1980 WINTER CLASS SCHEDULES ARE HERE

Class Schedules for the 1980 Winter Quarter have arrived on campus and are on sale in the Bookstore for 55¢ each, plus tax.

The new schedules arrived in time for Winter Quarter advising of students by faculty, beginning next Thursday, November 15 and ending November 21, just before Thanksgiving holiday.

VETERAN'S DAY IS NON-HOLIDAY

Veteran's Day, Monday, November 12, is a regular workday for the College. All classes and offices will be on normal schedules. The holiday will be taken by the College on December 24 as an Academic-Administrative holiday.

DISTINGUISHED YOUNG POET TO GIVE POETRY READING

One of the most distinguished young poets today will make an appearance on campus Wednesday, November 14.

James Tate, whose visit to the College is part of a statewide tour, will give a poetry reading at 4 p.m. in the Lower Commons.

The College community and the public are invited to attend the presentation at no charge.

A 1976 Yale Younger Poet Award-winner, Mr. Tate has been widely published with top name presses and in such notable magazines as The Atlantic, The New Yorker and Poetry.

He has received Guggenheim and Rockefeller grants and has read poems at many universities and colleges throughout the country.

Currently he is a creative writing instructor at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. He has also taught at the University of Iowa and U.C. Berkeley.

The poet's visit on campus is being arranged by Larry Kramer, Professor of English.

FORMER STAFF MEMBER

OF THE THREE REARDON SISTERS, IT'S CATHERINE, PLAYED BY CORINNE SCHNUR, WHO DRINKS A LITTLE. THE PLAY, "AND MISS REARDON DRINKS A LITTLE," OPENED ITS CAMPUS RUN LAST NIGHT.

One of three high school teachers, sisters, Catherine is an unmarried lady in her 40's who jokes, wisecracks and puts up a loud, feisty front to cover up her true feelings. She also drinks a little. It's the kind of role that Katherine Hepburn might choose to play.

This is the sixth major Cal State production that Miss Schnur is featured in, and her third straight female lead.

A four-time Cameo achievement award-winner and three-time Inland Theatre League excellence nominee, the actress came upon the theatre scene by way of her work as a full-time staff member at the College. She was Chemistry Department, Public Affairs and Faculty Senate secretary in that order. It was during that period that she took courses after work and appeared in her first two plays.

Then two years ago she resigned her Faculty Senate job to become a full-time student as a psychology major with a possible career as counselor in mind. A supporting role in "The Sea Gull" netted some favorable reviews and comments which resulted in a switch to Theatre Arts. Now her goal is to become a professional actress.

In addition to the CSCSB productions, she has also appeared with the Central Court Players and Riverside Community Players.

She says that each of her roles has offered some new insight into herself and other people. She looks upon acting as a growth experience.

Miss Reardon is her biggest challenge - she's so different from Miss Schnur, who is shy and soft-spoken.

She may be seen as the curtain opens nightly at 8:15 in The Theatre. Good seats are still available. Performances are November 9,10;13-17. Call 7452 for ticket information and reservations.

FRESHMEN TO VISIT

Ten faculty families are opening their homes to Cal State freshmen for an informal afternoon or evening of conversation.

The project was sponsored by the Faculty Wives Club, with the assistance of the Freshmen Services Center.

The open houses scheduled for this coming Sunday afternoon are in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hawkins, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Paynton, Dr. and Mrs. Dennis Pederson, Dr. and Mrs. John M. Pfau, Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Scherba and Dr. and Mrs. Edward White.

The hosts last Sunday or Tuesday evening included Dr. and Mrs. Amer El-Ahraf, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Jambor, Dr. and Mrs. Bob Stein, and Dr. and Mrs. Reginald Price.

PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. David Hendricksen (Health Science) welcomed their first child, a son, Matthew Leigh, on October 28. Baby Hendricksen, a sixth generation Californian on his mother's side, weighed eight pounds at birth.

Mrs. Hendricksen (Pam Miller) is a 1978 CSCSB graduate.
NEW DIRECTOR OF BANDS TO LEAD
JAZZ ENSEMBLE AND DIXIELAND
BAND IN LIVELY WEDNESDAY CONCERT

The College's new Director of Bands, Keating Johnson, will lead the Cal State Jazz Ensemble and Dixieland Band in his initial campus conducting performance Wednesday, November 14.

