrats, director of Operation Vote Bision, co-founder of Operation Hope, chairperson, Brother to Brother Youth Conference, and mentor, Campus Pals, Cesar Chavez Public Charter School for Public Policy, and the Gore-Lieberman campaign. Hawkins graduated in 2001, with BS in History and Minor in Education.

He was on the Dean's List (semester honors), and the President's Service Award.

"My future goal is to become an attorney and I will focus my efforts toward that career goal," he said.

Assemblyman Joe Baca, Jr. office is at 201 North "E" Street, San Bernardino, CA 92401, telephone (909) 386-1413.

durance in a foreign war, grateful for the return of many, and knowledge of a few that did not.

Sgt. Robert Jimenez of Corona, described his service as not as dangerous as other units in Iraq. "We were stationed about 30 miles south of Baghdad, and although we were always careful in case of anything happening, the majority of our assignments were to build bridges, schools, waterways, roads and many other public projects to build their infrastructure and help the people return to some quality of life after all they went through," he said. He stated the Iraqis were very grateful for the work performed by the unit. Jimenez said other duties consisted of providing security for bases and convoy protection for trucks and vehicles throughout the region.

Although proud of serving in the Guard, and planning to reenlist, Jimenez is rejoicing in seeing his wife, Gricelda, Shawn 7, Shawanna 14, and Krista 3, and Lianna 23 months, both small children napping in the car, unable to wait up for their father.

Jimenez' wife, Gricelda, is also very proud of her husband for his patriotism and sacrifice to serve his country. "He has always loved the service and aware of what he had to sacrifice," she said. Gricelda refused to comment on the decision of the President to go to war in Iraq.

Jimenez, a guard at the San Onofre Nuclear Facility, is planning to rest and enjoy his family.

fliers in the ocean, and frolicking in the sea with stingrays. The verses sparkle with this island song, fluttering from the joys of the seaside to the cool nights under the stars.

Caraballo introduces the reader, aged 3 to 7, to a strong grandparent and grandchild relationship. Complemented by vibrant illustrations, this is a book to share with a child on a very special day.

SAMUEL CARBALLO is the author of Estrellita se despide de su isla / Estrellita Says Goodbye to her Island (Piñata Books, 2002), which was the winner of the 2002 Reading with Energy Hispanic Children's Literature Award. Caraballo was born in Viques, a gorgeous, tiny island off the East Coast of Puerto Rico. He spent many of his childhood days playing in the countryside hills and picking mangos and guavas, his favorite tropical fruits. He has served as an interpreter for the courts in cases involving Hispanics. He has also dedicated many years to teaching Spanish in several public schools in the United States. He presently lives in Virginia with his family. He loves painting, fishing, and writing poetry.

DINA CRUZ holds a BFA from Paier College of Art in Connecticut. As a young girl, she could always be found daydreaming or drawing - a combination that has led her to illustrate children's books. Her paintings reflect the places she has visited and her Latino culture. Nina lives in Northern New Jersey and enjoys spending time with her eleven nieces and nephews.

Arte Publico Press is the nation's largest and most established publisher of contemporary and reconditioned literature by U.S. Hispanic authors. Its imprint for children and young adults, Piñata Books, is dedicated to the realistic and authentic portrayal of the themes, languages, characters, and customs of Hispanic culture in the United States. Books published under the imprint are designed to serve as a bridge from the home culture to that of the school, and as support to family literacy and elementary school education. Based at the university of Houston, Arte Publico Press, Piñata Books and the Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Heritage Project provide the most widely recognized and comprehensive advocacy case for Hispanic literary arts and creativity.
