AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY
INCLUDES DISABLED PERSONS

President John M. Pfau announces that in order to ensure full compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and A.B. 1309, effective January 1, 1978 the California State College, San Bernardino's affirmative action practices, applications and conditions include and apply to disabled persons. The College's Affirmative Action Officers are responsible for the effective implementation and coordination of the following policy:

This College makes all decisions relating to personnel policies and practices including recruitment, hiring, training, and promotion on the basis of the disabled employee's or applicant's capacity to perform the particular job applied for, including the consideration of any reasonable accommodation.

The College is committed to a firm policy of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action for disabled persons and expects each administrator, supervisor and employee to participate by actively supporting the implementation and advancement of this policy.

The Affirmative Action Officers are James D. Thomas for faculty and administrators and Oscar Jackson for staff.

EMPLOYEE USE OF PERSONAL PHYSICIAN IS EXTENDED

In cases of job-related illness or injury, the Labor Code provides that 30 days from the date the injury is reported, an employee may be treated by a physician of his own choice, or at a facility of his own choice, within a reasonable geographic area.

SB No. 520, which became effective January 1, 1978, continues this privilege, and, in addition allows treatment by a personal physician from date of injury, if the employee has notified the employer in writing of such personal physician prior to the date of injury.

Employees who wish to receive treatment from their personal physicians for industrial injuries or illnesses are requested to complete the Choice of Physician form and forward it to the Personnel Office. Before doing so, please check to see if your physician will accept the fees authorized by Workers' Compensation and prepare the required medical reports.

EQUIVALENCY EXAMINATIONS OFFERED BY CSCSB CAMPUS

The College is participating in a state-wide program to give entering college students a head start with academic credits. Known as equivalency examinations, a series of tests are offered by the 19 campuses of the CSUC this spring.

Incoming students have the opportunity to demonstrate knowledge of English, math and science equivalent to that of college students who have completed basic courses in these fields, paving the way for qualified students to bypass certain courses and receive credit for them.

The English tests will be given on Saturday, April 29 on the CSCSB campus and the other 18 campuses. Applications must be filed by April 7. Science and math tests will be administered on May 20; application deadline is April 28. Forms are available at the Admissions Office or through high school counselors.

AUTHORS RECEIVE FEELERS FOR "THE HOUDINI DECEPTION" AS BROADWAY PLAY OR MOVIE

It's a long way from San Bernardino to Broadway. But two student playwrights think they have a vehicle to shorten the distance. Danny Bilson and Paul DeMeo will use their original play, "The Houdini Deception," which premiered on the CSCSB campus earlier this month.

Just returning from Los Angeles where they had registered the play with the Screen Writers Guild to protect the film rights, the actor-writers also mentioned that their play has been copyrighted. They are still reeling from the success of their work. Just getting it accepted as the winter quarter play was a singular honor for them, but such enthusiastic response was never anticipated. "It went beyond our imagination... fulfilled our wildest hopes and beyond," stated Mr. Bilson. "It's been a really great experience... still is."

The collaborators, to their amazement, have received feelers from producers who say they are interested in taking the play to Broadway and a call from "some guy in L.A., a producer, who is interested in film rights. And one from a magician from New York who is also interested in it for Broadway," Mr. DeMeo adds.

What has happened from the time two Theatre Arts majors who decided to write a play about Holmes because they couldn't find one has had exciting consequences for them. William Slout, Professor of Theatre Arts, who said he half-kiddingly advised them to "write one if you can't find one," said the response is unexpected. "Absolutely amazing." He thinks the unique combination of Holmes and Houdini in a well-constructed play is responsible for the interest. "Even more pleasing is that what began as a student project is receiving offers to buy it."

Authors Bilson and DeMeo have a literary agent in Beverly Hills who will be culling over any offers. Currently they are re-writing some of the script and their agent will then probably introduce it to producers in New York where they hope for some kind of a showing before the possibilities of film are entertained.

Their agent also has expressed an interest in handling them as professional writers on any future work.