Jazz, rock and ballads will be performed by the eight-member Dixieland Band and the 15-member Jazz Ensemble.

Mr. Johnson came to the College in September from Plymouth State College in New Hampshire, where he served in a similar position.

The Dixieland group will lead off with jazz classics "Sugarfoot Stomp," "Livery Stable Blues," and "Basin Street Blues," among others. The Jazz musicians will offer a mixture of big band ballads, jazz and rock.

A composition entitled "Far Away" by Daniel Sanchez, senior music major, will be performed by the ensemble.

The program is free of charge and open to all. (8:15 p.m., Recital Hall)

NOBODY ELSE TELLS YOU THESE THINGS:

The first of two computer seminars will be held November 13 on How to Use SPSS, the most commonly used statistical package in education and industry. Sheldon Kamienlecki, Asst. Prof., Admin., will conduct the seminars in LC-13 from 3-4 p.m.

Prof. Eugene I. Bender, School of Social Work at U of Calgary, will be a guest of the Sociology Forum Tuesday, November 13, at noon in LC-241. His topic will be "Self-help Research: A Neglected Area of Social Research." Prof. Bender, an expert in this field, is currently organizing a conference on the topic at UCLA.

The Learning Center will hold its annual Open House, sponsored by AS. It will be held in LC-37, Nov. 14, 11:30-2:00. Students, faculty and staff invited. Refreshments will be served.

A two-part Rape Awareness Program is scheduled for Wed., Nov. 14 in the SUMP Room. Part 1 begins at 7 p.m. and part 2 at 8:15 p.m. Law enforcement officers and experts on the subject of protection and legislation will discuss the subject. All are invited, free of charge.

Marvin Frost, Asst. Prof., Geog., will talk on "The Consequences of Expanded and Unplanned Development in the Tropics" at a faculty seminar Nov. 15, 3 p.m., LC-241.

Art Butler, Sgt. with the College Police, has been named Environmental Health and Safety Officer. All matters concerning accident/injury reports or general health and safety questions should be directed to Sgt. Butler. James Urata, Plant Operations, formerly held that title.

CSCSB employees who wish to participate in the Fee Waiver Program and take courses here under an approved plan may be eligible for a waiver of certain fees. Deadline for submission of request forms to supervisors, the first step, is Nov. 25 for the Spring Quarter. Personnel Office has further details.
Speaking up. Florence Weiser (Academic Admin.) spoke to members of the Four Counties Arts Council on "How to get Grants," Nov. 3, at a fund raising seminar held at the San Bernardino County Museum.

Professional activities

Melvin Hawkins (Sociology) led a workshop on "The Black Experience: Marriage & Family" at a conference on Marriage & Families, sponsored by Family Service Association of Riverside Inc. and Riverside Mental Health Association in Riverside, on November 1.

Dianne Irwin (Learning Center) and Jeanne Hogenson (Activities) presented a paper entitled "Student Satisfaction as a Function of Student Service Utilization" at the Student Personnel Association Conference at Asilomar-by-the-Sea on October 29.

Sheldon Kamieniecki (Pol. Sci.) chaired a panel on Patterns of Political Beliefs at the Annual Meeting of the Southern Political Science Association, held on November 1-3 in Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Dr. Kamieniecki also will represent the College at the national meeting of the Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, November 8-10.

Mireille Rydell (French) delivered a paper to the South Atlantic Modern Language Assn., held in Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 1-3, entitled "Celtic Traits in Arthurian Literature."

Publications

Nathan Kravetz (Education) has been informed of the publication of his children's book, Un Cheval D'Une Drôle De Couleur, by Editions BIAS, Paris. This the second foreign translation of his Little, Brown book, A Horse of Another Color.

Noteworthy

Three members of the College community were re-elected to positions on various boards at the November 6 election:

Margaret Gibbs (Pub. Admin.) - to Citrus Community College's Board of Trustees for a third four-year term.

John Hatton (Counseling & Testing) - to the San Bernardino Unified School District Board of Education for a second term.

Michael Rose (Relations with Schools) ran unopposed for a second term on the Banning Unified School District Board of Education.
