West Coast Premiere
STUDENT DRAMATISTS PRESENT "SLEEPING WITH THE ENEMY"

The West Coast premiere of Harry Cauley's adult comedy, "Sleeping With the Enemy," will be presented by the Players of the Pear Garden May 2-5.

All performances will take place at 8:15 p.m. in the Theatre of the Creative Arts Building.

Owen Sheeran, senior theatre arts major, is the director for this production, which marks only the second time a major drama offering has been directed and presented in the Creative Arts Theatre by a CSCSB student.

Tickets for the play go on sale April 23 in the Theatre Arts Department Office. General admission is $2.50; faculty and staff, $2 and students and senior citizens are $1.50.

"Sleeping With the Enemy," which takes place in a cabin in Lake Arrowhead, focuses on a middle-aged grandmother who has an affair which turns out to be more than she bargained for. Although billed as an adult comedy, it is not without serious moments. At times it leans more toward a hard drama as it looks at people and human nature in general, pointing out that everyone has a breaking point. Yet, in the play there is a surprise twist around every corner which keeps the situation light.

The playwright is known on campus as the College's first dramatist-in-residence. While teaching here in the Fall of 1973 he lived in Lake Arrowhead, the (Continued on page 2)

The demonstration will begin at 11 a.m. in the Recital Hall. Voice and instrument renditions will be used to obtain interesting effects.

For their concert at noon, they will play two original pieces, "Canon 5" and "Piece for Trumpet and Dancer," plus "Experiences No. 2" by John Cage, "Kryl" by Robert Erickson and "Only You" by Edwin London.

Dives exploring the wreck of the Japanese submarine I-169 which sank in Truk Lagoon off Micronesia in WWII, a wide variety of underwater plant and animal life, a movie from color slides of underwater photography, and an introduction to diving featuring a number of California dive sites are depicted in the films which comprise the festival.
